

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

LETTERS TO GENERAL GREENE AND OTHERS

Annotated by JOSEPH W. BARNWELL

[COLONEL BALFOUR TO LT. MCPHERSON¹]

Charlestown Jan^r 21st 1781

Sir:

I have received your Letter of the 19th Inst: & am to thank you for the very proper measures you took to free the Country from the Enemy's Plundering Parties, & trust you will, in a great degree, hinder their again crossing to your Side of the River. To this End it will be necessary to keep a watchful Eye on the Passages between you & Nelson's Ferry, & be attentive to the communications with that Post, on which Subject I now write to the Com^d Officer there.

I am, Sir
Your obedient humble Servant
W. Balfour.

Lieut: M^cPherson
(Turn over.)

¹ The gallant and able officer who was in command of Fort Motte when it was besieged and taken by Greene's troops in May 1781. The driving away of the families of Whigs from their plantations is consistent with Balfour's action in the execution of Col. Isaac Hayne.

P. S. I must request that you will be so good as to take particular care, that the family's of those who have joined the enemy are not suffered to remain on their plantations but sent off immediately—W. B.

[EDWARD RUTLEDGE TO GENERAL WASHINGTON³]

My d^r G^r

Calling on the C. de la L^s: a few days ago to congratulate him on the Arrival of the F: Fleet in the Bay of C:⁴, The Conversation after a time was turned to the Object agst: which it was hoped the armament was to be employed when the Reduction of C^s should be accomplished; & I embraced the Opp'y of urging as far as I was able the necessity & practicability of recovering C. T. to the Union—The Minister appear'd (as he always has been) anxiously disposed to advance the Operation, & desired that I w^d Submt to him in writing my Ideas of the practicability, promising to make up of his best Services wth: the C. de G: for a naval Cooperation—the Candor & Confidence with which he has treated me, the Influence which his Interest may possibly have on the Conduct of the Admiral, & the Import^{ce} of the Object which was to be obtained would not suffer me to hesitate; & I complied with his Request the day before Yesterday by delivering to him such Sentiments as I could well throw together within the Compass of a Letter—urging in addition to the practicability of the Measures, such political Reasons as my Ideas suggested to me for a speedy attempt.

³ This is a rough draft of a letter to Gen. Washington written before the surrender of Cornwallis. The original dated Philadelphia, Sept. 12, 1781, is still in existence as a part of the correspondence of Gen. Washington now in the Congressional Library. It shows the deep interest in his State felt by Edward Rutledge, who had just been released from captivity at St. Augustine, and shows the friendly terms upon which Rutledge, as was the case with most of the leaders of the Revolution in South Carolina, was with Gen. Washington.

⁶ Cornwallis.

I observed to him that, as the F. Fleet in A: was now not only vastly Superior to every th^s the B: have, but to every thing which they can have, even when reinforced by Adm'r D: with 6 Sail of the Line, that it w^d be impossible for the Eng. to venture an attack on them, or attempt the Relief of C. T. with a probability of Success: we had therefore reduced to a certainty, the Force, against which we w^d have to contend.

The Season of the y^r from the beginning of Oct^o to the End of the Winter, was on every Acc^t the most eligible for operating—provisions of all Kinds being then in greater plenty, & of better Quality than at any other period—The weather usually remarkably fine—the Climate peculiarly Healthy, & the Strength of the United Army full half way from their late Station, to the Scene of Action.

That should C^s be overcome (as Heaven's grant he may) the Acc^t of it would arrive in England just ab^t the Meeting of P——t—an important period in which the Ministry w^d be enabled to Props with more Confidence one or oth^r of the following plans—either to open a Negotiation for a peace, or to Seek out Some new Alliance; to obtain which they must & would make very great Sacrifices; or what was equally probable they w^d annoy us with one, while they push'd the other—If the first plan alone Sh^d be adopted to what Advantage Sh^d we treat if in poss^o of C: T.—if the latter sh^d be successfully persued & we sh^d not be in the possession of C. T. on the arrival of the reinforc^{es} to the Gen: in C. T. it was impossible to say when or where we ever shall obtain it by Arms—In the Summer we shall be obliged to abandon the lower, to seek Health in the upper p^t of the C^o; to leave the Wealth of the State in the power of our Enemies, & Such Families as could not be remov'd, at their Mercy. Or else we must at all Events keep our Army in the Vicinity of the Town, & suffer it to be consumed by sickness—In Short that there was every thing to be expected from an immediate Exertion, everything, to be dreaded from a delay—I farther observed to him that if we possessed our selves of it at an early period We should have the Benefit of the present Crop which will be soon harvested & be in time to prepare for the ensuing year; which, tho' not of very general nature, is deserving of Attentions, as will affect the Convenience of some Thousand Individuals, & those of the most helpless class—I then stated to him the Importance of the Southern States to France when considered in a commercial point of View—the great Advantages which She must derive from the Circumstances of those States being principally devoted to Agriculture, their being of course obliged to obtain from abroad almost all the Manufactures which they used & the probability there was of having a considerable part of their produce carried off in y^e Vessels of France; concluding the whole with observing That when the B: C: took their final Leave of A: in 1778 they declared y^t they w^d desolate the Country and render as little useful to France as possible—that in their Declaration they appeared to have been sincere—That they had sent from the Southern States many thousands of Slaves by whom the Fields were cultivated, & probably in their last act of Rage and Malice they would reduce our Capital to Ashes—that the speedy Recovery of the State and a naval Force sufficient to prevent their Escape afther having perpetrated so savage an Act were the only Securities we could possibly have against Beings who have been so long destitute of Humanity, and who would make it their greatest Glory to wound in their vital parts a people united to his most Xtian Mag^t as we were by every Sentiment which Affection & Gratitude c^d inspire.

As I imagined it possible that what has passed on this Occasion might find its way to the Bay of C. I thought it nothing but a matter of Becoming Delicacy as well as a Point of Duty on my part to communicate it to y^o as soon as possible confident as I am that your Friendship will excuse the trouble which the perusal will give you & persuaded that sh^d it become a Subject of conversation & there sh^d be a possibility of their being appeal^{ed} they w^d receive all poss Support from your better Reason.

With the greatest Esteem & affect^a I am my d^r Gen^l

Your most affect Friend

E: R:

THOSE gallant SONS of BRITAIN,
IRELAND and AMERICA, whose Errors or Misfortunes have compelled them to enlist under the Banners of a Rebel Congress, paid by the King of France, and devoted to his Will—who in Return for their Services, for the Toils, Difficulties and Dangers they have undergone, have neither received the Pay nor Cloathing due to them; and who, in a Word, are now experiencing the Want of almost every Necessary, as well as Comfort of Life;—Let such Men shew the Spirit becoming Freemen; let them disengage themselves from so ignominious, disgraceful and unprofitable a Service.—Within the British Lines, they will be received with Kindness; and may sell their Arms, Accoutrements and Horses; there Tradesmen may follow their Occupations, and be paid in solid Coin for their Work—Such Natives of the Old Country as wish to return Home, will have abundant Opportunities; while those who are desirous of enriching themselves with the Spoils of our Enemies, or are anxious to acquire Military Glory, may enter into the Service of King GEORGE.

List of Persons ordered out of Charlestown April 28, 1782.

⁷The numbers of the Royal Gazette, then printed in Charleston, between March 23 and May 22, 1782, are missing from the volume owned by the Charleston Library Society, and it is impossible to say from this source whether this proclamation was issued in Charleston only, as it purports to be. The House of Commons had on February 27, 1782, adopted without division a resolution praying the King not to pursue further the object of reducing the Colonies to their allegiance. This news was probably not known in Charleston when this bitter proclamation was issued. On April 4th Gen. Leslie commanding the British forces in Charleston attempted to procure the suspension of the confiscation Acts passed by the Jacksonborough Assembly in January of that year, and the prevention of further devastation on either side, by suggesting the appointment of Commissioners with a view to coming to an agreement on the subject. Governor John Mathews, elected by that Assembly, refused this suggestion (Ramsay, Revolution In So. Ca., Vol. 11, 355). This proclamation and the expulsion from Charleston of prominent Whigs and their families may have resulted from that refusal. There was certainly a renewal of incursions from Charleston into other parts of the State.

⁷ The absence of the files of the Royal Gazette mentioned above prevents the verification of this list. Most of the information as to the persons expelled is taken from the almanac of John Tobler, published in 1782 when the British were in possession of Charleston, and from the almanac for 1785 published after the end of the War. Both of these almanacs may be found in the Charleston Library.

⁹ Daniel Hall, member of a whole family of patriots. Daniel Hall & Co. did business at 5 Tradd Street in 1785.

¹¹ Saml. Prioleau, Jr. & Co. were doing business at Cor. Broad & East Bay in 1785.

¹² Joshua Ward was an Attorney at Law, and a man of prominence.

¹³ Jonathan Scott married Ann Harleston. His will was proved April 3rd, 1784

¹⁴ Tunis Tebout was a "Liberty Tree" patriot of 1766.

¹⁵ Mrs. Meyers. Philip Meyer was on the "Pack Horse." This lady may have been of his family.

¹⁷ Peter Bacot. The father of Thomas Wright Bacot for many years Post Master of Charleston.

¹⁷ Edward Shrewsbury. One of the well known family now extinct. Stephen Shrewsbury was on the "Torbay."

¹⁸ Thomas Radcliffe was a large property owner, and Radcliff-borough comprising all of the land between King, Vanderhorst, Radcliffe and Smith Streets was his.

¹⁹ Mrs. Somersall. William Somersall was a merchant in Charleston in 1782.

²⁰ John Colcock was the Counsel for Col. Isaac Hayne at the time of his execution (See Genealogy, Vol. III, page 218 of this Magazine.)

²¹ William Mason was Clerk of the Court of Common Pleas in 1784, probably a reward for his fidelity.

²² William Print was an Attorney at Law.

²⁴ Mr. Stark. There were three of the name known during the Revolutionary War. Col. Robert Stark was imprisoned in the Provost afterwards the "Old Post Office."

²⁵ Samuel Legare. Also imprisoned for a time in the Provost.

²⁶ John McCall, an insurance broker at 77 Church Street in 1782. The family were well known Whigs.

²⁷ Daniel Cannon. Cannonsborough was named after him. It comprised a large tract of land with mill ponds north of Bull Street and west of Smith and Coming Street.

²⁸ John Webb. Webb & Doughty were in business together in 1785.

²⁹ Thomas Doughty. In 1782 he was a carpenter at 108 Meeting Street.

³⁰ Christopher Williman of the well known family still existing.

³¹ Dr. Harris. Dr. Tucker Harris a physician of prominence.

³² Alexander Alexander. A school master in 1782.

³³ Nathan Childs & Co. were in business at 85 Church Street in 1785.

³⁴ The Miss Sarazins. Jonathan Sarazin was one of those imprisoned in the Provost. These ladies probably held the political views of their relation.

³⁵ John Eberly imprisoned on the "Torbay."

³⁶ Mrs. Tenent's Family. Rev. William Tenent was a Presbyterian clergyman of great distinction, officiating at the Independent Church and a firm adherent of the American cause. He died August 11th, 1777.

³⁷ Mrs. Stephens. Possibly a relation of Daniel Stevens imprisoned in the Provost.

³⁸ Mr. Duvall. There were many of the name in Charleston then and afterwards.

³⁹ McCully Righton. On the "Torbay"

⁴⁰ Alexander Rose, a merchant in 1782. Like Charles Pinckney his name was on the confiscation lists.

⁴¹ Peter Neufville. A prominent Whig family. John and Edward were merchants.

[EDWARD RUTLEDGE TO GOV. JOHN MATHEWS]⁶⁰Oct^r 4th 1782

Sir.

In Obedience to your Excellency's Request to proceed on Wednesday last to M^{rs} Elliott's at Accabee to meet such Gentlemen as should be appointed by L^t General Leslie & to receive & discuss such Propositions as they should think fit to make relative to the Redelivery of American Property within the British Lines—Between two & three o'Clock in the afternoon of that Day M^r Alexander Wright & M^r James Johnston answered on the part of General Leslie & open'd the Business by saying that they had been sent to by that Officer about nine o'Clock in the Morning but had not had access to him until twelve when he desired that they would meet your Excellency's Commissioners and make the following Proposition.

"That there s^d be a Restoration of all American Property now within the British Lines, such only excepted as he should be obliged to remove, by which was to be understood such of our domestics

* Mr. Hall, Also a prominent Whig family. Several of them held important offices after the Revolution.

* John Glen. Attorney at law in 1782.

* Mr. Lightwood. His house stood at the S. E. corner of Lightwood Alley, now Atlantic Street and Meeting Street.

* John Calvert was a merchant in 1785.

* Mr. Clark. John Clark, Jr. was on the "Torbay."

* Mrs. Linnen. Probably "Linning," of a well known family.

* William Roper lived at 52 Bay Street in 1782; of the well known family.

* Mrs. Warley. Felix Warley was Clerk of the Court of Common Pleas in 1784. Felix, Paul, Joseph and George, all officers in the Continental Line, were probably her sons.

⁶⁰ On August 17th, 1782 Governor Mathews had written to Gen. Leslie threatening that if the property of the citizens of South Carolina was carried off by the British fleet, which was assembling for the evacuation of Charleston, he would seize the debts due to the British merchants then in Charleston. This had led to the appointment of Commissioners on either side who on October 10th, 1782 came to an agreement, seeking to prevent, among other things, the carrying off of negroes belonging to citizens of the State, upon the fleet. This letter is a draft of the first report made by Edward Rutledge and Benjamin Guerard, appointed by the Governor, with regard to their efforts to reach an agreement.

as had rendered themselves obnoxious to their Masters by being servicable to the British: that they would nevertheless be fairly valued and fully paid for. Upon Condition that y^r Excellency & the Council would agree to a suspension of the Confiscation Act and pledge themselves to use their best Endeavours as well in their Judicial as official Capacities to obtain a total Repeal of that Act upon the next meeting of the Legislature" Your Xcy's Com'ers answered them by saying that the Act of which the Repeal was required had been passed in the full assembly, upon mature Deliberation & with the full concurrence of both Houses, that y^r Xcy. would therefore in our opinion assume a great deal too much should y^o attempt to suspend the Operation of that Act & that therefore any Interference with it on that Head y^r Xcy's considered was utterly inadmissible. The British Commers replied that they were not at Liberty to make any further offers, General Leslie having declared his Resolution in Case his propositions should not be acceded to to carry off all the Property he could possess himself of, that Compensation might be made to the Friends of British Government for their Losses. But that as the Subject which we were discussing was of vast Importance, & as they were at Liberty to listen to any Proposition from us they were desirous of knowing what engagem^{ts} we would enter into for the Property in Question—y^r Excys Commers then answered that in passing the Act above mentioned the Legislature had exercised a great Degree of Humanity by exempting from Confiscation Debts due to British Merchants, to their own Citizens who were the Object of the Act, & Settlements fairly made for the Provision of Families—that such Lenity would appear the more conspicuous when our former Forbearance was recollected & compared with the conduct of British Generals [Lord Cornwallis's name written and erased] from the time that the American Government had been established on the Ruins of the Royal authority until the Reduction of Charles Town the Pt^r of the Subjects of G: B: & of our own Inhabitants who had declared their Sentiments & with drawn from our Society had been secured & protected by Our Laws, And how had we been requited? We had been requited in the following Manner—the The Capitulation had been infringed as soon almost as it had been signed—the Property of nearly every Citizen who had adhered to his Alleg^{es}: had been sequestered & much of it squandered,—

Marriage Settlements had been broken in upon—the validity of Contracts for the Sale of estates since the Revolution had been questioned for the Purpose of grasping the Property of our fellow Citizens—& even Debts which were due to our unfortunate Countrymen were made Objects for Sequestration—that in Conseq^{ce}; of such Conduct we had sustained hopes (independent of the ppty in Town) infinitely beyond what we had confiscated, from thence we should have been fully justified in going every length; & that if the British should carry off such of our Property as was now in their Possession, the people of this State would hold themselves at Liberty to proceed to the Extremity of Power: that having now given this previous and timely notice if they by their Conduct should compel us to go into measures painful to our feelings & injurious to their Interests the Misfortune & the Faults would be on their own Heads as we had in what was withheld from Confiscation ample Funds for Reperation? Yet as we wished to avoid any further Measures which could occasion them Distress we were ready & willing on our part to do every thing in our power to prevent: & then Your Eccey's Commers made the following Proposition &c &c.

The British Commers replied that the Proposals appeared deserving of serious Consideration & requested that they might have an opp'y of communicating them to Gen^l L. to which we readily agreed & they accordingly returned to Town that Even'g & came up again about two oClock to day with the following Answer—&c.

It appearing that nothing more could be done in this Business an End was put to the Conference by mutually declaring that we did not consider the Propositions on either side as any longer binding & that each Party was as much at Liberty as before the Conference We have the Honor to be

Endorsed;

THE EARLY GENERATIONS OF THE SEABROOK FAMILY

Compiled by MABEL L. WEBBER

The arms given in the family papers, imperfectly blazoned are: "A red cross on silver shield, a black cross crosslet fitchée. Crest: hand erect holding a red cross".

Burke's Armorie (1851) gives for Seabrook, Arms: Argent, a lion pass, gules, in chief a cross crosslet fitchée sable.

Crest: a hand erect, holding a cross crosslet in pale gules.

In this attempt to give some account of the earlier generations of the Seabrooks, a prominent and influential family who settled in Colleton County sometime before 1680, only the public records have been used, for such family accounts as the Compiler had access to, were mainly traditional, and did not agree with data found in the public records. As the Colleton records before 1865 have been destroyed, and the Charleston records show many sad gaps and the Seabrooks, as a rule, seemed to have failed to leave wills, there are several problems which have been settled by negative, rather than positive evidence.

Much valuable assistance has been given by D. E. Huger Smith, Esq. and M. Alston Read, Esq. both in collecting the material and in solving the various interesting problems which presented themselves.

Captain Robert Seabrook (1652-1710), an English Merchant, was the ancestor of the South Carolina family; he came to the province before June, 1680, and, from the will of his son John, he appears to have come from Dunstable, in the County of Bedford. As Robert Seabrook, merchant, he gets a warrant in June, 1680, for 200 acres of land, and warrants, dated Feb. 17 and 18, 1680/1 for two town lots in Charles Town, and in August 1683 one for 80 acres for the importation of two servants.¹

In January, 1692/3, he was granted lot no. 159 in Charles Town for a church yard² [sic]

² Grant Book in Columbia, S. C., also this Magazine, Vol. IX, p. 21.

In August 1692, he was accused of holding "unlawful Commerce wth pyratts selling unto them provisions arms & ammunion," and was fined.³

In April, 1697, he bought 2700 acres of land in Colleton County, and his son John bought 2080 acres.⁴ He was a Commissioner under the Church Act of Nov. 4, 1704;⁵ was a Member of Assembly and speaker of the House in 1705,⁶ and commanded a company from the Islands during the French Invasion in 1706.⁷

Robert Seabrook died December 7, 1710, in his 59th year, and his wife Sarah died June 16, 1715, in her 47th year; they, with their son Benjamin, were buried at the old St. Pauls Church, Stono, near Church Flats, where their tombstones still remain.⁸

Robert Seabrook left a will, which is missing; from other wills, deeds, and inventories, he appears to have had children as given below, order of birth unknown. Sarah was probably a second wife, for according to her tombstone she was seventeen years younger than her husband, and the manhood dates of John Seabrook, son of Robert, make it seem unlikely that he could have been her son.

Robert Seabrook (1) had issue:

2. i. John Seabrook, of age by 1697, therefore born 1676 or earlier. Will made 1706; married Ann—
3. ii(?). Thomas Seabrook, of age by 1712, therefore born 1691 or earlier; latest date found concerning him is 1720; married Mary—?
4. iii. Ann Seabrook, married William Parrott, of James Island; she was born 1700 or earlier, and was still living in Dec. 1757, when her son Benjamin made his will.
5. iv. Martha Seabrook, married Capt. Arthur Hall. She was buried June 5, 1733 (St. Andrews Reg).⁹

John Seabrook (Robert, 1) of Colleton Co. Born before 1676; purchased 2080 acres of land May 15, 1697. Made his will April 15, 1706 (no date of proof); he died before Jan. 1712.

In his will¹⁰ he describes himself as John Seabrook of Colleton County, and mentions the following:

Poor of the Parish of Dunstable, County of Bedford, England £100 Sterling. Eldest son of Joseph Peddiphett living in the Barbican near Aldersgate London, £50 Sterling.

Eldest son of Joseph Fossey of "Hochley in the Whole" Middlesex, £50 Sterling. Wife Ann Seabrook £200 currency of So. Ca. in lieu of her thirds. Father, Robert Seabrook £200 currency in trust for daughter Martha when sixteen or married. Son James Seabrook £500 currency when 20, clear of all charges for his education &c. To Brothers and Sisters [not named] £20 currency each. To father Robert Seabrook Esq. of Colleton Co., all lands, negro and Indian slaves, horses, cattle, hogs and stock whatsoever. Father Robert Seabrook sole executor, Dated 15 April, 1706 [date of proof not given, but the will just before this was proved in April 1712, and the one following proved in May, 1712.] Witnesses, Evan Mackpherson, Hugh Hext, Benjamin X Lamboll [mark] and Henry Wigington.

In January, 1712, an act was passed to enable Capt. Arthur Hall, Capt. John Whitmarsh, and Mr. Robert Seabrook, administrators of John Seabrook, late of the Province of Carolina, planter deceased, with will annexed, to sell the lands of said John Seabrook to pay his debts, legacies &c.

John Seabrook (2) had issue:

1. Martha, no further record.
2. James, no further record.
3. Child unborn in 1706 no further record.

3.

Thomas Seabrook (Robert, 1). The inference is strong that Thomas was a son of Capt. Robert, but no conclusive proof of the relationship has been found. On 26 Dec. 1712,¹¹ as Thomas Seabrook of Colleton Co., planter, he mortgages to Capt. Arthur Hall, John Whitmarsh and Robert Seabrook, administrators, with will annexed, of John Seabrook, two plantations in Colleton County 2080 acres on the west side of the Ashepoo River, and 380 acres adjoining, in all 2460 acres bounded east on the river; William Parrott. Edmund Cook and William Allen witnesses. The number of acres first mentioned, 2080, agrees with the number purchased by John Seabrook in 1697; probably Thomas Seabrook purchased John Seabrook's lands, giving a mortgage on same. On 23d. January, 1715/16, as Thomas Seabrook, of Colleton, planter, he gave a bond¹² to Capt. Anthony Mathewes of Charles Town for £997 current money, and mortgaged to Mathewes the following Slaves: Negroes, Jolly, Sampson, Daffiny Betty and Francisca; two Indian men, Peter and Anthony, and four Indian women, Catrena, Judy, Hager and Sarah.

The latest date yet found for Thomas Seabrook was 16 April 1720, when, with William Parrott and Lud. Grant he witnessed a deed¹³ of release from Arthur Hall and Martha his wife to Robert Seabrook, of 372 acres, Wadmalaw Island, adjoining land formerly Richard Underwood's, then Samuel Underwoods, being part of 1800 acres surveyed and run out April 1699 for Capt. Robert Seabrook, and conveyed 21 Aug. 1710, by deed of gift to Arthur Hall from his father-in-law, Capt Robert Seabrook.

Thomas Seabrook appears to have married twice. There is a Seabrook group, which by careful examination and elimination, seem to be the children of Thomas by Mary——, who was probably a kinswoman of the Hexts', for Alexander Hext, in his will, made 16 July 1736¹⁴ leaves most of his estate to John and Richard Seabrook, Sarah Green, Mary, Elizabeth and Susannah Seabrook, children of Mrs. Mary Seabrook, but does not mention a relationship. John Seabrook of the Hext will, had a brother Benjamin who is not mentioned in the said will; this possibly points to his having a different mother.

Thomas Seabrook (3) seems to have had issue by a first wife, name unknown:

- i. Benjamin Seabrook of St. Paul's parish, born 1716 or earlier. Married 7th April, 1737, Mary Bonneau.¹⁵ On Dec. 13, 1745,¹⁶ John Seabrook of John's Island, gentleman, gives to Thomas Farr of Charlestown gentleman as trustee, in consideration of love and affection which he (said John Seabrook) bears to his brother Benjamin Seabrook and Mary the wife of said Benjamin, and Elizabeth the daughter of Benjamin and Mary, five negro slaves (named), for the use of wife and daughter of said Benjamin Seabrook, without his interference, and any other child born to said Benjamin and Mary. On the death of Benjamin Seabrook, Thos. Farr to convey said five slaves to the said Elizabeth Seabrook, and any other child of Benjamin and Mary. If Benjamin die without issue, then one half of slaves to Mary, wife of said Benjamin Seabrook and the other half to return to John Seabrook or his estate.

On Feb. 3d, 1753¹⁷ Benjamin Seabrook, as administrator, makes returns from the sale of the estate of Mrs. Mary Seabrook at Ashley Ferry; the purchasers at the sale were George Saxby and Wm. Harvey (sons-in-law of Mrs. Mary Seabrook), Benjamin Seabrook, and Mrs. Bosomworth (her daughter). It is not easy to distinguish between this Benjamin Seabrook, and Benjamin the son of Joseph (9), but that they are not one and the same is evident; the further history of this Benjamin has not been recovered.

Thomas Seabrook had issue by Mary—:

- ii. John Seabrook, of St. Bartholomew's Parish, born 1719 or earlier, died before June, 1750; married before March 18, 1740¹⁸ Mary, daughter of Christopher Wilkinson and his last wife Elizabeth, for upon that date Lieut. Gov. Bull directed Robert Yonge, Henry Williamson and David Crawford to appraise the estate of Christopher Wilkinson, and to apportion to Mary, daughter of said Wilkinson, who had lately married John Seabrook of St. Bartholomew's parish, her share of the property.

John Seabrook made his will 21 Jan. 1743, proved 22 June 1750;¹⁹ mentions his mother Mary Seabrook; his wife Mary Seabrook and any issue he may have by her; if no issue, then sisters Susanna Seabrook and Elizabeth Seabrook, neice Mary Green; lands on Stono and John's Island; Mr. James Mathewes of Charlestown, and George Saxby, Executors; Miles Brewton, Hen: Christie and James Drummond witnesses. His widow married 26 Feb. 1756, Thomas Legarè (St. Phillips Register Mss.) John Seabrook seems to have left no issue.

- iii. Sarah Seabrook, born 1720 or earlier, married before 1736 Daniel Green Jr., by whom she had one daughter, Mary Green, born 27 March, 1737/8. She married second Joseph Jones of Johns Island, who, 15 April, 1741,²⁰ makes provision for Mary Green, infant daughter of his late wife Sarah Green; and if said Mary Green die, then to John Seabrook, Mary Harvey, Elizabeth Seabrook and Susannah Seabrook; Alexander Hext, trustee.
- iv. Mary Seabrook, born 1724 or earlier, married Augt. 23, 1739,²¹ William Harvey Jr. (1717-1784). They had issue: (1) Joseph Harvey born and died, 1745, (2) Mary Harvey, married first Wm. Soc.) under date of Oct. 19, 1765 enters the item "M^r Saxby hung in effigy." Mrs. Elizabeth Saxby died in England, late in the 18th, or early in the 19th Century.
- vi. Richard Seabrook, baptized Oct. 23, 1735,²⁷ died young.
- vii. Susannah Seabrook, baptized Oct. 23, 1736,²⁷ married first, 2d Nov., 1749, at Ashley Ferry, Abraham Bosomworth, Esq., agent for Indian Affairs; the newspaper account of her marriage states that she was "endowed with all agreeable accomplishments, and a fortune of £15000."²⁸ She married second, Hugh Penfield, and died in England.²⁹

Ann Seabrook (Robert, 1.), married William Parrot, of James Island. William Parrot made his will Jan. 24, 1734/5, proved, Sept. 15, 1735, mentions wife Ann Parrot, daughter Ann Rivers, son Benjamin Parrot under 21. Mrs. Ann Parrot was living when her son Benjamin made his will in 1757. ber of Assembly in February 1721.⁴⁵ Elizabeth, wife of Joseph Seabrook of Colleton County, renounces dower 30th January 1726, to the 1354 acres sold to Col. Arthur Hall.⁴⁶ He died intestate before June 10th, 1743, for on that date the inventory of his estate was filed by Elizabeth Seabrook, widow, administratrix; Joseph Russell, William Edings and James Cuthbert appraisers. He married Elizabeth, daughter of John Whitmarsh Senr. of Colleton County. Joseph Seabrook's inventory lists fifty-one slaves; John Whitmarsh's will (made June 1st, 1718 proved 25 Jan. 1720) gives his daughter Elizabeth ten slaves, Indian Rose, Nancy, Andrew, Pompey, Tom, Tony, Ishmael, Phillico, Phebe and Pompey's Jenny; among Joseph Seabrook's slaves are listed; a wench Felico [sic], fellow Andrew, wench Jenny, wench Phebe, fellow Tom, fellow Tony, fellow Ismael and Old Pompey.

John Whitmarsh left his son John two tracts of land on Edisto Island, one of 500 acres and one of 100; also three tracts on creek out of Ashepoo River, and eight slaves; Daughter Edith [she married Joseph Elliott in 1724] two tracts of land on a branch of the Ashepoo River, 100 acres known as Turkey Hill, and 150 acres known as the Hills, eleven slaves, twenty cows from the cowpen on Ashepoo River; Daughter Martha [married William Fuller Jr. in 1727], 200 acres on Edisto, being the plantation on which Mr. Thomas Bower dwelt, and eleven slaves; Daughter Ann eight slaves; Daughter Elizabeth ten slaves; Son John cattell, hogs &c at cowpen on Ashepoo River; House hold goods to be divided between his children, also all personal estate "beyond the seas" on the snow call John Adventure; Crops, cattle, sheep, hogs, horses on Edisto Island to be sold; Rest of personal estate to friends Benjamin Cattell and Robert Seabrook, who are also the executors, June 1, 1718. Proved 25 Jan., 1719/20.⁴⁷

The daughters are mentioned by their first names only, but the evidence is that they were all except Martha and Edith, married before the will was made; Mary to Robert Seabrook, Elizabeth to Joseph Seabrook, and Ann to Benjamin Cattell of St. Andrew's parish. Charles Martyn, "my friends and relations;" appoints Wm. Fuller, Benjamin Fuller, Whitmarsh Fuller, Revd. Charles Martyn, Joseph Seabrook, Benjamin Seabrook, Robert Seabrook, and John Seabrook "my kinsmen" to be executors. Proved 23 Jan. 1761, All the executors qualified.

From the above evidence it appears that Joseph Seabrook married Elizabeth Whitmarsh, and had issue (order of birth unknown):

8. i. Joseph Seabrook (later known as Joseph Seabrook Senr.) died about 1790.
9. ii. Benjamin Seabrook, died about 1780.

Death.] Mrs. Mary Beale, Wife of John Beale, Esq; a Lady much and deservedly regretted by all who had the Happiness of her Acquaintance. (Monday, December 3, 1771.)

Death.] On Tuesday last, the 10th instant, died here, in the Seventy-Second Year of his Age, Dr. John Moultrie, an eminent Physician. He practised the Healing Art in this Place, for near fifty years, in its several branches of Physick and Surgery, with such success and to such an Extent as would have done Honour to any Character. By Nature endowed with Several rare qualities of Mind, which were carefully cultivated by a liberal Education, first in the Languages and Philosophy, and then in Physick and Surgery; and, while yet a young man, enjoying the singular advantage of a personal Acquaintance with the first Surgeons of the Age, we cannot wonder that by those Helps and by the Example and Precepts of those Men, he gained that Degree of Knowledge which shown out with such Lustre in every intricate case whereon he was consulted. As a physician, he was eminently distinguished by his great Sagacity the first and leading Quality of that character. He saw, almost intuitively, into the Nature of Cases, and consequently his Endeavour to relieve was as quick as the Relief was certain. His strong penetrating Genius should never be fettered by the Systematic Theories and Jargon of the Schools on the one Hand, nor could it, on the other, ever be subjected to or debased by a low irrational Empiricism. Vigorous and discerning, his unbiassed mind enabled him always to see clearly, and judge properly. In surgery he has ever most deservedly, since his first settlement in this Place, borne the first Character; and in some Branches of that Art, his Skill and Success would have intitled him to the first Rank in any City in Europe. To his Character as a Physician that of a Gentleman was ever inseparably united. As a Father, happy in seeing his sons follow those Precepts he had given, and make the proper use of that Education which he had himself planned and carefully seen carried into Execution. In private Life, easy, chearful, affable, facetious; fond of his friends, animating the social Hour in the rational Enjoyment whereof he knew much happiness was placed; firm and warm in his Friendship. His Conduct as a Citizen and Subject was steady, uniform and consistant, unawed and unbiassed, with a Heart overflowing with Benevolence towards his fellow Creatures, he embrassed all with the Spirit of Humanity and true Christian Charity, and viewed none as his Enemies but the Enemies of Society. Those who knew him not may, from what has been said, form some, though very imperfect Idea of this great and good Man; those who knew him need only consult their own Breasts for his character. Justly may we lament the unspeakable loss of a Stock of Knowledge gained by such extensive Practice, and so long Experience; a Loss which may to this Place, and alas! to the weaker and more delicate Parts of the Society, prove irreparable. (Monday, December 16, 1771.)

Deaths.] Mr. Charles-Stevens Stocker, Merchant.—Mrs. Maverick, Wife of Mr. Samuel Maverick. (Tuesday, December 24, 1771.)

Death.] Mrs. Susannah Bee, Wife of Thomas Bee, Esq; in the Bloom of Life, and after a long and painful illness, which she bore with Resignation and Firmness truly Christian. (Tuesday, December 31, 1771.)

Death.] “At Georgetown, December 20th, 1771, much regretted, Dr. William Fyffe, in the 43d. year of his Age, after a tedious and lingering Indisposition, which he bore with great Patience and Resignation. To the advantages of a liberal Education, and a retentive Memory, he added indefatigable Industry and Study; his Death is a Loss to the Community in general, but particularly to his Friends.” (Supplement, Monday, January 6, 1772.)

ton's for this Port.—Mr. John Brown, Warden of the Workhouse.—Mr. Robert Rawlins.—At New York, Abraham Mortier, Esq; Paymaster-General of his Majesty's Forces in North America. (Thursday, February 6, 1772.)

ALL SAINTS, WACCAMAW; DESTROYED BY FIRE, DECEMBER 12th, 1915

HISTORICAL NOTES.

The parish Church of All Saints Waccamaw was, unfortunately, completely destroyed by fire on the night of Sunday, December 12th, 1915. Services were held in the building that morning and the church closed at one P. M. The fire was not discovered until 10 P. M., when some passing negroes found the building on fire and called Mr. J. H. Galbraith, the Rector, who lives near. The church was by then doomed, and there was only time to rescue the altar cross, and vases, the Bishop's Chair, an old Bible and Prayer-book and some altar hangings.

This was the third church on this site; having been erected in 1843, while Rev. Alexander Glennie D. D. was Rector. The church was quite a handsome one, substantially built of brick, and is thought to have cost between thirty and forty thousand dollars.

The Mural tablets, (now gone) and inscriptions from the tombs in the churchyard, were printed in this MAGAZINE Vol. XIII pp. 163-176. Some account of the Parish and its church has been given by Judge Henry A. M. Smith in his "Hobcaw Barony," this MAGAZINE, Vol. XIV, pp. 61-80; and the Rector, Rev. J. H. Galbraith, has given a full account of the destruction of the church, and also something of its history in The Diocese, for January, 1916.

[ARTHUR MIDDLETON TO LYMAN HALL]

Addressed: His Excellency
Lyman Hall Esquire
Augusta, Georgia
by M^r Melvin.

Cedar Grove March 1, 1783.

Sir,

By desire of M^r. Melvin I take the Liberty of troubling your Excellency with the relation of a Circumstance which respects him & myself—soon after my return home, I met upon the road & took possession of a Negro fellow who is my property & had been carried off by the Enemy—M^r Melvin laid claim to him alledging he had purchased him in Georgia where he was condemned & sold under the assumed name of Ben as part of the Cargo of a prize vessel captured by the Brig Edward owned by M^r. Ogden of N^o. Carolina & commanded by Cap^a. Samuel Gooderd. M^r. Melvin farther alledges that the Negro was known to be my property at the time of Sale & that he bid for him with Intention of offering him to me—I cannot help observing that I never should have expected such unkind usage from a Court of Admiralty in Georgia, being conscious of having endeavoured to conduct myself both in private & public Life in such way as to merit Milder treatment—I have refused to deliver up the Negro to M^r. Melvin, & shall keep possession of him knowing that there is in my favour a Clause of an Ordinance of Congress passed in December 1781 by which the recaptor is only entitled to a “reasonable Salvage not exceeding 1/4 of the value”—which Salvage I shall willingly pay when it is properly demanded—M^r. Melvin says he gave £50 sterling for the fellow & I imagin his desire of my acquainting your Excellency with the facts arise from an Expectation of your Interference & good Office in getting the money refunded; to effect which I doubt not you will be stimulated by that Love of Equity Justice and good Government which I have long known you to possess.

²This letter refers to what is said to have been the very last encounter in America between the British and American forces during the Revolutionary War in which blood was shed. An expedition was planned by Kosciuszko to surprise a party of wood-cutters on James Island about a month before the evacuation of Charleston on December 14, 1782. It was a failure, the enemy being found ready for them, and the gallant Captain William Wilmot of the Maryland line was killed and Lieut. Moore referred to in the letter, also of the same line, was mortally wounded dying after the evacuation of the city. (Garden's Anecdotes, Vol. 1, page 91).

Wishing you health and an easy Seat

I have the honour to be Your Excellency's Obedient and very humble Servant
Arthur Middleton.³

[HERIOT AND TUCKER TO JOHN RUTLEDGE]

George Town 30th January 1795

Sir

We have just received your's of the 23 Inst. and agreeably to your request have inclosed an affidavit setting forth the Loss of the Public Stores in the Department of the Commissary General taken by the British Forces in this place and the Vicinity in the year 1780.

Annexed to the Affidavit are the kinds, quantity and Value of the Property to the best of our Judgement, any other information you may wish to have we shall be very ready to give it.

The vessels that were Captured were Loaded with Provisions in order to send round to Charleston but being detained at this Bar for some time by adverse Winds it was Judged expedient to send them up the Waccamaw as high as they could possibly go for safety.

³ Arthur Middleton, one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence was elected a delegate to the Continental Congress by the Jacksonborough Assembly which met in January, 1782. Lyman Hall was Governor of Georgia for one term from 1783. Like Middleton he was one of the “signers.”

Mr. Cogdell is in the Country at present When he comes to Town we shall speak to him on the subject & make no doubt but he will do what you request.

We remain very respectfully Sir

Your very Hble Serv^{ts}.

The Honble John Rutledge

[GEORGE WASHINGTON TO GOV. EDWARD RUTLEDGE]

Addressed: His Excellency

Governor Rutledge

Charleston

G^o. Washington

Stamped, Alex. Va. Sep. 9.

Marked Free.

Mount Vernon Sep^r. 9th: 1799.

My dear Sir,

Brigadier General Washington called upon me on Saturday night and went off again on Sunday Morning.—His anxiety to get to Carolina as soon as possible (having been detained to the Eastward longer than he expected) prevented his passing more time with me.—He gave me the model of the Cannon which you was so good as to present to me, and by him I wrote a hasty line to you acknowledging the receipt of it &c.

This morning I had the pleasure to receive, under a blank cover from the War office, your obliging favour of the 3^d. of Aug.^t and a letter addressed to Brigad^r. General Washington, which I shall forward so as to get to his hands before he leaves this state.

Permit me, my dear Sir, to repeat my thanks for the model of the Cannon, and to assure you of my grateful acknowledgements for the kind and friendly sentiments contained in your letter.—No man can wish more sincerely than I do, that we may not be drawn into the conflict in which the European powers are now involved; but, at the same time, no one is more anxious that we should make every possible preparation to meet such an event, if it should be unavoidable.

In order to this, we should embrace the present moment to make our Establishments as respectable as circumstances will permit, and neglect no opportunity of introducing into them every improvement in the Military Art that can be useful, let it come from what quarter so ever it may.

I am sorry to inform you that M^{rs}. Washington has been confined by a fever for some days past. She seems at present to be a little better;—but is still very low. She is thankful for M^{rs} Rutledge's kind regards and most Sincerely reciprocates them, in which she is joined by—My dear Sir,

Your affec^t. friend and
Obedient Servant
G^o: Washington⁴

His Excellency
Governor Rutledge

⁴ As General Washington died on December 14, 1799 this letter was among the last which he wrote. It is written in his well known handwriting, and with as much care as though he had been a man of leisure, and not in chief command of the armies of the United States when War with France seemed nearly upon us. The sentiments as to what is now called "preparedness" sound very modern. The "General Washington" mentioned in the letter was the Colonel Washington of the Revolution, who had married and remained in South Carolina after the War.

Joseph Seabrook, Senr. of Edisto Island. (Joseph 2. Robert 1.). Died intestate; administration to Isaac Seabrook 30th. April, 1790.¹ With John Seabrook and others, he was a commissioner for the building a chapel of ease on Edisto Island in 1770; was a Justice of the Peace, Charlestown, in 1776;² was on the Confiscation list in 1783, to be amerced, but was favorably reported upon. There is some evidence this Joseph Seabrook Senr., (8) married Elizabeth Bailey, but this has not been proved.

Benjamin Seabrook (Joseph 2. Robert 1), of Edisto Island, died about 1780 leaving a will which is missing. As we said before, owing to the lack of wills, it is hard to distinguish between this Benjamin, and Benjamin of St. Paul's parish (see page 18).

Benjamin (9) and his brother Robert Seabrook, purchased May 14, 1751, of John Cattell 420 acres on Edisto Island.⁸ March 1st, 1755,⁹ Samuel Eaton of Edisto, gives a bond to Benjamin Seabrook. Samuel Eaton, of Edisto Island makes his will 16 March 1757,¹⁰ making John Calder, Joshua Eaton Benjamin Seabrook his executors; July 5, 1763, "Kannaway" Eaton gives receipt to Benj. Seabrook for his share of his father Samuel Eaton's estate.¹¹ In the S. C. Gazette for August 3, 1761, Benjamin Seabrook of Edisto Island, advertises for two runaway negroes, formerly the property of Mr. Benjamin Cattell. John May of Edisto Island made his will 3. Sept. 1765,¹² and mentions his Son William May, under 21; Mother Martha May, sister Martha Seabrook, and Brother-in-Law Benjamin Seabrook as sole executor; proved 5. Oct. 1765, Benjamin Seabrook qualified. There is a sketch of the life of William Seabrook in the Southern Agriculturist for February, 1837, which gives some interesting details concerning him. From this sketch we gather that he was an able man of fine character, who overcame by his own exertions the financial and educational disadvantages of his youth, which were some what the result of the Revolutionary War. At seventeen he took charge of his own and his mother's estates, and managed them so well that they improved greatly. He was one of the first to cultivate successfully sea-island, or black seed cotton, said to have been introduced into Georgia in 1785, by Josiah Tatnal, who received from his father, then Surveyor-General of the Bahamas, a handful of this seed. Mr. Seabrook was among the first to test salt-mud as a fertilizer for cotton; he also established a steamboat line between Charleston and Savannah, calling at the intermediate Islands; he was for many years an elder of the Presbyterian Church of Edisto, and gave liberally to educational and religious institutions; he left at his death, five thousand dollars to be used towards establishing a school in the Parish of St. Johns Colleton, and five thousand dollars to the Presbyterian Church on Edisto. Mr. Seabrook owned several large plantations; among them Seabrooks, (formerly Simmons' Island, "White Point" on Slann's Island, lands on Johns Island, Wadmalaw Island, Edisto Island, and Hilton Head. He built several handsome houses, one of which he speaks of in his will as his "Mansion house." He had given his older children handsome estates and large sums of money as they reached their majority, and his inventory shows his personal property to have been valued at $376,916.60, a large sum for those days.

The Court of Inquiry ordered to sit this Morning have reported that after maturely considering the Evidence & facts relative to the conduct of L^t. Col^o. Scott, they are of Opinion that Col^o.
Scott, acted imprudently in leaving the reg^t. without his Com^o.
Officer's Permission but do not think him subject to a Court Martial

B. M. Cap^t. McIntosh

For Command to be paraded at 4 oClock 2 Capt^s 4 Subs. 6
Serj^ts. & — Rank & file, they are to relieve the covering party under L^t. Col^o. Henderson.—L^t. Col^o. Hopkins is to have the

The Court Martial of which L^t. Col^o. Scott was Pres.^t have reported Cap^t. Mitchell of the Artillery charged

1st. With being absent from his alarm post on the Night of the 11th. August.

2^{dy}. for beating & abusing a Matross one Gavin Ervin in Violation of a standing Regimental Order.

3^{dly}. for behaving with Contempt & Disrespect to Col^o. Beekman of that Corps.

4^{thly}. For treating Col^o. Beekman (in the Character of Com^d. Officer at the time when the whole Line was turn'd out & the Camp in an actual State of Alarm) with abusive & scurrilous Language.

5^{thly}. For behaving in a manner unbecoming an Officer & a Gentleman.

On the first Charge the Court was of Opinion that Cap^t. Mitchell was absent from his alarm Post on the Night of the 11th. Aug^t. 1779, as it was conceived that it was his Duty to have been in the Park at the time of the Alarm notwithstanding no particular Post or Division had been assigned him; but as he was absent a very short time and had taken every Precaution necessary to receive the earliest Intelligence of an Alarm, they think the Charge rather frivolous. On the Second that the Court could not take Cognizance of it, as a punishment was annexed to a breach of that Order. On the 3^d. 4th. & 5th. Charges that they could not be separately determined. But are of Opinion that Cap^t. Mitchell did treat Col^o. Beekman the Com^d. Officer with abusive & scurrilous Language at the time when the whole Line was turn'd out & the Camp in an actual State of Alarm—They therefore sentence that Cap^t. Mitchell should be reprimanded in the presence of the Officers of the Artillery.

It gives the Gen^l. pain that he is under the necessity of disapproving the Sentence of the Court, but is constrained to do it as he thinks it totally inadequate to the Offence and that to approve it would be subversive of Order & Discipline in the Army.

A fatigue party to be paraded precisely at Retreat beating to relieve that now at Work to consist of two Cap^{ts}. 2 Sub^s. 4 Serj^{ts}. & 80 Rank & file.

from the Island of Rattan [sic], having been advised to leave his native Country on account of a deep Consumption which threatened his Life, he embarked for Jamaica, and was in his Voyage thither taken by a French Pirate and carried into Rattan where he lived six Weeks entirely upon Turtle, to which he ever ascribed the Cure of his Disorder. His greatest Foible was Credulity, believing the most improbable Stories even of his most intimate Friends, and though told by persons he scarcely knew. For many years past he looked upon himself as the Champion of the Protestant Religion on this side of the Atlantick, seriously believing that the Papists, particularly the Jesuits were continually plotting his Destruction, and impressed with this Belief he never went abroad without Pocket Pistols or other private Arms. In this Weakness, however, he was not singular; John Dennis the Poet and Critick and many others, might be adduced as Examples. He lived and died a Bachelor, was remarkably abstemious, and enjoyed the Use of all his Senses to the latest Period, particularly his Sight, being able to read the smallest Print without Spectacles. His remains, attended by many respectable Inhabitants, were decently interred in St. Michael's Church yard, on which Occasion it was remarked that six old Bachelors as Pall-Bearers could not be found in the whole Town. (Friday, March 3, 1775.)

Deaths.] "In the 31st year of her age, Mrs. Elizabeth Macpherson, the amiable Consort of Isaac Macpherson, Esq; justly lamented by all who had the Pleasure of her Acquaintance. A devout Christian, dutiful Wife, tender and affectionate Parent, a sincere Friend and ready at all Times to relieve the Distresses of the poor and indigent."—At Savannah, John Forbes, Esq; formerly an eminent Merchant in this Town, but had resided for some Years past in Georgia; a Gentleman whose many valuable Qualities render his Death sincerely regretted by a very numerous Acquaintance. Death.] After a short Illness, David Deas, Esq., an eminent Merchant of this Town, and Member in the present House of Assembly for the Parish of St. Michael: During a Residence of near thirty-seven years in this Province he served in several publick Stations and Offices, in all which he uniformly supported the respectable Character of a Worthy Citizen and honest man. In private Life, the Social Virtues of which he was possessed, and his general Philanthropy, conspired to make him universally regarded as a worthy Member of the Community. (Friday, August 25, 1775.)

Deaths.] After a severe Illness, George Ingles, Esq; an eminent Merchant of this Town, where he had been a Resident about 35 years. Happy in a numerous Offspring and a very extensive Acquaintance, his Death is much lamented, but most by those who had the Pleasure of intimately knowing so worthy a Man, and so valuable a Member of the Community,—John Remington.

⁸ She was the widow of Col. William Sanders, of St. George's parish who died about 1742, and daughter of the second Gov. James Moore.

Esq; Notary Publick.—This Morning, Mrs. de Brahm, Lady of Gerhard de Brahm, Esq. (Friday, September 8, 1775.)

Deaths.] Edward Harleston, Esq.—Edward Simons, Esq.—John Mathewes, Sen. Esq.—“Yesterday Morning, greatly regretted, Mr. Martin Campbell, of this Place, Merchant, of whom it may, with Truth, be said, That he was an honest Man, a most indulgent Master, a truly tender and affectionate Husband and Father and a meek and virtuous Christian. He bore for some years past, with the patience of a Job, that afflicting Disorder, the Asthma: a violent Fit of which put a Period to his afflictions in this Life, and let loose his Soul to share in the eternal Joys, prepared for those of the Just made perfect.” (Friday, October 20, 1775)

Deaths.] Mrs. Moultrie, Lady of Colonel Moultrie, and Mrs. Butler, Widow of the late William Butler, Esq; two Ladies, who were esteemed and respected by all who knew them, and whose Deaths are irrepairable Losses to all their Relations and Acquaintances.

Savannah in Georgia, November 15. Lately died, Joseph Butler, Esq.—Dr. James Forrester. (Friday, November 24, 1775.)

Deaths.] Mr. Thomas Elfe.—Mr. Michael Thomson; two honest, industrious Men. (Friday, December 8, 1775.)

Deaths.] Mrs. Mary Middleton, Wife of Thomas Middleton, Esq; a young Lady, whose Worth can only be equalled by the Grief her Death has occasioned to her numerous Relations and Acquaintances.—Mrs. Katherine Gordon, Wife of John Gordon, Esq; now in England, and Daughter of the late Honourable William Smith, Esq; of New York. An unaffected Piety, joined to an engaging Behavior, endeared her to all who had the Pleasure of her Acquaintance, and render her Death not less generally than deservedly lamented. BERNARD ELLIOTT'S RECRUITING JOURNAL
1775¹

Annotated by JOSEPH W. BARNWELL²

Set out from Cha^a. Town 24th June and proceeded to the (torn) on Horsavannah the same evening, halted all Sunday there, & early on Monday set out for Green Savannah where I found Lieut^a. Shubrick & Dunbar, then made a quick march thro' Jacksonburgh to Andalusia & took up our quarters there till tuesday morning at which time we again set out with Our Servants, Musicians, and others in our Retinue making altogether thirteen Riders, and crossing the Saltcatchers arrived at Pocotaligo to dinner, where being in hopes of getting some men we put up till the next morning, treated several with Wine grog etc, but enlisted none. On Wednesday we called at the Forest and dined, bated our horses & refreshed ourselves without any expense, in the afternoon proceeded up to Mr. Palmers at Laurel Hill—lodged there, and on Thursday went on a recruiting party and enlisted two men, then returned and dined at Laurel Hill, where we spent the evening, enlisted two females for the service and on the morning following set think it at all material, to inform me of it—b^t I judge it necessary to acquaint you, & thro' you, Congress, (to whom you will make the proper Representation of it), with the Situation of Affairs, here, at this period, I send, inclosed, a Copy of the Capitulation lest the Flag which the Gen^l, had Liberty to send, with dispatches to Philadelphia, sh'd not have arrived—The terms of the Capitulation are truly mortifying—the Treatment of the Prisoners were so—the Contl. Officers are Prisoners on Parol, at the Barracks on Haddrells-Point & restricted to six miles from them—the Seamen & Soldiers are Prisoners at the Barracks in Town—thus separated, with a design to get 'em to enlist, & enter, into the British Service, which some have done already, & many, with't doubt, will—I hope Congress will effect an Exchange, of these Troops, as soon as possible, (tho', it is probable, that Clinton will endeavour to avoid it), otherwise, in a little Time, they may expect 'em turned ag^t. us.—On Saturday last, the Enemy took Post with a considerable force at Dupree's ferry on Santee River which they began to cross, that day, on their March to George-Town, whither they had sent some Vessells, from C:Town, & they are certainly in possession of Geo:Town, which was not defensible,—Genl.-Casswell, who lay a little below Depree's ferry, wth the No. Carolina Brigades, & the Virginia Continentals, under Col. Buford, had luckily retreated this way, before the Enemy got to that ferry, & thereby prevented their Cutting off his Retreat, which was probably their first Scheme—These Troops, now under Command of Genl-Huger, are abt. 15 miles below this place, & will be here today—Huger's Motions will be directed, by the Correspg force of the Enemy—Sorry I am to say, his force is altogether inadequate to any offensive Operation—The Enemy, according to advices recd. last Night, were, the Evening before, at Black-mingo—but, whether with Intention to take a Circuit, by way of the hanging Rock Road, in order to get in the Rear of our Troops, or, to proceed for No. Carolina is as yet, uncertain—The next Movem^t. they make will demonstrate which of These Points is there object—Parties are gone to reconnoitre; However I tho't. it adviseable, not to wait for their Return, but to give you the foregoing, & following, intelligence, as soon as possible—We have no certain accounts what the force above mentd. is, or, by whom commanded, but, it is said, & I believe it, to be considerable, & under Lord Cornwallis.

¹ From the original manuscript in the possession of the Charleston Library Society, who kindly allowed it to be printed.

It is evident, that the Conquest of No. as well as of So. Carolina is the Enemy's plan—The Time for which they endeavour to enlist Men is untill these Countries are conquered; & a Junction with the disaffected at Cross-Creek,³ will probably, be attempted by the Body above mentd., who have, with them, a large, Highland Regm't. I have good Reason to believe, that they will send vessells (some perhaps with troops,) to possess the Rivers, & the Towns on them, in No Carolina—& it is probable, that they will establish Magazines of provissions, at Brunswick, & Wilmington, whither they may send great Quantities of Rice from the lower parts of our State—They can hardly, I think, expect to penetrate, far into the back Country of No. Carolina, unless they depend, more than I hope they can wth. good Grounds, on the disaffection of the People there; but, I presume, they will extend their Course, along, & at some distance from, the sea—I hope, indeed, that their Progress will be soon checked, tho', their Numbers are really great, but, surely, Virginia will now be roused, & the forces of that State & of No. Carolina, powerfully supported by Congress, will make the Enemy repent of their Temerity in attempting Conquests more Northwardly—I cannot account for the Backwardness of the Troops ordered hither by Congress, & Virginia & for our Want of Intelligence, respecting 'em—We know not where any of 'em are—I still hope, however that a Combination of force, & better Fortune than our last, will soon oblige the Enemy to tread back their Steps, & tho' I have no Hope of regaining Chas.Town, except by Treaty, that the Country will be preserved, & No. & So. Carolina, & even Georgia, retained, in the Union, for surely, our Brethren & Allies will never give up the Independence of either of these States, or suffer such valuable Territories to be lopped off—whether the Enemy will make any Attempts on our back Country, except by Tories & Indians,⁴ is still uncertain—If they send up a regular force, I am convinced they will be joined by Numbers, & many Men will fall a Sacrifice to the Resentment of our domestick or internal Enemies—But, if regular Troops are not sent up, I think our People will manage the disaffected, & keep 'em from doing any considerable Mischief: However, I expect no other service from the Militia—They are so apprehensive of their Families being killed & their Properties destroyed, (by the Tories & Indians who daily threaten Hostilities,) whilst they are absent, from their districts, that I believe it will be impracticable to keep any Number worth mentioning on duty, with the Army, or at any distance from their own Homes—If I can get 'em to embody, in their own districts, & keep the Country quiet, it is, really, as much as I expect they will do, at present & untill Troops arrive from the Northward—but Even this depends on the Enemy's not sending up regular forces, to take Posts in the back parts of the State, for, if they do the disaffected will certainly flock to them, & those who are not disaffected will either abscond, if they can, or, (which is more probable) be taken Prisoners with't. Arms, in which Case they will expect to be treated, as those are who have been taken under similar circumstances, viz. put on Parole—a piece of Policy which the Enemy have adopted, wth. respect to our Militia, for obvious Reasons—This is a melancholy, but a faithful Accot. of our Affairs, at this Time—However, we must not despair: I will still hope for great & speedy Succours, from our Brethren, to animate & support our People & for a Reverse of our late bad Fortune—But, immediate, & the greatest Exertions of the Northern States & of Congress are (be assured) indispensable, to prevent the Desolation & Ruin of this State & Georgia, & the Enemy's obtaining, (what they flatter themselves with shortly securing,) the three Southernmost States—too valuable a Prize ever to be given up to them—I request the favour of hearing, fully, from you, as soon as possible, & of knowing what Aid we may expect, from you, & when we may be assured of it—Genl. Gates or some other able & experienced Genl. with the Troops, who come will be absolutely necessary—We have not a Contl. Genl. here but Huger, whose Health will scarcely suffer him to undergo any kind of Fatigue—Colo. Hamilton is exchanged, & I suppose will do much Mischief, amongst his old Friends in No. Carolina—You will order the person by whom you write, to come the upper Road, & to proceed to Camp, wherever it may be—There, He will Either find, or hear of me—I am with great Esteem Gent.—yr. most obedt. Servt.

J. Rutledge.

P.S. Private.

Be pleased to send, to me, as soon as possible a Copy of Lincoln's Letter, to Congress, respecting the Capitulation—I want to know why, after the last reenforcement arrived (of 2500 men) he did not evacuate the Town & save his Troops, wch I think he might Easily have done, with all his Artillery, & Stores, by crossing, in the Frigates, & other Vessells, over to Lempriere's, & coming thro' Christ Church Parish, before the Communication was cut off, which wd. have preserved the Country, or at least, the Army, & probably frustrated the Enemy's plan of Conquering this State, much less of going to No. Carolina—& why, even at the last, & when Cornwallis was posted near Wappetaw, wth. 2500 Men, Lincoln did not end'r. to make good his way, wth. all his Troops, (which he might have done, tho'. with some Loss) rather than agree to so infamous a Capitulation, for the Garrison are in my Opinion, in Effect, prisoners at Discretion—These things appear mysterious to me, but, I will suspend a final Judgment, on them, till I hear what he says on the Matter.⁵ It is currently reported, & believed, here, that G. Britain will offer America, the Independence of all the States except No. & So. Carolina & Georgia— & perhaps even of No. C.— & that such a proposition will be accepted—I think it impossible, that Congress will leave us in the Lurch—but, pray inform me candidly, & fully what may be expected on that Head—If they never will give up the Independence of any one State (which I trust they will not) it wd. be best to declare it immediately in the most pointed Terms, to satisfy the wavering & defeat the Schemes of our Enemies—Such a declaration generally made known with a good Number of Troops, wd. revive the Spirits of many of our credulous & dejected, tho' well meaning, People—

All your Friends who were in Town are well—not a Militia Man killed or hurt, but Peter Lord killed & no officer of the Continentals that I recollect, killed or wounded except Colo. Parker of the Virginians, & Cap. Tho. Moultrie killed—also Phil:Neyle—I left ⁵ Probably no one knew better than General Lincoln that he should have saved a part at least of the garrison of Charleston before the surrender, but he lacked the decision of character to do so.

Mrs. Kinloch & Mrs. Huger well, at Kensington, yesterday Fort-night—

The Delegates of So. Carolina in Congress.

P.S. Be pleased to make known to Major Harleston if wth. or near you the Contents of this Letter.

Caswells & Bufords Men are come up hither Each Corps consists of abt. 400 Effective.

Genl. Huger purposes sending Caswells to Haly's Ferry on Pedee in No. Carolina—and Buford's to Charlotte^a—from thence towards Hillsborough thinking this force too insignificant to resist the Enemy in this State & that they will be of more service in No. Carolina for the present where he apprehends the Enemy will Endeavour to make an Impression.

Our Intelligence from below is that the Enemy had crossed Murray's ferry the day before Yesterday (abt. 85 Miles from hence) on the March hither.

Gen^l—

A Copy of Colo. Marions Letter to Genl. Gates, & of the Examination of one Allmand, (which are transmitted, by this opportunity, to Congress,) will inform you of our latest Intelligence from So. Carolina—but, I do not believe that part of it which relates to Pickens's having taken part at Ninety-Six—I don't know whether the Genl. has sent to Congress, a Copy of Lord Cornwallis's Letter to Colo. Balfour—I therefore inclose one—his Lordship sent similar Letters to the Officers commanding in the several districts throughout the State—I think it is beyond a Doubt, that, at least, 7 Men, of those who have declared themselves British Subjects & taken up Arms with the Enemy, & who had afterward joined our Party, have been hanged, & that the Houses of sevl. who had left 'em, have been burnt, upon a presumption, I suppose, that they had come over to us—On the 15th Inst., Colo. Sumpter lay, with abt. 200 Men, to the Westwd. of Catawba, Genl. Davidson was with abt. 400 Militia, below Charlotte, & Genl. Sumner, with, (it is said,) abt. 800 more, that day reached Salisbury where he halted, to get Pouches made for his Men, & this is all Our force that I can find to be actually embodied & in the Field, except the little Party under Marion, & a few at Cross Creek, under Colo. Harrington—not a man from Virginia is in this State, except abt. 250 Concls. under Beaufort, & abt. 60 of the Militia, who ran away from the action wth Cornwallis, & who have been lately brot. to Hillsborough, nor can we hear of any being on the March from Virginia—Genl. Gates recd. a Letter, from Govr. Jefferson, dated the 12th Inst. but he does not mention anything of the 18 Months Men who were expected from thence—The 2000 Militia who, it is said, are to come from that State (in Addition to these) I am told will not rendezvous till the 25th. of next Month—I wish an apprehension that Portsmouth will be Clintons object, may not retard the March of the Virginia Forces—Genl. Gates says the Continentals at Hillsborough (who do not exceed 900) cant. march, until they are furnished, with Shoes, Shirts, overalls, & Blankets, & until Magazines are established to the Westward—If so, I fear it will be a very considerable Time before they stir— for, where these Supplies are to come from, or when they will be procured I cant. guess—as yet, not a single Hide is obtained for making Shoes—Genl. Smallwood, to whom the Legislature of this State offer'd the command of its Militia, will go, in 2 or 3 days, to Salisbury, to take that Command—The Governor has ordered 4800 Men into the Field, but, what Number will actually get there, it is impossible, at present to say, However, Men are assembling daily—The Horse are to serve for 2 months the Foot for 3—but, all that Genl. Smallwood can do, for a while, will be, to endeavour to harrass the enemy's Parties, to cut off their Convoys, and perhaps, now & then, break up an outpost. Still, I fear the Militia will get discouraged, & tired of the business, unless supported by Continental Troops: However, if the Virginians wd. really send on the Men whom they have promised, & the Continentals were equipped, & marched to the Westward, & the Militia of this State wd. also turn out spiritedly, I hope, by the Exertions of the good People of So. Carolina, Lord Cornwallis' mad Career wd. be soon checked—But alas! when may we really, & reasonably, expect that all these things will come to pass, and, untill they do, what must be the Sufferings of our Friends in that unhappy State—I have seen Colo. Jas. Williams⁷ whose affair with Innis (not killed, as you have heard, but recovering of his wound,) was truly brilliant—He is gone on with a Determination to distinguish himself as a Partisan, & I believe he will—I have put, both him & Sumpter, (each of whom may be of service but they will never agree) under Genl. Smallwood's Command—I wait, with the utmost Impatience, to hear what is intended to be done for our Country, by Genl. Washington, with the aid of our Ally—We have not a Letter from Philada. since Mr. Bee's of the . . . ulto—I request that immediately, after receiving this, you will inform me, of every material transaction to the Northwd. & get the Board of War to send your dispatches, by the line of Expresses which is established from Philada. to Hillsbo.—The Bills are not yet arrived—pray forward 'em, also the Arms, & military Stores, which are much wanted—Under the first Impression of Lord Cornwallis's Letter & Conduct, I had thought of writing to him, & of threatening Retaliation, on the Property of those who are avowedly his Friends: However, I have as yet, declined it, because, he probably wd. disregard a Threat which we cd. not, for the present, execute to any great degree, & because, I hope the Property of his Friends in So. Carolina will, in Time be applied to a better purpose—But, I trust, that Congress will, immediately take Some proper Measure on this point. None occurs to me so proper, as the Burning Towns or Houses in G. Britain—why Dr. Franklin prevented as is said Paul Jones's so doing, I cant. conceive, but, I am sure, nothing wd. so effectually put a stop to the Enemy's cruelties, in this respect, as Retaliation and, Seriously, I wish, & shall expect,—that some thing more than Threats may now take Place—It is Time to convince our Enemies that we dare to retaliate—Armand's Corps, much reduced, are gone to Warren to recruit—while Washington & Nellson are at Halifax—not above 25 of their Men well enough for duty—150 of the Maryland Troops were retaken by Marion on their way to C. Town, but 70 of 'em went to the Enemy in Town & the rest have never joined the Army—it is supposed they are strolling abt. the Country, or gone Home—The Enemy's principal Posts are at the Waxaws, & to the Westward of the Catawba—they had sent some detachmts. to repossess Ninety-Six and Pedee—their force at Camden not considerable.

^a The division of these forces was most disastrous. Tarleton fell upon Buford as he was retreating at Waxhaw's Church and practically annihilated his command giving little quarter. Governor Rutledge was himself nearly captured at Rugeley's house by Tarleton's men.

I am with great Esteem

Our last Acc^{ts}. from the Westward are, that the Enemy entered Charlotte, in force, this day week—our Troops skirmished with, & killed some of their advanced party, but, finally, retreated to, & are on the East side of the Yadkim, except ab^t. 250 Horse, (Militia) left at Salisbury, to go downwards, & watch the Enemy's Motions—Inclosed is an Ac^t, of the Enemy's Strength, transmitted by Gen^l. Sumner, who collected it from some Pris^{rs}.

Gen^l. Smallwood & Colo. Morgan will march To Morrow, towards Salisbury wth ab^t. 180 Regulars the former to command The Militia—the latter a Corps of rifle-Men, to be picked out of them—not a Virginian is yet arrived here—when Gen^l. Gates will send on, or march with, the rest of the regulars, now here, (many of whom he says are still unequipped,) or, when We shall receive any considerable reinforcements, I know not—the present prospect is truly disagreeable, for every thing goes on slowly—we wait, wth. Impatience. to hear of something important done, or soon intended for us, by the grand Army & our Allies—I wish our Hopes may not be vain.

A. W^m. M^oGraw, from Newbern, informs me, that he read, at that place, a S^o Carolina Gazette of Aug. 20th. w^{ch} mentions that Christ^r. Gadsen, Hugh Rutledge, Ed^{wd}. Blake, & 26 men, whose names he can't recollect, were put on Board a Vessel to be sent to England

—Gen^l. Gates says he has again wrote to Congress, to make Morgan a Brigad^r. Gen^l.^a—I can see not objection to this Appointment, but, many good Consequences will arise from it—I therefore can^t. avoid Seconding Gen^l. P.S. All the Cavalry, who are now on the march from Hallifax, & will be here To Morrow, or next day, fit for Service, do not exceed Ninety—by —— from the Westward, we heard, that on the 1st. Instant, the Enemy were seen on the March, ab^t. 3 miles above Charlotte, wth. 600 Men, & 2 field pieces supp^d. to be Endeav^r. to join Ferguson who was in Burke County, but going down to meet this party, in order to attack our forces to the Westw^d. of Catawba—Colo. Sumpter says M^r. Ferguson & M^r. Edwards are amongst the number of Gent. shipd off & it is said they are sent to S^t. Augustine. Oct^r. 5. 1780—Thursday. A.M.—Pray have Morgan's Promotion dispatched immediately—it will be very injurious to a man of his Experience & Bravery to put him under the Command of the Militia Brigad^r—I desire that you will make a Point of obtaining this Rank for him.

Congress will receive, by this express, an account, just now come to Hand, of Major Ferguson's defeat, which I hope will soon be confirmed—The Genl. will, without doubt, inform Congress, of Lord Cornwallis' Strength, & Situation— &, (by what We can discover, from some intercepted Letters,) of his Plan & Dispositions—

^a Making Morgan a Brigadier would (and did) give him command over the state officers when thrown with him.

He will also, I presume, send on Copies of those Letters, to have the parts of 'em wth. are in Cyphers, unriddled—&, I wish they may be decyphered & returned, as soon as possible—but the Genl. is in so great a Hurry, to send on this News, I can add no more, than that we have not recd. a Line from you since yours of the 11th Septr.—wth. on Consideration I apprehend you will allow is rather inattentive to Us—that Lord Cornwallis is going on with Burning & Hanging—Capt. Conyers assured me Yesterday that 200 Houses have been burn'd—Col. Morgan went from hence last Saturday with ab^t. 180 Regulars & Gen^l. Smallwood went off on Monday wth abt. 90 of the Reg^r. Horse. The rest of the Regulars are now here & when they or any of them will go on I can't say, pretty support this from the Continent—ab^t. 100 Virginians of the 18 Months men arrived here a few days ago quite ragged & unequipped & here they are still—No other force from that Country—In short if any Thing material is done for our poor State in any reasonable Time it will probably be by the despised shabby Militia—I am in Haste Gen^l.

P.S. I wish you w^d. send on by a safe Hand some more Loan-Office Certificates as soon as possible—Cannot you get the Board of War to send off an Express on a particular day every week & oftener if any thing material sh^d. occur—We w^d. do the same from here for it is really distressitg to be with^t. any regular Channel of Intelligence—The Gen^l. complains that he can never hear from Congress & when it is considered that his last Letter from them is upward of a Month ago the Complaint will appear to be well founded—I must repeat my request that you will have this Matter put on a proper Footing—He writes often but no Answer comes.

c/o M^r. Baird, at Philadelphia
Gen^t—

Salisbury Nov^r. 20. 1780

My last Letter to you was, from Hillsborough, ab^t. the 13th ulto—Since wth. Time, I have rec^d. your sev^l. favours by Cap^t. Vanderhorst, & one, of the 14th ult^o., wth he took from the Express who had it in Charge,—but no others, for, having been down the Country, & Gen^l. Gates expecting I w^d. return to Hillsboro., he left, with the Board of War, all the Letters he had for me—This Circumstance has, I presume, prevented my receiving any, of a subsequent date, from you—I imagine, however, there are several such, at Hillsboro.—I have sent for 'em, and shall answer 'em, when they come to Hand—

I fully intended going back to Hillsboro, but, at Cross Creek, on my Way up. heard such Acco^{ts}. from So. Carolina viz^t; “that Lord Cornwallis was dead—Camden evacuated, & that the whole British Army had crossed the Congaree, on their way to Georgia, also that Gates had marched from Hillsborough, the 5th inst., (wth. he did,) & was proceeding rapidly after them &c” —that I thought it proper to push for our own State as fast as possible—I therefore determined, instead of proceeding to Hillsboro, to cross the Country, by the nearest Route, for this place, which I did, & arrived here, Yesterday—on arriving here, I found that the good News I heard on the Road was entirely false—probably, you will have been amused, with similar acco^{ts}., at Philad^a. I will therefore give you an exact Relation of Matters, as they are at present—The Enemy have a post (strong wth Redoubts) of betwⁿ 5 & 600 Men at Camden where Lord Rawdon commands—another, fortified, of ab^t. 300 at Ninety-Six under Cruger—one at Augusta, abt. the same Number under Brown—& Lord Cornwallis is, with the main Army, ab^t. 1600 Reg^{ts}., at Winnsborough, on Broad River, ab^t. 45 Miles from Congaree, & the same distance from Camden & Ninety-Six—So that he may, pretty readily, reinforce Camden, Ninety Six, or Augusta, or draw his Troops from these posts to his main Body, &, with that, or his whole Army, retreat down, or advance up, the Country, as Circumstances render most eligible—Smallwood & Morgan are at 6 Mile Creek, in this State, ab^t. 16 Miles below

Charlotte (on the Road to Camden) with ab^t. 200 regulars, 1100 militia & 150 Cavalry—Gates is just marching from hence, to join them, wth ab^t. 600 Regulars, & Sumpter lay, a few days ago, between Tyger & Enoree Rivers, wth. (it is said) ab^t. 1000 Militia, but, I believe he has moved more Westwardly, with a View of giving a Blow to a party of the Enemy, in that Direction—Gen^l. Butler is here, with ab^t. 150 Men, guarding Prisoners—Gen^l. Stevens is at Hillsboro., (& ord^d. from thence hither,) wth some Virginia 8 Months Men (Militia who deserted in Gates's action, & who are cond^d. to serve for 8 Months, on that acco^t.) & ab^t 260 Men are, somewhere in Virg^a. on the March from Maryland—Genl. Harrington is stationed at Cheraws, wth ab^t. 250 Men, whose Term of duty is nearly expired—A Col^o. Brown, of this Country, is travelling near him, wth. ab^t. 150 or 200 Men, & Col^o. Marion is moving ab^t. on Pedee & Kingston, with perhaps 300—Thus you see what force, & of what kind, we really have on the Ground, & how it is scattered—However, I hope that, as soon as Gen^l. Green arrives, he will collect 'em, to a good tenable Position, & occasionally detach strong Parties to oppose the Enemy's light Troops who do the most Mischief, to harass the Enemy, circumscribe their Limits, & in Time oblige, 'em to retire to Ch. Town, & give us an opportunity of reestablishing Civil Government, in some part of the Country, of electing, & convening a Legislature, & of making & enforcing Laws—but, this will not be the Work of a day—when, or whether, we shall recover the Town, must depend on Events not to be foreseen, at present—here at least—I wish, however, the Spaniards may really do what they threaten, & that Aid from our Allies was more powerful & successful—the Col^o; & Justices of Surry County took upon 'em to release all the N^o. Carolina Tories taken in Fergusons defeat, on giving Bail to appear at Court—but, I imagine many, if not all of 'em will return to the Enemy—they put the officers on Parol, they have broke it & gone off, probably to the Enemy—& they enlisted the S^o. Carolina Tories taken in that defeat, (116) to serve in the Cont^l. Army, 6 Months—However, 30 of 'em ran away, on the March from the Moravian Towns to this place—the rest (76) were released from their Enlistment, & are here in Goal—this was a strange & unaccountable step of the Col^o. & Magistrates—

A Colo. Cleveland hung 8 or 10 of the most noted horse Thieves & Tories (of N^o. Carolina,) taken in Fergusons defeat, & Lord Cornwallis has complained to Smallwood of such Cruelty, tho' he & those Acting under him have hanged many more of our People—It is said (& I believe it,) that, of the Prisoners whom Barr took at Augusta, he gave up 4 to the Indians, who killed 'em, cut off their Heads & kicked their Bodies ab^t. the Streets, & that he, (Brown,) hung upwards of 30 Prisoners—his Lordship therefore has mistaken the Side on which the Cruelty lies—Gates has carried the Letter wt^h. him; However, I will send you a copy of it, & of the Answer, w^{ch}. will be sent to it, when one is sent—I am endeavouring to procure authentick Information, respecting the Hanging, House Burning, Plundering, & other Cruelties, & Acts of Barbarity committed by the British in S^o. Carolina & Georgia, & shall resolve, when I have obtained it, what to do, or write & to whom on those Points—I do not chuse to take up the Matter, with^t. good Authority—From a letter dated the 4th. Inst., wrote by Leslie to C. & found on an Emissary coming this Way from Portsmo. in Virg^a; (of w^{ch}. I presume Gov^r. Jefferson has sent a Copy to Congress) & other circumstances it appears that the plan of those Generals was to have formed a Junction of the Troops under their respective Commands—that they hoped to do so in this State, & expected to have been powerfully aided by the Tories of this Country: However, Fergusons defeat has frustrated that plan, & I hope it will never take Effect—but I think it probable that Lord C. will call for Leslie's Troops, or some other Reinforcement, to the Southward—if so, We shall have more Trouble than we otherwise should—I omitted to mention, that there are some (a few) Regulars still at Hillsboro, who can^t, march, for want of shoes & cloaths—Lord Cornwallis has proposed to exchange the People taken on Kings Mountain, for our Militia, in his hands, but, I think that proposal must not be accepted—Genl. Huger tells me, he wrote you an Acco^t. of Sumpter's successful Resistance of Major Wemys's Attack, and of his having taken that officer—he is a valuable acquisition to us, but, I am sorry to find that he is only slightly wounded, & likely to recover—I wish he may not give Sumpter the slip, for he keeps him with him—I have seen in a Cha^r.Town Gazette, of Oct. 14th a congratulatory Address to Lord Cornwallis on his defeating Gates, & a proclamation of his Lordship for sequestering the Estates of Rebels (in the List of whom I presume we shall stand,) but, as I suppose Rivington has printed that Address & proclamation I do not send 'em—I shall expect with Impatience, Major Lee's Corps, Genl. Green, & Letters from you, all which, I presume, are on the Way—pray give me every material piece of Intelligence, as expeditiously as possible—I shall set off for Charlotte, in 3 or 4 days, in hopes of an interview with Genl. Sumpter, there, or, at some other convenient place, having sent to him for that purpose.

I am with great Esteem

P.S. Salisbury, Nov. 23^d: 1780

The person by whom this is to go, not having set out, as he promised, I've kept it open to add any Thing which might occur before he went—Col^o. or Major Davy (of which gallant Officer with^t. Doubt you have heard,) is just come up, from Smallwoods Camp—which is still as above mentioned—Col: Davy's Report of the Strength & posts of the Enemy, & of ours, is much the same as above, except that Lord C—has moved somewhat lower down the Country, & so has Sumpter—the latter is below his Lordship, ab^t. S:W. of him—C: is at Shivers Ferry, on the E:Side of Broad River—Sumpter below that Ferry, between Broad & Saluda—his present object is to collect a force, & by going so low down the Country, give those who are desirous, an opportunity, to join him—Davy says Tarlton is in Quest of Marion, & doing much mischief in burning houses on Santee—I wish Lee's Corps were come, but fear they will stop in Virginia—Davy further adds, that the Enemy mount many of their Infantry, in order to proceed rapidly, with their Cavalry, the latter of which consists of, at least, 250 good—I fear the Virginia 18 Months men will not come on, (for Genl. Mulenburgh, who was on the March Southwardly, with 1500, turned back) unless the Enemy sh^d. leave Virginia & I am sorry to find that we must rely so much on our own Efforts. I mean on those of the Carolina's—However I will endeavour to prevail on Col^o. Cleveland, & oth. Mountain Men to assist us for a short Time, with a party of Volunteers (they will not stay long) & I shall, undoubtedly, use every Exertion to prevail with our own People, to act as they ought to do. Inclosed is a Continuation of your Appointment, which I transmit, lest any doubt sh^d.

Excuse Haste, for I have not Time to correct, & transcribe this Letter, being obliged to write many dispatches, & transact several Matters, before I set out for Charlotte.

He was a promising child; his natural endowments were such that had his life been spared, would have made him a credit to his family, an honour to his country, and a blessing to mankind. The implicit obedience that he ever paid to the commands of his mother, and the esteem and regard that shown conspicuous in his whole deportment towards his sisters, strongly mark him to have been a dutiful son, and a loving and kind brother: He has left behind him to regret his loss, a disconsolate mother, and two weeping sisters.” (Thursday, October 15, 1778.)

[Account of the battle at Port Royal, in which Lieut. Benj. Wilkins, of the Charlestown artillery Mr. John Fraser of same corps, John Williams and John Craig, volunteers, and four privates were killed.]

To the present Editor of the South-Carolina and American General Gazette.

Sir,

As the publisher of your paper is at present absent as a volunteer on the same expedition, and was in the same action in which Lieut. Wilkins of the Charlestown Artillery battalion fell, I must beg of you to publish the following elegiack lines, which, though imperfect are intended as a tribute to the memory of a friend, a patriot and a hero.

AN ARTILLERY MAN

- “Behold, in Honour’s sacred Bed
Brave Wilkins drew his latest Breath;
See him among th’ illustrious dead,
Fall’n by the rigid Hand of Death!
- “While he the levell’d Tube did aim
Against his Country’s raging Foe;
The fatal Ball, like Light’ning came,
And struck, alas! the deadly Blow.
- “Full well he knew the dext’rous Art,
With skilful Hand, and watchful eye,
To point the Tube, or wield the Dart,
And force his stubborn Foe to fly.
- “No less in Social Life he shone.
A Friend to every milder Art;
Religion claimed him for her own,
And Justice swayed his honest Heart.
- “Alas! that an untimely Blow
Should snatch him from his weeping Friends,
Sure every Breast with Grief must glow,
Sure ev’ry Heart Compassion lends.
- “His widow’d Spouse with heart-felt Sighs,
And helpless Babes, his Loss bewail;
While sympathetic Tears arise
In all who hear the mournful Tale.
- “Not unaveng’d our Hero fell,
Full dear his precious Blood was bought;
Beaufort’s ensanguined Plains can tell,
How well his brave Associates fought.”

(Thursday, February 11, 1779.)

Deaths.] In the 78th year of his age, James Reid, Esq.—Mrs. Elizabeth Broughton, wife of Mr. Thomas Broughton, jun.—Mrs. Elizabeth Martha Wells, wife of Mr. Edgar Wells. (Thursday, February 18, 1779.)

Deaths.] At Beaufort, Mr. Tunes Tebout; He was ever a steady friend to his country; and in private life bore the character of a man of integrity and hospitality.—Mr. George Russel, of James-Island, ship-carpenter.—Mr. Ripley, at the Ten Mile House.—Mr. William Tucker.—Mr. Michael Muckinfuss. (Friday, March 26, 1779.)

Death.] Of a short illness, Mr. — Wells, late first Lieutenant of the State brig Hornet. (Friday April 30, 1779.)

Deaths.] Mr. James Glover, Son of Col. Glover.—In the 60th year of his age, Capt. Joseph Hutchins.—Mrs. Sarah Smith, wife of the Rev. Mr. Robert Smith.—Capt. John Darrell—In the 70th year of his age, R. Roper, Esq.—Miss Mary Peronneau, Daughter of the deceased Alexander Peronneau, Esq.—Joseph Verree, Esq; one of the Representatives for this town in the General Assembly.—Mrs. Elizabeth Blamy, Widow of the deceased Capt. Blamy.—Lieut. Samuel Guerry, of the 2d. regiment.

To the Memory of
Owen Roberts Esq.

Colonel of the Continental Corps of Artillery,
Raised by the State of South-Carolina;

Who was slain in the attack of the British lines at Stono-Ferry
June 20th, 1779.

“To worth approv’d, at merits honou’d shrine,
The muse that tribute pays so justly thine,
Lamented Roberts! whose virtues great and good,
Were, for thy country’s safety, sealed in blood.
If sorrowing friendship could that worth display,
Which would have grac’d the Greeks heroick lay;
Thy memory should to future ages dear,
Be ever honour’d with a grateful tear.
In every act thy patriot spirit shown,
But most in that when Freedom called for one,
Whose generous soul would every danger brave,
Her wrongs to right, her right from wrong to save.

For this, her soldier, thou her cause embrac'd,
 Thy country happy in a choice well plac'd;
 For this, thou brav'd grim war's terrifick low'r,
 And mov'd undaunted through the deathful show'r.
 But here, alas! how shall my muse relate?
 The cruel mandate of relentless fate
 Arrests the good, the valient and the just,
 And bids him mingle with his native dust;
 His soul, serenely great, attends the call,
 Nor seeks to shun, but glories in his fall,
 Your praises then, O Carolinians, give,
 And in your annals, let him ever live;
 Let every honour be bestow'd by fame.
 For sure such merit must deserve a name."

On Thursday night last week, a small party of mounted Rebel militia surrounded the house of Andrew Williamson, Esq; formerly Bridagier-General of the South-Carolina militia, about 7 miles from town, and without allowing him time to put on his clothes, carried him off prisoner. On intelligence being received of this, Major Fraser, with 90 of his dragoons, was detached next day in quest of them. After having effected a circuitous march of more than 70 miles through the woods, with the most profound secrecy, on Saturday Morning the Major surprised their main camp at the Horse-Shoe, killed 14 on the spot, wounded several, took Col. Isaac Hayne, their commander, prisoner, and released General Williamson from his confinement at a house in the neighbourhood.

The anxiety to rescue General Williamson, and the rebels not making the smallest shew of resistance, but betaking themselves to the woods in every direction, prevented their sustaining a greater loss. Their numbers before that morning were estimated at more than 200—Their own accounts made them much stronger.

Amonge the killed, was the second in command, Lieutenant Colonel M'Lauchlan; his brother Capt. M'Lauchlan was dangerously wounded. Col. Hayne was brought to town on Sunday, and is now lodged in the Provost.

Death.] George Forbes, Esq; a gentleman of considerable property in the island of Jamaica, who came here some months ago for the recovery of his health. (Wednesday, July 11, 1781.)

Early on Sunday a considerable party of mounted Rebels, chiefly Militia under Henry^s [sic] Hampton, who formerly resided at the Congarees, made a sudden irruption into Goose creek parish, surrounded the church during the time of service, made prisoners of the congregation, to some of whom they gave Paroles, ^s According to McCrady (vol. 1780-'83, p. 328), Col. Wade Hampton commanded this raid, not Henry.

and took several horses. About two o'clock they came to the Quarter House. Lieut. Waugh, with 18 convalescents, of the South-Carolina Dragoons, having a little before received intelligence of some flying parties of Rebels being seen in the neighbourhood, had just then mounted and was going out to reconnoitre; he was immediately attacked. The great disparity of force admitted but a short contest, in which the gallant Waugh cut down John Wright, of Wasmasaw, a Rebel Captain, and it is said, two others. He then surrendered, and was afterwards shot. Some of the Rebel Officers affected to regret the death of so brave a man, and to condemn the infamous deed.⁶

Several gentlemen from town were then at the Quarter House, some of whom got off; others were taken and admitted to their parol. Mr. William Trusler of this town, in attempting to make his escape, was shot.

After staying there about two hours, and regaling themselves with better fare than they have been accustomed to, the whole party decamped. (Wednesday, July 18, 1781.)

Hayes, posted in a block-house, at Mr. Edgehill's plantation, within fifteen miles of Ninety-Six. The enemy made a vigorous resistance, until the house was set on fire, and the roof fell in, when they were obliged to submit with the loss of Col. Hayes,⁹ Capt. Owens, Capt. Leonard, Capt. Williams, Capt. Hancock, and ten privates killed. Major Cunninghame had only one man killed, and five slightly wounded. (Saturday, December 8, 1781.)

Death.] On Tuesday last, Mrs. Conroy, the lady of Lieut. Conroy, of the Prince of Wales's American Regiment. (Saturday, June 8, 1782.)

Death.] In the 17th year of his age, Mr. James Wilson, son of Doctor Robert Wilson of this place. The modesty and good sense of this young gentleman, along with his steady application to serious study, had given rise to the pleasing hope of his one day becoming the pride of his family, and an ornament to Society. . . . (Wednesday, June 26, 1782.)

By accounts from the country we learn that Mr. John Laurens, a Lieutenant-Colonel in the rebel army, and a son of Mr. Henry Laurens, now in London, was lately killed near Combahee river, in attempting to impede the operations of a detachment of his Majesty's troops.

When we contemplate the character of this young gentleman, we have only to lament his great error on his outset in life, in espousing a publick cause which was to be sustained by taking up arms against his Sovereign. Setting aside his single deviation from the path of rectitude, we know no one trait of his history which can tarnish his reputation as a man of honour, or affect his character as a gentleman. His generosity of temper and liberality of opinion, were as extensive as his abilities; as a soldier, he fought for glory, and as a citizen he pursued what he thought to be the true interests of his country—He constantly condemned every oppressive measure adopted against the Loyalists, and always contended that a steady and disinterested adherence to political tenets, though in opposition to his own, ought to render their possessor an object of esteem rather than of persecution. His humanity can be no better illustrated than by mentioning what we are well assured was the case, that he highly reprobated the refusal of Matthews, the Rebel Governour, to the proposal from this garrison, respecting the purchase of a quantity of rice; on this generous principal, that it was cruel to withhold from those persons whom the Assembly of the Province had banished, the provisions which were necessary for the support in a foreign country, of the slaves they were to carry with them.

While we were thus marking the death of an enemy who was dangerous to our Cause from his abilities, we hope we shall stand excused for paying tribute, at the same time, to the moral excellencies of his character.—Happy would it be for the distressed families of those persons who are to leave this garrison with his Majesty's troops, that another Laurens could be found.¹¹ (Saturday, September 7, 1782.)

fessional knowledge and integrity than an unbounded philanthropy which marked his character and influenced his behaviour towards all ranks of men; his remains were decently interred at St. Andrews Church."—Mrs. Isabella Izard, widow of John Izard, Esq; deceased; "a lady much esteemed for the many amiable qualities she possessed, and whose death is sincerely lamented by her acquaintance."—Mr. Christopher FitzSimmons. HISTORICAL NOTES.

ADDITIONS AND CORRECTIONS TO THE SEABROOK GENEALOGY

On page 67, it is stated that Ephraim Mikell Seabrook, Son of William Seabrook, wrote the Hist. P. E. Church of Edisto Is., 1853; this is an error, it was written by Ephraim Mikell Seabrook, Son of Ephraim Mikell, No. 22 (see page 29). Thos. Wilkes Seabrook (14 on page 59) married in March 1799 Mary Elizabeth Partridge of St. Lukes Parish (Marriage Settlement).

On page 68, Marcellus Murray Seabrook, married second, Miss Tindall. Carolina (not Caroline) LaFayette Seabrook, was named by Marquis de Lafayette during his visit to this state.

On page 69, Ferdinand de Lasteyrie should have the title of Count. John Gabriel Seabrook (22, i) married Idella Turnipseed, and had a daughter. Ephraim Mikell Seabrook (22, ii) married three times, his first wife being Caroline Bülow. Joseph Whaley Seabrook (22, iv.) married Phoebe Hamilton, and had issue: i. Henry ii Caroline. Josephine Gabriella Seabrook, (23, i) married Dr. Thomas S. Waring, not Whaley, as given.

On page 72, the list of those who served in the Confederate Army should include the following; Capt. Cato Ashe Seabrook, Adj. Gen. of Jenkins Brigade killed at 2nd Manassas. Lieut. Pinckney Seabrook killed in Va. Robert [Joseph] Edings Seabrook, served throughout the war, was prisoner for four months; Joseph Mason Dill Seabrook, served throughout the war. Cato Ashe Seabrook and John Seabrook in "Rebel Troop," served throughout the war (Sons of James Beckett Seabrook No. 28 on page 66.) William Seabrook and George W. Seabrook served the last few months.

INSCRIPTION FROM THE BULL TOMB, ON THE PLANTATION OF THE LATE F. H. VERDIER, NEAR BLUFFTON, S. C.

The following inscription was furnished by F. Horton Colcock, Esq; and is of interest because it supplies the maiden name of the wife of Wm. Robert Bull (born 1762) which is not given in the Bull genealogy in this Magazine, (vol. I, page 89.)

In Memory of Mary Bull, wife of W^m. Robt. Bull | Daughter to James & Margaret Cameron, | Of the Island of Antigua in the West Indies | Who departed this life after a painful illness | On the 3rd of Nov. 1793 age 28 years. | [sixteen lines of eulogy] Here also Lieth the body of | Robt. W^m. Bull, | Second son of W^m. Robt. & Mary Bull, | who departed this Life on the 1st of Nov^r 1793 | Aged 1 day | Sleep lovely Babe & take thy given rest, | God called thee early home, He thought it best.

GEN^l. MARION'S REPORT OF THE AFFAIR AT WADBOO.

Contributed by HENRY A. M. SMITH.

In the number of this Magazine for July 1901 (vol. 2, p. 246) there is given an account of the last occasion on which the command of General Francis Marion encountered the British, known as the affair at Wadboo, which took place 29th August, 1782. The contradictory statements given in the Royal Gazette as published at the time and in Simms' Life of Marion are compared. By a most fortunate and fortuitous circumstance it is now possible to publish Marion's own report of the encounter. In an unpublished letter from John Mathews then Governor of the State to Arthur Middleton then a delegate to the Congress in Philadelphia from South Carolina, a copy of Gen^l. Marion's report of the affair is enclosed. There is not the slightest doubt of its authenticity as both letter and copy have remained among Arthur Middleton's papers in the hands of his descendants. The report is of the order to be expected from Gen^l. Marion—concise, clear, and free from all exaggeration. It is as follows:

Wadboo St. John's 30: Aug —1782

Sir

My last acquainted you that I would Return to this place, I got here the 28th inst. yesterday. I had notice the Enemy was crossing above Bigging Bridge, at Fardo's Plantation. I immediately formed and sent to Major Conyers to come on with the State Cavalry, my Guard at Strawberry was ordered in, before they arrived—Major Frazier with a hundred horse & some Coloured Dragoons, came on in full charge. I let them come within thirty yards and threw in a fire from my left which was advanced under the cover of three small houses; the fire was so well directed that the Enemy immediately broke and Retreated in Confusion, leaving a Captⁿ Robert Gillis and three men and five horses killed, one prisoner and three Horses and a Mule taken, our loss was my ammunition Waggon with my baggage, the Driver got into a fright and drove off contrary to Orders.

A few Militia mounted Charged the party with the Waggon and Retook her but was Oblige to leave her as they was within One hundred yards of the Main body, and we could not Remove from our position without giving the Enemy the greatest advantage in an Open field, which is what they desired to do, they made several Attempts to come round me, but my Men was so alert in changing positions and keeping to the fences, that they dare not come on—they took the Road to Hugers Bridge; Major Conyers is gone after them—they must have Several wounded a good deal of Blood was seen in the Way they Retreated. My Guard on Wando River took a Schooner with Wood and Provisions, with a parcel of Negroes going to Town, shall be glad to know if they may be made a Prize of agreable to your Proclamation.

I have the honor to be your Excellency's

Obedt Serv^t

Francis Marion

His Exc^t J. Mathews Esq^r.

THE BARONIES OF SOUTH CAROLINA

BY HENRY A. M. SMITH

XVI

QUENBY AND THE EASTERN BRANCH OF COOPER RIVER

On the 24 October 1682 the Lords Proprietors of Carolina created Mr John Ashby a Cassique, to whom the baronies attached to that dignity were to be granted as he required.¹ He was a merchant of London described in his patent as "Johannes Ashby Londini Mercator" and had been previously connected in adventures with some of the Lords Proprietors; for he was with the Earl of Shaftsbury, the Earl of Craven, Lord Berkley, Sir George Carteret, Sir Peter Colleton, and many others a member of the Royal African Company of England.² To this Company incorporated on the 27 September 1672 King Charles the Second granted "all the regions and dominions extending from Sallee in South Barbary "to Cape de Bona Esperanza, during the term of 1000 years:"³ a grant which on paper was as easy to make as the grant of Carolina from the Atlantic to the Pacific ocean, but of which the grantees found it more difficult to take possession.

Previous to the grant to him of the dignity of a cassique John Ashby had on 25 April 1681, received a grant made to him as John Ashby "Gentleman" of 2000 acres on the Southernmost side of the Eastern branch of Cooper river "at a place called by the Indians Yadhaw:"⁴ and on 7 June 1682 the Lords Proprietors in a letter to the Governor and Council state that, "M^r John Ashby who "has done us much good service in procuring seeds wishes to enlarge his plantation. Permit his agent to take up not more than three thousand acres."⁵

This John Ashby Merchant of London was a cadet of the family of Ashby of Quenby in the County of Leicester, who descend from Richard de Ashby Lord of the Manors of South Croxton and Quenby, County Leicester in A.D. 1297. According to Burke in his "Commoners"⁶ he was a younger son of George Ashby of Quenby who in 1636 built the fine mansion house at Quenby at a cost of £12,000, and married Elizabeth Bennet of London by whom he had among other children John Ashby the merchant of London. There is a long account of Quenby Hall in Leicestershire in the English magazine Country Life in the N^os for 14 and 21 October 1911 describing the fine mansion house and garden and giving an account of the family, and stating that the fourth George Ashby in succession (who according to Burke was the nephew of the first cassique John Ashby) was styled from his devotion to planting "honest George Ashby the Planter."

John Ashby the first cassique according to Burke married Elizabeth daughter of Sir Benjamin Thorowgood alderman of London and had among other children John Ashby of Carolina. It is very doubtful if the elder John Ashby the first cassique ever in person came out to Carolina. The warrant for the survey of his 2000 acres was issued in Carolina and dated 17 Novr 1680⁷ and a warrant for a town lot in Charles Town was also issued to him in Carolina 6th Oct^r. 1681⁸ but the next warrant in his favour is dated 17

Jan'y 1695/6.⁹ On 2 May 1693 he executed a power of attorney to his son John Ashby Jun^r to collect the debts due to him in Bermuda and Carolina.¹⁰ It is possible he came out to the province about 1681 and returned to England. He may have had his grants taken out in his name by some representative as was done in other cases. The letter of the Proprietors of 7 June 1682 is to permit his "agent" to take out land. However there seems no doubt that his son John came to the province sometime between 1693 and 1695 and thereafter took out several grants in his father's name. The elder John Ashby—the first Cassique—died in 1699 in England, and according to the abstract we have of his will, left his estate real and personal in Carolina to his son John "now in Carolina" upon the latter's paying £200. to each of his sisters Theodosia and Jemima.¹¹ In his will he mentions his father-in-law and his brother-in-law Thorowgood. There was a warrant on the 13 July 1682 to lay out to Joseph Thorowgood 3000 acres¹² and on 4 Sept^r 1682 a grant was made to Joseph Thorowgood Gentleman of 3000 acres on Oola Coll Creek (at the head of Goose Creek).¹³ The place still goes by the name of "Thorowgoods." On the 19 April 1683 a warrant was issued to lay out to Joseph Thorowgood a town lot in Charles Town¹⁴ and on 4th January 1683 (1683/4) another warrant was issued to lay out to Joseph Thorowgood 640 acres due for the arrival of himself and twelve servants in the Province.¹⁵ There is no apparent connection between John Ashby and this Joseph Thorowgood: the latter died sometime prior to 1696 for on 9 Sept^r 1696 a grant was made to William Hawett of 3000 acres "formerly granted to Joseph Thorogood deceased "and for want of heirs and by virtue of an Act of Assembly entitled an Act for the better Settlement of this Part of the Province is escheated and reverted to the Lords Proprietors."¹⁶

After the arrival of the younger John Ashby some grants were issued to his father and several to him apparently adjacent to the 2000 acre grant at Yadhaw viz.:

Original Yadhaw grant.....	2000 acres
Grant 9 Sept 1696 ¹⁷	250 "
" 2 Jany 1697 ¹⁸	490 "
" 12 " 1705/6 ¹⁹	1500 "
" " " " ²⁰	200 "
" " " " ²¹	200 "
" " " " ²²	500 "
Total.....	5140 "

The Indian name of Yadhaw was not retained. The exact lines of this 2000 acres cannot be ascertained. It did not bound directly on the river but apparently was located somewhat inland about where the plantation later known as "Walnut Grove" was situated. The two adjacent grants of 250 acres and 490 acres were situate on the river and the creek later known as Quenby creek and together formed a plantation of 740 acres upon which John Ashby—father or son—conferred the name of "Quenby" after the ancestral home in England. This name it has ever since retained under the modification or corruption of Quinby by which it is now known. The name has been variously spelled. In the deed from Thomas Shubrick to Roger Pinckney 27 July 1792²³ it is spelled "Queenbie;" and in other deeds "Queen Bee." Dr. Irving in his *Day on Cooper River*²⁴ gives an account of the odd way in which it happened to be called "Queen Bee," through the same sort of ludicrous distortion by which it has been stated that the name "Pee Dee" was taken from the initials P. D. carved by an early explorer on a tree on the river bank, or by which the Indian name "Accabee" near Charleston has been traced to the letters A. K. B. on some mythical map.

John Ashby, the second Cassique, who settled in Carolina apparently lived at the Quenby plantation as his home seat. He married Constantia Broughton a sister of the Hon. Thomas Broughton.²⁵ By her he seems to have had at least five children.

1. John Ashby the third Cassique who married Elizabeth Ball, but who left apparently but one child, a son named John who died young without issue.
 2. Elizabeth who married the Rev. Thomas Hasell and became the ancestress of the numerous Hasell family of South Carolina.
 3. Mary who married Col. Francis Le Jau and left issue.
 4. Ann who married Gabriel Manigault and through her son Peter Manigault is the ancestress of the large Manigault family and its collateral connections.
 5. Thomas Ashby who married Elizabeth Le Jau and left issue.
- John Ashby the 2^d Cassique died 30 Novr' 1716 and his widow Constantia 20 Jan'y 1720.²⁶

The will of John Ashby the 2^d Cassique was insufficiently executed but was made valid by an Act of the General Assembly.²⁷ It does not appear on the existing record. He appears from the recitals of wills and deeds to have devised to his eldest son John the Quenby plantation of 740 acres, to each of his three married daughters 500 acres, and to his youngest son Thomas a body of land possibly the bulk of the 2000 acre tract at Yadhaw.

John Ashby the 3rd Cassique on 8^h Nov 1726 married Elizabeth Ball²⁸ daughter of Elias Ball, and died sometime about March 1729.²⁹ By his will he devised to his son John the plantation on Cooper river on which he then lived containing 740 acres and to any unborn child or children a plantation on Santee known as Webdoe containing 500 acres: should his son John and the unborn child die under 21 without issue then his wife Elizabeth was to have both plantations.³⁰

His widow Elizabeth married on 10 February 1729/30 one John Vicaridge⁸¹ who seems to have gone into possession of the Quenby plantation of 740 acres under his wife's title.⁸² Whether he left any surviving children does not appear but he died prior to 15 Oct. 1740 for on that date M^{rs}. Elizabeth Vicaridge married Richard Shubrick.⁸³

Richard and Thomas Shubrick his brother were merchants in London who came out to Carolina sometime after 1730 and were merchants in Charles Town. The earliest notice the writer has found of Richard Shubrick in South Carolina is in an unrecorded deed dated 7th June 1733 whereby "Richard Shubrick of Ratcliff in the Parish of Stepney alias Stebunheath in the county of Middlesex, Merchant" acquired 1000 acres of land on the Edisto river about seven miles above the town called New London granted to Samuel Buttall in June 1682. From descriptions in conveyances of adjoining lands Richard Shubrick also was in possession of Quenby shortly after 1740: presumably through the right of his wife by whom he had a son named Richard Shubrick.⁸⁴ This last Richard apparently survived his mother and presumably inherited from her the Quenby plantation devised to her by her first husband John Ashby. Richard Shubrick seems to have returned to England with his son Richard. His brother Thomas remained in South Carolina and is the ancestor of the family of that name in South Carolina. A deed of mortgage on the record from Thomas Shubrick the son of Thomas to his cousin Richard Shubrick recites that the elder Richard Shubrick had returned to England and died there, and that his brother Thomas was indebted to him at the time of Richard's death, and to secure the debt mortgages a large amount of property including the Quinby plantation.⁸⁵

On 27 July 1792 the younger Thomas Shubrick executed a conveyance to Roger Pinckney⁸⁶ reciting that his father had by his last will devised to his son Thomas the Quenby plantation, but was at the time of his death largely indebted to his nephew Richard Shubrick of London Merchant, and that the younger

Thomas had given to his cousin his own bond for £16,000 sterling, and mortgaged Quenby and other lands to secure it, and now with Richard's acquiescence sold Quenby containing 1203 acres to Roger Pinckney for £2500 sterling. The inference is that one of the Richard Shubricks (probably the son as the heir of his mother Elizabeth) had conveyed Quenby to the elder Thomas Shubrick who devised it to his son Thomas, but neither the deed or will is now on record. Whilst in the hands of the Shubricks the acreage was swelled (probably by purchase) from 740 to 1203 acres. In the deed to Roger Pinckney the plantation is styled "Queenbie." Roger Pinckney conveyed Quenby, styled Quinby—to trustees to pay creditors and on 21 March 1816⁸⁷ those trustees conveyed the property to the late Isaac Ball in the hands of whose descendants it continued until after 1860.

To the North East Quenby bounded on a creek first called "Ashbys" creek, but later known as Quinby creek, and the bridge on which the public road crosses the creek was and is known as Quinby bridge. It was at this bridge that the encounter took place on the 17 July 1781 between the British forces under Col: Coates retreating from Moncks Corner, and the pursuing Americans under General Sumter. After the destruction of the bridge, and the prevention of the crossing of the Americans, Col: Coates fell back upon the plantation settlement of Quenby plantation, and took shelter under cover of the buildings, with the protection of which he administered a severe repulse to the attack against him the same afternoon. A full account of the two actions will be found in McCrady's South Carolina in the Revolution, vol: for 1780–1783, pp. 332–341. By some misapprehension Col: McCrady in his account speaks of Quinby bridge as a bridge across Cooper river when the bridge was really across Quinby creek but not far above the confluence of the creek with the river.

Thomas Ashby the youngest son of the immigrant John Ashby the 2nd Cassique established his plantation or home seat upon the lands devised to him by his father⁸⁸ and which he called Walnut Grove.⁸⁹ To this he added in 1746 1000 acres purchased from his nephew John Hasell consisting of two grants of 200 acres each to John Ashby devised by him to his daughter Elizabeth Hasell, and 600 acres part of the 1500 acre grant which had apparently been acquired by the Rev. Thomas Hasell and devised to his son John.⁴⁰ Thomas Ashby married Elizabeth Le Jau and at his death in 1750 seems to have left five children viz. two sons Thomas and John and three daughters, Elizabeth who married Samuel Thomas, Ann who married Nicholas Harleston, and Constantia who married John Wigfall.

To his eldest son Thomas he devised the plantation on which he lived called Walnut Grove with some adjoining lands.⁴¹ This Thomas Ashby married Margaret Henrietta Bonneau daughter of Anthony Bonneau and died in 1754 leaving an eldest son Thomas Ashby to whom he devised all his real estate⁴² which included the Walnut Grove plantation. He left also a younger son named Anthony Ashby. Thomas Ashby the elder of the two sons married Ann Peyre and died in 1804 leaving a son named Thomas Ashby to whom he devised the whole of his plantation called Walnut Grove.⁴³ He also left three daughters Hannah who married ——— Edwards, Ann who married Thomas Jones Barksdale, and Elizabeth Ashby.

This last Thomas Ashby, fourth in the direct succession of Thomas Ashbys, in February 1825 conveyed the Walnut Grove plantation as then containing 2050 acres to Isaac Rembert⁴⁴ which ended the chapter of the ownership by the descendants of John Ashby, of the name, of any part of the lands in St. Thomas granted to Cassique John Ashby.

John Ashby the son of the first Thomas Ashby married Mary Bonneau and died in 1759 leaving a son John Ashby who married Magdalen Peyre and died in 1793 leaving one daughter Catherine who died without issue, and a daughter Mary who married Jacob Bond l'On. Anthony Ashby the son of the second Thomas Ashby married Charlotte Marion, and died in 1784 leaving a daughter Charlotte Videau who married Richard Singleton. Anthony Ashby was on 17 June 1775 commissioned a first lieutenant in the second regiment of foot commanded by Col: William Moultrie, and was later promoted to a captaincy in the same regiment.

The Eastern Branch of Cooper river, or rather according to the old wording the Eastern Branch of the T of Cooper river on or near which the grants to the two Ashby's were situated was a river draining quite an extensive local watershed. As in the case of all the freshwater rivers traversing the low country of South Carolina, it was a river with a margin of swamp land between the clear flow or channel of the river and the high land. The river was subject to tidal influence. Even in rivers where the current was too strong ever to actually flow backward under the tidal pressure, yet the effect would be to "swell" or raise the level of the body of water at flood and to lower it at ebb tide. The Cooper river being comparatively speaking a short river, except in unusual cases of flood, the tidal effect was to raise the whole level and sway the current with the tide, and on the Eastern Branch this tidal effect extended up to the very head of navigability. The margin of swamp was at such a level that it was flooded at high and bare and uncovered at low tide, the tides thus forming a wonderful method of both irrigation and drainage. The earliest grants were largely of the high land and where they included the swamp, the latter was not regarded of much value. When the adaptability of rice to the climate and soil was ascertained, the earliest cultivation was on the low lands, the swamps and low grounds draining into the river, but more or less distant from it and beyond and above all tidal influence.

The discovery of the utility of the tide for irrigation and drainage gave to the swamp on the river a value far beyond the inland swamps and the river cultivation by its greater certainty, economy and production, gradually displaced and drove out competitive rice cultivation, on the inland rice swamps; although in many cases of favorable situation the inland swamp continued to be utilized. In the case of the Cooper river its swamp margin, commonly called "Cedar Swamps," from the Cedar growth on the knolls and hammocks, proved very fertile and productive under the tidal cultivation of rice, and a high degree of agricultural prosperity was attained by the planters on that river up to 1860 under the old system of slave labour. The plantations so far as river front is concerned were not large, and were in comparatively close proximity so as to form a social neighbourhood or society the members of which were in easy circumstances and more or less connected by ties of blood or marriage or early association. The Ashby grants all lay in the Parish of St. Thomas and St. Denis on the eastern side or bank of the river.

At the head of the Eastern Branch were the plantations called Limerich, Windsor, and Fishbrook an account of which, and their occupants, was given in the article on the Cypress Barony published in a previous number of this MAGAZINE.⁴⁵ North East of Quenby from which it was separated by Quinby Creek lay the extensive plantation known as "Silk Hope." This consisted primarily of a grant of 1940 acres made 24 June 1696 to Sir Nathaniel Johnson Knt.⁴⁶ The grant is stated to be "upon the head of the Eastern branch of Cooper river commonly called Silk Hope." Long previous to the date of this grant however Sir Nathaniel had established himself in the Province. On 29 Oct^r 1683 a warrant was issued to lay out to him 560 acres "for the transportation into this province of thirteene servants." On 1st January 1683/4 another warrant was issued to him for 200 acres "for y^e arrivall of fower servants" on the 12 October 1689 another warrant for 500 acres "for y^e arrivall of tenn Negroes" and on 27th April 1691 another warrant "for the arivall of Ninety-five Servants & Negroes at "Sundry times on his account in this parte of the province."⁴⁷ He probably had the land laid out to him under the warrants, took possession, and conferred the name of Silk Hope some time prior to the actual signing of the grant. The reasons for this inference, as well as an account of Sir Nathaniel Johnson and his son Governor Robert Johnson was given in the article on the See-wee Barony published in a previous number of this MAGAZINE.⁴⁸ To this 1940 acres Sir Nathaniel added 500 acres granted 3^d Oct^r 1704 and 3078 acres granted 1st Oct 1709 making a total of 5518 acres.⁴⁹ The name of "New Keblesworth" was at first given to the 500 acre grant,⁵⁰ but it does not seem to have continued, and the whole tract of 5518 acres was called Silk Hope.

Sir Nathaniel Johnson made Silk Hope his home seat and residence and so did his son Governor Robert Johnson, but the latter had also a residence at the "Governors House" on Charles Town neck at the spot now occupied by the Country Club just above Magnolia Cemetery. It was at Silk Hope that Sir Nathaniel was living when the Rev^d M^r Samuel Thomas came to Carolina in 1702 and was by Sir Nathaniel "taken into his house, and his family is "very large many servants and slaves."⁶¹ "Sir Nathaniel lives "at the head of Cooper River, a river the best settled of any in "the Country."⁶² Sir Nathaniel died in 1713. Silk Hope passed to his son Robert afterwards Governor of the Province first under the Lords Proprietors and later under the Royal Government and at his death in 1735 the whole 5518 acres went under his will to his eldest son Robert. This last Robert Johnson seems to have removed his residence back to England and on 8 May 1739 he conveyed the entire 5518 acres to Gabriel Manigault.⁶³ Of Gabriel Manigault an account has also been given in the article on the Seewee Barony above referred to. Gabriel Manigault had in 1730 married Anne Ashby a daughter of John Ashby the second Casique and it may be that his purchase of Silk Hope was prompted by his wife's desire that his country seat should be in the same neighbourhood in which her brother and sisters had their homes. Gabriel Manigault was a merchant in Charlestown but from the condensation of a diary kept by his wife and still in existence, his frequent visits to Silk Hope would evidence that he paid great attention to its management and cultivation. Gabriel Manigault died in 1781 and under his will his lands passed to his grandsons Joseph and Gabriel, the sons of his only son Peter Manigault. By a partition between the two brothers the Silk Hope tract of 5518 acres was allotted to Gabriel, who about 1785 sold off some 2470 acres to Andrew Hasell being the portion of the tract lying East of the Public road to Hegers bridge and away from the river.⁶⁴ On 5 March 1805 the remainder of Silk Hope including all lying along the river with the rice lands, buildings, and settlement estimated to be 3500 acres was conveyed by Gabriel Manigault to his brother in law Nathaniel Heyward⁶⁶ who had married his sister Henrietta. The name Silk Hope continued as representing the portion conveyed to M^r Heyward. The part sold to Andrew Hasell became known as "The Brickyard." By Andrew Hasell it was conveyed to Ezekiel Pickens, and at the latter's death it was conveyed by his Executors to the late Isaac Ball⁶⁶ by whom it was devised to his daughter Jane who married John G. Shoolbred. The "Silk Hope" plantation proper was devised by Nathaniel Heyward to his daughter Elizabeth who married the late Charles I. Manigault in whose hands and those of her child the late Gabriel E. Manigault it continued until after the year 1890. Thus from the grant in 1696, or the earlier possession by Sir Nathaniel Johnson, Silk Hope was owned by but two families, the Johnsons, and the Manigaults, including in the latter the ownership of M^r Nathaniel Heyward who married Henrietta Manigault a daughter of Peter Manigault.

Northeast of Silk Hope were a number of grants which seem later to have been aggregated into one tract or plantation of 6488 acres owned by Major Isaac Harleston. The writer has never ascertained the original grants which composed this tract but to them or some of them was attached the name of "Irishtown." Why called "Irishtown" is not (on the surface at least) apparent. The adjoining barony called the Cypress Barony had been acquired by three Irishmen John Gough, Michael Mahon and Dominick Arthur and it may be that through them and persons brought out by them the neighbourhood acquired the name. At any rate for a number of years before the end of the 18th century that plantation or section was known as Irishtown. Major Harleston was the grandson of John Harleston the first of the name who came to the Province. He was in June 1775 commissioned Captain in the second regiment of foot commanded by Col William Moultrie was afterwards promoted Major and served until taken prisoner at the capitulation of Charlestown 12 May 1780.⁶⁷ He died unmarried in 1798 and the plantation descended to his brothers and sisters. One of these sisters Margaret Harleston married Thomas Corbett a merchant in Charleston, and their daughter Hannah Margaret Corbett married Jacob Aemilius Irving of Ironshore,

Jamaica,⁵⁸ from which marriage descended the late D^r John B. Irving. D^r. Irving spent much of his early life on the Eastern Branch of Cooper river and was afterwards the owner of Windsor and Kensington plantations on that river. To his connections and associations with Cooper river is due his delightful collection of sketches styled A Day on Cooper River which has become also a handbook of reference for that region. East of Silk Hope and North of Walnut Grove lie two plantations called Mt. Pleasant and Dog Swamp. These two plantations had been acquired by the Rev^d Thomas Hasell by grant or purchase⁵⁹ and by his will he devised them, the Mt. Pleasant plantation to his son John, and to his son Andrew Dog swamp.⁶⁰ Andrew must have acquired Mt. Pleasant from his brother John for at his death in 1763 he devises both Mt. Pleasant and Dog Swamp to his son Andrew Hasell,⁶¹ who in turn at his death in 1789 devised Mt. Pleasant and Dog Swamp to his sons Andrew Hasell and George Padden Bond Hasell.⁶² This last Andrew Hasell acquired his brothers interest and under proceedings had in the Court of Equity for Charleston District both plantations as part of the estate of Andrew Hasell deceased were on the 10 March 1853 conveyed to the late H. Pinckney Walker.⁶³

They had been in part at least since the grants in 1706 and 1716 in the hands of descendants of the grantee the Rev^d Thomas Hasell of whom four in succession were named Andrew Hasell. Immediately East of Mt. Pleasant was a plantation known as Cypress Pond of 1004 acres consisting of three grants to Samuel King, one 12 June 1709 for 180 acres, one 20 Jan'y 1716/17 for 324 acres and one 4 April 1717 for 500 acres.⁶⁴ These three tracts were sold to John Hasell a son of the Rev^d Thomas Hasell who by his last will devised them to his wife Hannah Hasell who on the 9th March 1753 conveyed them to Robert Quash,⁶⁵ by whom or his son Robert Quash they were sold to Hopson Pinckney. Hopson Pinckney was an Englishman, a brother of Roger Pinckney who came out to South Carolina about 1764 as the deputy for Richard Cumberland. They were sons of Roger Pinckney of Peterborough. Cumberland held a patent from the Crown for the offices of Provost Marshall, Clerk of the Peace, and Clerk of the Crown, and Roger Pinckney was his deputy in South Carolina. Hopson Pinckney followed his brother out in 1765. Roger Pinckneys wife died a year or so after her arrival in the Province and in 1769 he married Susannah daughter of Robert Quash and widow of Robert Hume. His brother Hopson in 1772 married Elizabeth Quash a sister of his brothers wife. There was no relationship or connection between these two Pinckneys and the family of Pinckney then in South Carolina of which Chief Justice Charles Pinckney and his sons were members, but there are numerous descendants of the name in South Carolina from the marriage of Roger Pinckney and Susannah Quash. Hopson Pinckney married second in 1777 Elizabeth Cannon and at his death in 1794 devised the Cypress Pond plantation equally between his children who consisted of two daughters Jane, and Mary Elizabeth. The daughters were separated after the fathers death. Jane was educated by her English relatives and Mary Elizabeth remained in South Carolina and there married first Samuel Ashe and at his death Daniel C. Edwards.⁶⁶ By a settlement between the sisters the Cypress Pond plantation went to Mary Elizabeth who in 1844 transferred it to her nephew Henry Pinckney Walker son of her sister Jane and who subsequently acquired the Mt. Pleasant and Dog Swamp plantations and in 1858 sold the entire property. It may be a matter of interest to note that Hopson Pinckney who thus purchased and occupied a plantation adjoining the plantation of Thomas Ashby came out to Carolina indirectly at least thro' Richard Cumberland whose aunt married Waring Ashby of Quenby Hall Leicestershire.⁶⁷ The three plantations were all inland swamp and the cultivation of rice on them had long been abandoned.

East of the Cypress Pond plantation lay a large tract of some 3000 acres consisting of a tract of 1000 acres granted to Benjamin Simons 4 April 1715 and 4 May 1717 and by him conveyed to his son Peter and another tract of 1000 acres granted to Peter Simons 9 June 1717 and two tracts of 500 acres each granted to Cornelius Dupree 21 March 1715 and 9 June 1717 and conveyed to Peter Simons. This Peter Simons was the eldest son of Benjamin Simons the immigrant and was the Capt. Peter Simons who was slain by the Dutartres in 1724 in his attempt to arrest Peter Rombert (or Rembert) the early predecessor of Joseph Smith and Brigham Young in inculcating a religion based upon personal revelations from the Deity which among other things inculcated polygamy. At Captain Peter Simons death the property seems to have descended to his eldest son Peter at whose death in 1748 the property went to his sister Esther who married first Peter Bonneau after whose death in 1748 she married Benjamin Marion who by agreement with his wife purchased the lands, carried into effect by a conveyance to Samuel Bonneau 2 June 1758 and a reconveyance to Benjamin Marion from him 5 June 1758.⁶⁸ This place seems to have been known only as "Marions" and was devised by Benjamin Marion to his daughters. Northeast of Cypress Pond and East of "Marions" was another large plantation of some 3000 acres consisting of 1000 acres granted to Benjamin Simons 24 January 1716/17 and conveyed by Benjamin Simons to John Harleston 11 July 1717, and of 1000 acres granted to Peter Manigault 13 July 1716 and by him conveyed to John Harleston 11 July 1717 and of two tracts of 500 acres each granted to Samuel Burcham 24 January 1716/17 and 25 March 1717 conveyed by Samuel Burcham to John Harleston 11 July 1717.⁶⁹ This John Harleston was the immigrant of the name. The name of "North Hampton" seems quite early to have been attached to this property which in 1794 was owned by Edward Thomas who on 24 Decr 1794 conveyed the whole property under the name of "North Hampton" to Lewis Fogartie.⁷⁰

West of Quenby adjoining it on the river is a plantation originally and for over a century and a half known as "Pompion Hill." The local pronunciation of Pompion is Punkin—or it may be said the contemporaneous spelling of Pumpkin is Pompion. The plantation takes its name from the bluff or hill on the side of the river on which is situated the church building long known as Pompion Hill

Chapel. The edifice was originally constructed largely through the efforts of Sir Nathaniel Johnson. The first building on the spot was constructed shortly after the Rev^d M^r Thomas' arrival in 1702. Writing about 1705 he says. "Here is one church already erected "(since my arrival) by the peculiar direction and religious care of "Sir Nathaniel Johnson and at the charge of the Parish."⁷¹ The plantation as subsequently known by the name of Pompion Hill consisted of an aggregation of smaller grants, and here we come in contact with that French settlement which gave for a time to the adjoining vicinity the name of Orange or French Quarter. In the Ravenel Records printed in 1898 on p. 19 is given a certificate in latin from the Rev^d Mr. Philip Trouillart dated 24 Sep^r 1697 to the effect that on 24th Sept^r 1687 at "Ponkin Hill plantation" he celebrated the marriage between René Ravenel 21 years of age son of Daniel Ravenel dec^d and Charlotte de St. Julien 19 1/2 years old daughter of Peter de St. Julien de Malacare residing at Ponkin Hill plantation. There is also given a note written at the foot of this certificate by the late M^r Daniel Ravenel of Charleston dated 21st March 1860 viz: "Mem. Ponkin hill, the plantation in the "within certificate adjoins the land on which the Episcopal Chapel "St. Thomas' parish now stands which is known as the Ponkinhill "Chapel. The plantation is now owned by the Honble Alfred "Huger and was conveyed to Pierre de St. Julien de Malacare by "Pierre Fouré by deed dated December 1686. The deed is writ- "ten on the plat annexed to the grant in the possession of M^r "Huger, who allowed me to examine them. The above memoran- "dum is taken from one made by me at the foot of the original "certificate on 13th of July 1852."

The writer has been able to find no grant to Pierre Fouré on the record. There are however many missing among the early grants. It is possible M^r Ravenel mistook the warrant, for a grant but no warrant to Fouré appears on the present record. In a deed of feoffment dated 27 Decr 1711⁷² Josias Du Pré and Martha his wife conveyed to the Rev^d Thomas Hasell 140 acres granted to Du Pré 18 Dec^r 1703 bounding Northwest on the Eastern branch of Cooper river and Southwest on Peter Fouré, and a grant of 60 acres to David Hartly dated 14 March 1694⁷³ bounds Northwest on the Eastern branch and Northeast on lands of Malicar. On Moll's map of South Carolina dated 1715 and republished in the Charleston Year Book for 1886 p. 280 the name of "Foree" is set down as a settler in that neighbourhood. It thus appears that Fouré had at least taken up a small tract which he had transferred to St. Julien de Malacare, and from the certificate of the Rev^d M^r Trouillart this tract was distinctly known as Pompion Hill. As will afterwards appear this Fouré, or St Julien, grant seems to disappear, and the writers surmise is that it was abandoned by St. Julien (who returned to England) and was afterwards regranted to Du Pré or Strahan. The name was extended to cover the larger tract or plantation which was aggregated together by the Rev^d Thomas Hasell. The Rev^d Thomas Hasell was the first Rector of the Parish appointed in 1709 after the creation of the Parish under the Church Act of 1706. He married Elizabeth Ashby daughter of John Ashby the immigrant and died in 1744 having been Rector of the Parish for 35 years. By his will he devised to his eldest son Thomas the plantation on which he dwelt called Pompion Hill containing 1540 acres in five tracts, adjoining each other viz. one of 140 acres, one of 200 acres, another of 200 acres another tract "adjoining the head line" of 462 acres and a fifth of 518 acres. The record shows as we have seen that Josias Du Pré conveyed to him 140 acres on 27 Decr 1711 and also that Cornelius DuPré and Jane his wife conveyed to him on 29 May 1723 200 acres granted 18 Sept^r 1703 to Josias Du Pre sen^r.⁷⁴ and that John Strahan and Elizabeth his wife conveyed to him on 16 August 1723 200 acres granted to John Strahan 2 August 1707.⁷⁵ Thomas Hasell does not state in his will to whom the two other tracts of 462 and 518 were originally granted but Samuel Thomas who purchased the property in 1750 states that they were originally granted to Benjamin Simons⁷⁶ so that neither Fouré nor Malacare appear in the title. Thomas Hasell the younger some three years after his father's death conveyed the plantation as containing 1127 acres to his brother John Hasell⁷⁷ who on 5 Deember 1750 conveyed the same 1127 acres to his brother-in-law Samuel Thomas. D^r. Irving states that it was sold to the Rev^d Samuel Thomas and having become the property of the parish was by the Vestry of the Parish of St. Thomas sold to Thomas Shubrick on 15 June 1784 as if the sale to Samuel Thomas was followed by a transfer for the use of the Parish, but nothing of that appears on the record and we next find the plantation mortgaged by Thomas Shubrick to his cousin Richard Shubrick in 1790.⁷⁸

On 20 March 1791 Thomas Shubrick as Executor of his father the late Thomas Shubrick conveys to William Barnett the Pompion Hill plantation as containing 991 acres.⁷⁹ The elder Thomas Shubrick died in 1779. His son sells the property in 1791 as part of his father's estate. His father must have acquired it prior to 1784 the date given by D^r. Irving.

William Barnett seems to have transferred to Gabriel Manigault who on 5 March 1805 conveyed to his brother-in-law Nathaniel Heyward the plantation known as Pompion Hill containing 991 acres⁸⁰ and also conveyed him the tract of 500 acres (on resurvey found to contain but 336) originally devised by John Ashby the second cassique to his daughter Anne Manigault. On the map this 336 acres is styled the "Club House" tract. On 1 February 1823 M^r Heyward conveyed to the late Alfred Huger the property called Pompion Hill containing 991 acres and the Club House tract. M^r Alfred Huger was the son of John Huger the owner of the "Hagan" plantation at the T of Cooper river and had there spent his early years. He was for many years prior to 1865 the postmaster for the City of Charleston and held high position from his integrity, ability, and character. During M^r. Huger's ownership, and presumably by him, the name of the place was changed from Pompion Hill to "Longwood." Why this was done is not known to the writer but the old name fell into disuse as applied to the plantation and was restricted to the bluff on which the Chapel stands. The plantation is now known as Longwood. At M^r. Huger's death after the war of 1861-1865 the plantation was sold away. West of Longwood and on the line between it and Middleburg plantation "on a high bluff, rising abruptly from the bed of the "river, stands the Parish Chapel, commonly known as Pompion Hill Chapel taking its name from the hill on which it stands."⁸¹ An account of it is given in Dr Irving's work. A road or wide avenue from the public road leads directly to the door. The churchyard around the building now covers some 10 to 12 acres. The church was always one of the parish churches, the church edifice of St: Denis being the chapel of ease until 1747, when by Statute Pompion Hill Chapel was declared a chapel of ease of the parish church. The history of this chapel will be found in Dalcho, in Dr Irving's work and in the preface to the printed Registers of the Parish of St. Thomas and St: Denis printed under the supervision of the Rev. Mr Clute in 1884.⁸²

The next plantation Middleburg is one in a personal aspect of the most interesting in the State. It was the starting point of the Simons family one of the most prolific and wellknown from its character and widespread connection in the low country. It was first owned and settled by Benjamin Simons the first immigrant of the name. The record does not show exactly when he arrived. He is supposed to have been one of the French Huguenot immigration. The name Middleburg which very early is found attached to the plantation is supposed to be after Middelburg the ancient capital of the province of Zeeland in Holland; but what connection if any Benjamin Simons had with Middelburg does not appear on the record. His name does not appear among those contained in the list commonly known as the "St Julien" list of French desiring naturalization, nor among those mentioned in the statute of 1696 as French thereby recognized as naturalized. The earliest mention of Benjamin Simons the writer has found on the record is in the issue of a warrant on 15 July 1697 to lay out to him 100 acres in Berkley County.⁸³ No grant appears on the record as made at that time. The earliest grant to him seems to be one dated 5 May 1704 for 350 acres.⁸⁴ From the description this grant covered an integral part of Middleburg. The first Benjamin Simons died about 1717 having had no less than ten children and by his Will dated 14 June 1717 he devised to his youngest son Benjamin Simons a number of tracts aggregating 1545 acres and may be taken as representing the grants composing Middleburg at the death of the first Benjamin Simons in 1717.⁸⁶ This 1545 acres was made up of 100 acres granted to Nicholas Longuemare 14 March 1693/4, of 220 acres part of 300 granted to John Aunant 12 May 1703, of 350 acres granted to Benjamin Simons 5 May 1704 and of 875 acres part of 1000 granted to Benjamin Simons 15 Sept^r 1705. Nicholas de Longuemare on 5th January 1685⁸⁶ received a warrant for 100 acres and the grant for this 100 acres is probably the grant referred to and must have been acquired by Benjamin Simons. Nicholas de Longuemare is mentioned in the marriage certificate of the Rev^d M^r Trouillart before referred to as being present at the marriage together with Josias Dupré as friends of the bridegroom René Ravenel.

The first Benjamin Simons took out grants for a very considerable acreage in the parish of St: Thomas and seems to have been possessed of means considerably in excess of the mass of the French settlers in that locality. At the death of the second Benjamin Simons about 1773 having had no less than thirteen children, the property by some family arrangement was transferred to his son the third Benjamin Simons.⁸⁷ It was transferred as then containing 1659 acres being substantially the 1545 acres with a slight addition. The third Benjamin Simons who married Katherine Chicken made large additions to the Middleburg holdings. He had acquired before his father's death from one John Cumming or his estate some 828 acres consisting of a number of small tracts aggregated by Cumming and had received also a gift of lands from his father and had also purchased some other tracts so to aggregate his holdings which he called Middleburg to some 3342 acres. Of this he sold off to John Bryan 743½ acres on 2 April 1785.⁸⁸ At the death of the third Benjamin Simons of Middleburg in 1789 his lands at Middleburg went to his three daughters. He also owned a plantation called "The Grove" situate in the section called Seewee near Seewee bay on the coast. The Middleburg plantation as surveyed after the death of the third Benjamin Simons contained 2599 acres and was partitioned among his three daughters. To Lydia who married Jonathan Lucas was allotted Middleburg proper containing the settlement and the larger part of the water front 774 acres; to Catherine who married William Hort the remainder of the river front with some pine land 768 acres; to Mary who married David Maybank the inland rice land and pine land in all 1056 acres.⁸⁹ On the map the part allotted Catherine Hort is designated as Simons Ville but it seems to have been generally known as "Horts"⁹⁰ by which name it was on 4 January 1827 sold to John Bryan.⁹¹ On 21 June 1824 Joseph and Mary Maybank the children of Mary Simons transferred to John Bryan the part allotted their mother⁹² which on the map is designated, and appears to have been constantly known as "Smoky Hill." The part allotted to M^{rs} Lucas was after her husband's death transferred for partition to her son Jonathan Lucas in 1840⁹³ in whose hands or those of his descendants the property remained until long after 1865 so that part included in the grant to Benjamin Simons in 1704 remained in his direct descendants until that period.

The "Horts" and "Smoky Hill" parts were by the assignee of John Bryan in 1843 conveyed to the late W^m J. Ball.⁹⁴ Since 1865 all three parts have been acquired by M^r John Coming Ball who now owns Middleburg, the whole 2599 acres as before the partition among the daughters of the third Benjamin Simons.

The 743½ acre tract this last Benjamin Simons sold off to John Bryan in 1785 is styled in the deed of conveyance as "Camp Vere." D^r. Irving states that the name is derived from a small village of that name near Middelburg. The maps the writer has been able to have access to show a village called "Veere;" but it may be that on such a small scale the village of Camp Vere does not appear. John Bryan who died in 1804 devised "Campvere" to his son John Bryan⁹⁴ and by the latter's assignee it was in 1843 conveyed to M^{rs} Margaret H. Laurens⁹⁶ by whose granddaughter M^{rs} Anne Laurens de Saussure it is still owned.

The next plantation West of Campvere and Middleburg is a plantation called from a very early period the "Blessing." On 22 June 1682 a grant for 780 acres was made to Jonah Lynch on the south side of the Eastern branch of Cooper river "at a place called Mattesaw also the Blessing."⁹⁶ Mattesaw was no doubt the Indian name but why the English name of "Blessing" was applied to it is difficult to say. Jonah Lynch had apparently arrived in the colony with two servants in 1679.⁹⁷ On 16 Oct^r 1680 he received a warrant for — acres and probably the grant of 22 June 1682 was under that warrant. His grant of 780 acres seems to have been located just Northwest of a grant of 70 acres "at the first bluff landing up the long creek" made 6 April 1681 to Elizabeth Willis.⁹⁸ As a mere guess the writer suggests that Jonah Lynch may have come over in the Proprietor's ship the Blessing of which John Coming was mate on her first voyage to the colony in 1669 and of which he subsequently became the master, and have named his grant after the ship.

Jonah Lynch was the ancestor of the South Carolina family of that name of which Thomas Lynch J^r who signed the Declaration of Independence in 1776 was one. The grant of 780 acres was largely on the river front beginning at or near the point where a large creek entered the river and the land granted ran apparently along the river to a grant to Christopher Beech which last grant eventually formed a part of Campvere.

This creek was known by the Indian name of Wisboo or Wisboo-e. Later from the Lynch holdings it became known as Lynch's creek and later still from the number of French settlers in the neighbourhood, the vicinity became known as the Orange quarter, or more commonly as the French quarter and the creek as French quarter creek as it ran through the heart of the French settlement. The grant to Jonah Lynch would seem to have descended to Johnson Lynch his eldest son. Nevertheless the latter took out three grants, one 29 March 1700 for 400 acres⁹⁹ (in the warrant said to have been laid out to Jonah Lynch) and two on 27 July 1711 for 300 and 500 acres respectively¹⁰⁰ aggregating 1200 acres which apparently include the 780 acres of Jonah Lynch. On 18 Oct^r 1709 Johnson Lynch sold to John Blake 100 acres off the Eastern part of the property¹⁰¹ and thereafter died leaving to take the remaining 1100 acres his widow Susannah Margaret Lynch and his two daughters Mary who married Peter Robert and Margaret. These three on 18 Dec^r 1734 conveyed the 1100 acres to Anthony Bonneau¹⁰² who in 1740 transferred the whole 1100 acres to his son Peter Bonneau.¹⁰³ On 6th Oct^r 1760 this 1100 acres seems to be owned by John Deas,¹⁰⁴ who must have acquired it prior to that date. How and when he acquired it the writer has never been able to ascertain on the record whether direct from Peter Bonneau or through intermediate transfers. John Deas was a Scotchman who came to the province some years before 1760 and was apparently in business as a merchant in Charlestown with his brother David Deas. He married Elizabeth Allen daughter of William Allen. The record shows that he added to the Blessing in 1770 130 acres granted to Abel Bochet 1 Sept 1697¹⁰⁵ and in 1775 100 acres granted to George Juin 17 Aug. 1700.¹⁰⁶ He also acquired other lands in the vicinity. The entire tract seems to have been known as the Blessing when it was acquired by John Deas but in 1785 he conveyed to his son John Deas J^r the Eastern part of the tract under the name of the Blessing plantation.¹⁰⁷ The name Blessing seems thereafter to have been restricted to this Eastern part of the original tract adjoining Campvere. Subsequently John Deas J^r in 1789 transferred to his brother-in-law Archibald Broun the Blessing plantation containing 631¹⁰⁸ acres and an adjoining tract on the Cooper which seems also to have conveyed to him by his father containing 267 acres known as Cedar Hill¹⁰⁹ and after the death of John Deas Sen^r his Executrix in 1791 conveyed to Archibald Broun the Cherry Hill tract being that part of the original tract lying on the river and Wisboo creek¹¹⁰ and containing 628 acres. The deed also includes a tract of 124 acres called "The Folly" situate on French quarter creek. Why "The Folly" the writer has not been able to ascertain. It is a part of the gossip which has perished with its generation. The name still remains in "Folly Landing" on the creek and the Folly road leading to the landing. According to the boundaries it would appear to have been the tract of 100 acres granted to George Juin in 1700 and acquired by John Deas in 1775 as formerly the property of John Combe. The deed further included a tract of 462 acres which was part of 800 acres granted to Alexander Delamott 5 May 1704.¹¹¹ All of which must have been acquired by the elder John Deas in his lifetime. By Archibald Broun a rearrangement of the lines was made, and on 29 Nov^r 1791 he conveyed to Henry Laurens Jun^r the Blessing plantation containing acres¹¹² and in 1796 he conveyed to Henry Laurens Sen^r Cedar Hill 996 acres and Cherry Hill 746 acres.¹¹³ The Blessing having passed to the devisees of Henry Laurens one half became vested by conveyances in M^r Jordan Myrick the planter so eulogistically referred to by D^r Irvington in his work and was at his death sold to M^{rs} M. H. Laurens the owner of the other one half and at her death was sold in 1860 to the late W^m J. Ball. Cedar Hill was sold in 1821 as part of the estate of Henry Laurens to the late W^m Wragg Smith from whom it passed to James Poyas by whom in 1850 it was conveyed to the late W^m J. Ball. Cherry Hill which had passed to the late Commodore D. N. Ingraham thro' his wife Miss Harriet H. Laurens was by them in 1857 also transferred to W^m J. Ball so that M^r Ball had in 1860 reunited in himself the entire original tract called the Blessing. Since 1865 however it was sold away to different owners. West of Wisboo creek lies the very extensive and formerly very valuable rice plantation called the Hagan just at the point where the Cooper divides into its two branches. The first grant covering the Hagan was a grant to Samuel Wilson of 1000 acres made 24 August 1688 and described as bounding West on Ahagan creek.¹¹⁴ That was the Indian name for a considerable creek that makes from the southward into the Eastern branch of the river at the T.

It is variously spelled Ahagan, Hagan, and Ehegging creek. A high bluff comes to the river near the creek entrance called Ahagan Bluff. The grant to Samuel Wilson covered only the high land along the river from Ahagan Bluff to Wisboo creek. The considerable swamp margin between the river and the high land was ignored. On 11 Jan'y 1700 a grant was made to Humphrey Torquett for 320 acres¹¹⁵ covering all the Cedar swamp between Ahagan bluff and "Wisbooe" creek and bounding South on Ahagan lands. The name Ahagan shortened to the Hagan was then applied to the plantation. On 28 Aug. 1690 Samuel Wilson sold his 1000 acres to Thomas Gunn and after Gunn's death his three daughters sold on 24 May 1708 to one Henry Miller who on 21 January 1720 sold to Colonel William Rhett and his wife Sarah. Colonel Rhett was a most conspicuous figure in the history of the Province of the day and his wife "Madam Rhett" was in a way a character of equal force. She survived Col. Rhett and married Nicholas Trott former Chief Justice of the Province and a person of great ability and learning. On 28 February 1729 the daughters of Humphrey Torquett, Sarah who married James Belin, and Judith who married Ebenezer Ford conveyed to Nicholas Trott and Sarah Trott his wife seventy acres of the 320 acre grant. In the conflict of lines it would appear that the 320 acres had melted down to 70, for the map of the whole 1070 acres includes all the river swamp as part of the Hagan plantation. Mrs. Trott survived her second husband and devised the Hagan to her grandson William Moore son of her daughter Catherine Rhett who married Roger Moore. On 25 May 1748 William Moore conveyed the Hagan to Daniel Huger.¹¹⁶ An account of Daniel Huger has been given in a previous number of this MAGAZINE in the article on the Cypress Barony.¹¹⁷ Daniel Huger then acquired on 7 Aug: 1753 a tract of 450 acres of swamp granted to Paul Torquett 6 May 1704¹¹⁸ lying at the T west of Ahagan creek between that creek and the main river which had been sold in 1711 by Paul Torquett to Anthony Bonneau whose sons Samuel and Benjamin Bonneau conveyed to Huger. He also purchased 400 acres on Wisboo creek west of the Hagan which seems to have consisted of four grants¹¹⁹ viz:

Thomas Monck on 1 June 1705 conveyed his 120 acres to William Poole¹²⁰ from whom they with the 150 acres granted him descended to his son and heir William Poole¹²¹ who seems to have acquired the other two tracts and sold the whole 400 acres to Thomas Bonny¹²² who devised to his daughters Anne Bonny (who married William Hull) and Martha Bonny who on 3 Aug: 1783 conveyed to Daniel Huger. This aggregate of 1920 acres Daniel Huger who died in 1754 devised to his son John Huger. Lying South of the Hagan on the Cooper river was a tract of land belonging to a family named Akin. The earliest grant to them was a grant 1 Sept^r 1697 to Thomas Akin for 150 acres.¹²³ Prior to that on 30 July 1695 he had acquired from Jonathan Amory a tract of 200 granted the latter 12 Sept^r 1694. To this Thomas Akin added a grant to him of 320 acres 18 Sept^r 1703. At Thomas Akin's death about 1705 these tracts passed under his will to his three sons John, Thomas, and James. He left also surviving him a widow Elizabeth Akin and four daughters Sarah who married John Lloyd, Mary who married Jeremiah Russell, Martha who married first Thomas Monck and second McGregor, and Elizabeth Akin Jun^r. John Akin the eldest son acquired 55 acres additional of "Cedar Swamp" by grant 25 May 1717 and after his death devised this last tract and all his interest in the rest of the land to his mother for life and then to his brothers and sisters. His mother seems to have acquired from one Hugh Fling two small tracts of 70 and 50 acres granted him on 2 January 1697/8 by deed from Fling on 25 February 1714/15 and by deeds of transfer from his mother and his brother, brothers in law and sisters made in 1729 the entire tract of 845 acres was vested in James Akin the youngest son.¹²⁴ This James Akin married Sarah Bremar daughter of James Bremar and left two sons James and Thomas Akin and the land went to James the eldest who increased the holdings for after his death the property known as Akinfield was sold in 1784 to John Huger as 1271 acres.¹²⁵ Mr Huger also acquired in 1796 from the estate of Thomas Withers¹²⁶ a tract of 115 acres formerly of Joseph Stone and part of a grant of 390 acres to John Stone.¹²⁷ In 1798 John Huger also acquired a large tract lying South of the Akin or Akinfield property. This tract contained the grant to Thomas Lynch on 16 Febr'y 1701 of 500 acres which Thomas Lynch on 13 June 1711 sold to Jeremiah Russell¹²⁸ and seems also to have included 275 acres part of John Stone's 390 acre grant and other adjacent tracts. Jeremiah Russell married Mary daughter of Thomas Akin and under the will of a Mary Russell (probably a daughter or daughter in law of the first Mary Russell) the property passed to John Deveaux, Andrew Deveaux and their sister Mary Deveaux who married Joseph Roddom from whom it was transferred to John Huger.¹²⁹ It is curious as a survival of names that a creek through this land was as early as 1696 and 1708 called the "Fresh run"¹³⁰ which name it still retains. To the lands so acquired John Huger added in 1786 two grants of marsh land on the Cooper river for 1008 acres the whole constituting a magnificent estate of 4965 acres. It included the fertile rice lands of the Hagan and the residence was on the fine bluff at the confluence of Ahagan creek with the river one of the most commanding spots on the whole river. At John Huger's death the property was again subdivided. By his will he devised the Hagan plantation proper to his eldest son Daniel. To his son John he devised the Akinfield plantation containing according to the new lines as described 1723 acres and to his son Alfred the plantation purchased from Roddam and Deveaux and called Moreland containing 1386 acres. By some family arrangement 442 acres off the Hagan plantation called Blanchard's was conveyed by Daniel Huger to his younger brother the late D^r Benjamin Huger. This 442 acres was situated on Wisboo or French Quarter creek and after it passed into Dr Huger's possession he gave it the name of Benevento. In 1819 under proceedings for the settlement of the estate of John Huger the Hagan plantation containing 1418 acres was transferred to his son John in the hands of whose descendants it continued until 1857. The Akinfield plantation in the possession of the younger John Huger had its name changed to Woodland and under that name was in 1803 transferred to John Harleston.¹²¹ The Moreland plantation devised to Alfred Huger was in 1819 sold to John Gordon¹²² who later in 1828 purchased from the Executors of Thomas Allan an adjoining tract of 1317 acres called Pagett's landing¹²³ formerly a part of the Brabant plantation. On this tract a brick manufactory had been established which was continued and enlarged by M^r Gordon and the whole plantation became known as the Brickyard and the landing as the Brickyard landing and afterwards when a steamboat service was established on the river as the steamboat landing. Under the will of John Gordon these plantations passed to his widow who afterwards married Governor Thomas Bennett and by Governor Bennett and his wife the two plantations were in 1852 conveyed to the late D^r Edmund Ravenel.¹²⁴

South of the Hagan and West of Moreland plantation lying on the west side of French Quarter Creek was a plantation known as Spring Hill. This consisted originally of 510 acres formed of four grants, viz.

Charles Hayes seems to have inherited the 100 acres of Denis Hayes. The daughters of Humphrey Torquett were Marianne who married Joseph Ford (or Foord), Sarah who married James Belin, Judith who married Ebenezer Ford (or Foord) and Elizabeth who died young. James Belin and wife conveyed in 1717 her share to Joseph Ford who devised to Ebenezer Ford who with his wife Judith on 25 Sept^r 1723 conveyed the whole 230 acres to Charles Hayes on whose death the lands seem to have descended to his eldest son Charles Hayes who in 1732 conveyed one half or 255 acres to his brother George Hayes¹³⁹ who sold to John Bonnoitt who conveyed to Walter Dallas¹⁴⁰ from whom this 255 acres passed to Francis Dallas whose Executor Robert Quash in 1759 sold to George Seaman.¹⁴¹ The other moiety or 255 acres retained by Charles Hayes was by his Widow and his son John Hayes in 1753 transferred to Robert Quash¹⁴² who with his wife Elizabeth transferred to George Seaman¹⁴³ who thus reunited in himself the whole 510 acres and in 1762 conveyed them to Thomas Dearington.¹⁴⁴ Thomas Dearington (apparently pronounced Darrington) added to this holding of 510 acres on the West side of French Quarter creek some 224 acres and also 290 acres on the East side of the creek including therein 240 acres which had once belonged to Peter Dutartre granted to him 12 May 1697.¹⁴⁵ This Peter Dutartre was the ancestor of the Dutartre family concerned in the religious or fanatical episode in 1724 which resulted in the killing of Capt. Peter Simons and the execution on the gallows of four persons. After the execution of the Dutartres the lands appear to have escheated to the Crown and in 1773 were regranted to D^r John Mayer at whose death the property was divided among his three heirs who all finally transferred it to Thomas Dearington.¹⁴⁶ On one acre of this tract near where the public road crossed the line between Mayers land and the Brabant plantation at about the spot marked on the map published herewith was the Church of St: Denis. This was the church for the use of the French settlers in the Orange Quarter. There may have been a church edifice here erected by the French prior to the Church Act of 1706 but by that Statute a parish was created of the Orange Quarter for the use of the French Settlement called by the name of St: Denis, and the church whether already constructed or constructed under the provisions of that Statute in 1708 as stated by D^r Humphrey became one of the churches of the established Church of England. The church edifice was made a Chapel of Ease to the Parish Church by the Act of 18 December 1708 and the minister was allowed an annual salary by the Province. The first Minister was the Rev: M^r Le Pierre who died in 1728 and was succeeded by the Rev. John James Tissot who had been ordained in the Church of England. The services were held in the French tongue but with the deaths of the French immigrants the congregation fell off, the children who spoke and understood English uniting themselves to the English churches. M^r Tissot died in 1763 and in 1768 an Act was passed declaring that from the deaths of the greatest part of the parishioners who understood the French language and other causes the performing of divine service in the French tongue was unnecessary and disused and the French Church useless for a place of worship. The Act then directed the Wardens and Vestry of the Parish of St. Thomas and St. Denis to sell the lands and buildings of the French congregation the proceeds to be applied to the benefit of the poor of the Parish. The church edifice was probably of wood. At any rate no sign or vestige of it now appears. It was only by the most diligent search and examination of old maps and deeds that its site could be ascertained and established with approximate certainty.

At Thomas Dearington's death Spring Hill passed to his son ¹⁴⁶ M. C. O. Charleston, Bk. S, 5, p. 364-7; Bk. J, 6, p. 177.

John Dearington who in 1824 sold it to Col: Jacob Bond l'On¹⁴⁷ who shortly after in 1830 sold it to Edward R. Laurens¹⁴⁸ from whom in 1836 it passed to W^m Postell Ingraham. M^r Laurens changed the name to "Ionia;"¹⁴⁹ but the older name survived and Ionia ceased to be used as the name. Whilst in the hands of Thomas Dearington an immense amount of work seems to have been done on the property. According to D^r Irving he replaced the meandering course of the creek by a large straight canal from where the creek entered his land adjacent to the Hagan line to a point some distance East of the bridge on the public road to Charleston.

Next South of "Moreland" and of Spring Hill lay the extensive property known as Brabant's or the Brabant plantation. This plantation was an excellent illustration of the absorption of smaller grants into a large plantation. The basis was a grant to Francis Pagett in 1704 for 200 acres.¹⁵⁰ To this he added 200 acres granted Lewis Juin in 1696, 210 acres granted James Belin in 1704, 500 acres granted to Daniel Brabant in 1709, 26 acres granted to Daniel Brabant in 1710, 200 acres granted to Julien Carteau in 1704, 150 acres granted to Philip Norman in 1705, two grants for 390 acres each to Francis Pagett in 1714, 70 acres granted to Francis Pagett in 1719 52 acres granted to Francis Pagett in 1718/19, 200 acres granted to Anthony Poitevin in 1707 and 150 acres granted to Peter Poitevin in 1713 a total of 2528 acres. The 500 acres granted to Daniel Brabant in 1706 had been originally laid out to James de Bordeaux under warrants issued in 1677 and 1698. Daniel Brabant styled "surgeon" and sometimes "Doctor" married Magdelaine one of the daughters of James de Bordeaux and after de Bordeaux' death his other children viz Anthony de Bordeaux, Judith de Bordeaux and Margery Poitevin conveyed in 1708/9 their interests in the land to Daniel Brabant and his wife and thereafter Brabant took out a new grant to himself.¹⁵¹ From him the place took its name which was applied to the entire tract. his will to his three sons Francis, Peter, and John.¹⁵² Either by inheritance or transfer all of the tracts became reunited in John Pagett who added four additional tracts making a total of 3600 acres all apparently known as one plantation called the Brabant plantation. John Pagett married Constantia Hasell eldest daughter of the Rev: Thomas Hasell and granddaughter of John Ashby the 2nd Cassique, and had one child Elizabeth Pagett to whom descended the Brabant plantation. Elizabeth Pagett married the Rev: D^r Robert Smith then Rector of St Philip's Church in Charles Town and the Brabant plantation of 3600 acres was transferred to her husband,¹⁵³ who retained it after his wife's death without surviving children. During the Rev: M^r Smith's long ownership of the property he added to it considerably by purchase and it was his country seat and residence when his duties permitted a residence in the country: and the property was greatly developed by him. The Rev^d M^r Smith took a very pronounced position in the American Revolution in favour of the Province and against British control. He held the position of Chaplain General to the Southern Department of the Continental Army and during the siege of Charlestown he "shouldered his musket and "amidst scenes of the greatest danger both by precept and example stimulated to intrepid resistance."¹⁵⁴ After the surrender of Charlestown he was immediately banished, and though ill and confined to his bed a sentinel was not allowed to quit his chamber until he was taken from it to be transported to Philadelphia and his name appears at the head of the list published in the Gazette of persons whose property was confiscated by order of Sir Henry Clinton.

During the siege of Charlestown Brabant house was for a time the headquarters of Lord Cornwallis who commanded the British forces on that side of Cooper river and also of "Quarter Master Jack" and it was at Brabant that occurred the episode related by D^r Irving of the hanging of Mauder the Rev: M^r Smith's overseer to compel him to disclose where the plate and silver of his employer and of the Church had been concealed.¹⁵⁵ It was on Brabant at the bridge across French Quarter creek that took place on 2^d January 1782 the encounter between the British under Major Coffin and a part of Marion's command under Col Richard Richardson which resulted in the defeat of the Americans.¹⁵⁶ After the war he returned to Charleston, was one of the original members of the Society of the Cincinnati in South Carolina, was the first Principal of the College of Charleston, was one of the chief, if not the chief, movers in the reorganization of the Church of England in the State and its union with the Churches in the rest of the country as the Protestant Episcopal Church in America and in 1795 was consecrated first Bishop of the Diocese of South Carolina. He died in 1800 and under his will Brabant passed to his eldest son the late Robert Smith of Charleston who sold off some outlying parts of the plantation retaining the body of the property and the residence and settlements. After his death the property was in 1852 disposed of by his heirs to the late Dr. Edmund Ravenel. The property had therefore continued in the same hands without sale from 1704 to 1852.

The old house and residence at Brabant shared the fate of so many of the family residences in St: Thomas' Parish—destruction by fire; and abandonment, consequent upon the complete overturn of private and public fortunes by the war of 1861–1865. The late Hon: George S. Bryan then District Judge of the United States for South Carolina related to the writer the following anecdote as evidencing the melancholy effects of this destruction:

He said an old friend of his who in his youth had spent many happy days with the family at Brabant could not forbear, upon a return visit to his native soil after a very prolonged absence, from going again to the scene of his past enjoyment. He found the ruins of an abandoned home. An irregular jungle where he had known a well ordered garden with its flowers and shrubbery. A muddy pool with broken banks grown up with reeds and young cypress, lifting their heads against a dark grey sky, in the place of the once ornamental pond or lake, and the only sound the dismal croaking of a flock of jackdaws in the tops of the cypress, where he had known a place filled with the music of laughter, and song, and the pleasant voices of affectionate friends. The shock of the contrast was such that he turned away unable to bear it, with and left the spot never to return.

D^r. Edmund Ravenel had previously in 1835 purchased from the Executors of John Gordon a plantation lying southwest of Brabant called "The Grove" consisting of several tracts aggregated by Gordon, including one of the outlying parts of Brabant lying on Cooper river, which had been sold off by Robert Smith, and covering in all 3364 acres. He subsequently in 1852 purchased from Governor Bennett and his wife the widow of John Gordon another part of Brabant called Pagett's Landing which also had been sold off and also the Moreland plantation sold by Alfred Huger to John Gordon the two places containing together 2831 acres, and later in the same year—1852—he acquired the rest of Brabant, 1420 acres, from the heirs of Robert Smith thus again uniting in one owner nearly the whole of the original Brabant and making with the other lands acquired by him an estate of 7615 acres.

Much of the area this article treats of covers the French settlement or Orange Quarter. A detailed account of that settlement and the first French settlers in the Province will be the subject of another article. This must be restricted to the Ashby Barony and the adjoining plantations. The map accompanying this Article has been gathered together by years of comparison and collection of ancient maps and deeds. It does not attempt to do more than generally indicate the lines of plantations as existing at about the end of the eighteenth century. Subsequent changes of ownership and title have made of course an entire difference in these.

MARRIAGE AND DEATH NOTICES FROM THE SOUTH CAROLINA WEEKLY GAZETTE

Compiled by MABEL L. WEBBER.

The first number of the South-Carolina Weekly Gazette, appeared on Saturday, February 15, 1783,¹ printed by Nathan Childs, 85 Church Street; on March 3, 1784, the paper became semi-weekly and the name was changed to South Carolina Gazette and Public Advertiser. In 1785 an attempt was made to issue it three times a week which was soon discontinued. In 1786 the name was changed to the Charleston Morning Post and Daily Advertiser, and the paper was published daily except Sundays. Some time in 1787 or 1788, the name was again changed to City Gazette or Daily Advertiser, which title, with minor changes, it held until some years after 1832 when it was sold to the proprietors of the Charleston Courier. This paper had several able editors during its existence, among them, Peter Freneau and W. Gilmore Simms.

LETTERS OF JOHN RUTLEDGE

Salisbury Nov. 26. 1780

Gent,—

I have just rec^{d.}, by the person whom I sent to Hillsbor^{o.}, your favours of the 10^{th.} & 24^{th.} ult^{o.}, & observe with pleasure, what you say, respecting a Letter to the King of France—I hope Congress will send several Copies of it—each.¹ by a Gentleman of Address, Sense, & Spirit, Master of the subject, & well acquainted with the French Language, who will, without offence, or the fear of giving it, make a full & true Representation of our Affairs—I believe nothing else is necessary to obtain from France, immediate & ample Supplies of Money, cloathing, Tents, Arms & military Stores, & a suff^{t.} Aid of Troops & Ships—an Early & vigorous Campaign w^{d.} give us Independence—that sh^{d.} be the first object of France & America—and our utmost Efforts used to obtain it, as soon as possible—The Chevalier² & Marquis are warm friends of America—They will, if requested, give us their influence & Interest—I wish the Marquis w^{d.} be personally an Advocate for America, with his Prince—an Application from Gen^{l.} Washington w^{d.} have considerable Effect in France—and a confidential Officer, sent by him, to concert measures, with the French Minister of War, w^{d.} do more, than can be expected, from our Plenipotentiary at Versailles, with the Count deVergennes—

It is a melancholy Reflection (when we consider our inexhaustible resources, & powerful alliance) that there sh^{d.} be a British Soldier on the Continent and intolerable that, in the present Stage of the War, our Affairs sh^{d.} be in such a wretched Condition, as they are—I am persuaded that nothing w^{ch}. can retrieve them will be omitted by you.—Col. Marion had a successful Skirmish some Weeks ago, with a party of Tories²—the enclosed Extract of his Letter to me will give you the particulars—It is said, here, that Tarlton attacked Sumpter last Thursday,⁴ & was repulsed with the Loss of upwards of 100 killed & wounded—that Tarlton is mortally wounded (but was carried off) that only one Man was killed on our side & that Sumpter was slightly wounded in the Arm (the ball was cut out) & retreated pretty high up the Country, apprehending that the Enemy were ab^t. to attack him, in great force—I give you this News, as we have it—There is no official Acco^t. come, of it, but, it is told, with great appearance of Credibility—However We must not publish, till We are sure of it,—I repeat my request, that you will transmit to me, with the greatest dispatch, every material Occurrence, and am wth. great Respect.

P.S. I shall set off, as soon as I close this Packet, for Charlotte—

Gent.—

At Salisbury, I wrote to you a very long Letter, beg'g ab^t. the 20th & end^e. ab^t. the 27th. ult^o., & deliv^d. it, on that day to Mr. Baird, who was just then setting off for Lancaster—He promised, if he went, immediately from thence, to Philad^{ia}. to deliver it, if not, to send it pr Express, so that, I presume, you will receive it, in a few days from this Date—The enclosed will give you our latest News from C: Town, and an Acc^{ot} of Gen^l. Sumpter's Engagem^t., with Wemyss & Tarlton, of Col. Marion's with some Tories, & of L; Col. Washington's success agst. Rugeley,⁵ but, what do all these things avail, towards the grant point of regg. our Country, the distresses of which I want words to describe,—On the 29th. ult^o. I went to Col. Watson's in the New Acquisition⁶ (S^o. Carolina,) ab^t. 20

Miles from hence, to confer with Gen^l. Sumpter, who had been removed thither—it was really melancholy to see the desolate Condition of poor Hills Plant^a; & the Situation of his family—all his fine Iron Works, Mills, dwelling House & Build^a. of every kind, even his negroe Houses, reduced to Ashes, and his wife and Children in a little Log-Hut—I was shocked to see the ragged, shabby Condition, of our brave & virtuous Men, who w^d. not remain in the power of the Enemy, but have taken to Arms—This, however, is but a faint description of the Suffering of our unfortunate Country for, it is beyond a Doubt, that the Enemy have hanged many of our People, who, from fear, & the Impracticab^y. of removing, had given Paroles, & who, from Attachm^t. to our side, had joined it—nay, Tarlton has, since the action at Blackstock's, hung one Capt. Johnston, a Magistrate of respectable Character—They have also burnt a prodigious N^o. of Houses, & turned a vast many Women, formerly of affluent, or, easy fortune, wth. their children, almost naked, into the Woods—Tarlton at Gen^l. Richardson's Widows, exceeded his usual Barbarity, for having dined in her House, he not only burnt it, after plundering every thing contained, but having drove into the Barn a N^o. of Cattle, Hogs, Poultry, he consumed them, together with the Barn, & the Corn in it, in one general Blaze, & this because he pretended to believe, that the poor old Gen^l. was with the Rebel-Army, tho', had he open'd his grave, before the Door, he might have seen the Contrary—Many more of the Staunchest Inhab^t. of C:T: (it is said ab^t. 90,) have been sent, ab^t a Fortnight ago to St. August^e., & others are to follow—I have not been able to procure a list of them—I believe none is published, but, I recollect that Mr. A: Middleton⁷ is of the Number—Mr. Gadsden is confined to the Castle, the rest of the first sett are on Parol, in the Town—Col; C: C. Pinckney's family are turned out of his House—In short the Enemy seem determined, if they can, to break every Man's Spirit, & if they can't., to ruin him—Engage-m^{ts}., of Capitulation, & Proclamations, are no Security ag^t their oppression & Cruelties—they make a great Parade of Mr. Middleton, "formerly Presid^t of the Con^{tl} Congress," & old Mr. Manigault having applied to be admitted as British Subjects, wth they have been—Indeed, I fear many will follow their ⁷ The signer of the Declaration of Independence and son of Henry Middleton mentioned afterwards in this letter.

Example—the unfort^e affair, near Camden, the want of any Support ever since, & the little prospect of any, have affected the Conduct of many, who were well disposed, & whose Hearts may, perhaps, still be wth us—Our last acco^{ts} from Virg^a, are, that th^e Enemy, who had embarked on App^r. of a Fleet, supposing they might be French, (probably the Transports from N.York for C.Town, as Ment^d in the So. Carolina Gazette of 27th ult^o) had relanded, on discovering them to be friends, & that a Reinforcem^t was expected in Virg^a—If so, & the Reinforcem^{ts} expected in C: T: have arrived, or should arrive, (which they probably will, if they have not already,) instead of moving down—w^d. it is likely that our Maneuvres may be of the retrograde kind—Indeed, the present prospect is truly gloomy—very different from what you, at Philad^a, conceive it, if you credit wth I presume you do, (willing to catch at good news however improbable,) such Intelligence as that published in Dunlap's Paper of 4th. ult^o. said to come from Richmond—Gen^l Green arrived here the 2^d Inst^t.—he left Baron Steuben to command, for the present, in Virginia—if the Baron is to take Rank of Smallwood, he will leave us; However, you will hear from him, on that Head. Gen^l. Green will establish expresses from hence, to Hillsbor^o. (none having been yet app^d.) and have all the Expresses, from hence, to Philad^a. put upon the best Footing, for Regularity, & dispatch so that I hope, in future, to hear from you, at least once a Week—oftener, if you have any thing material to communicate—no acco^{ts}. from C.Town, or elsewhere, respecting the Spaniards going ag^t S^t. Augustine, or Pensacola—your Intelligence from Havanna, I think, must be ill founded—Inclosed I send, for your Information, and the Information of Congress & the Chev.^r (but it sh^d go no further) an Acco^t of the Enemy's Strength, & Posts in S^o. Carolina & Georgia, & of our Force in S^o.C. & this State—from which you may readily form a just opinion of Affairs in this Quarter—I have given Gen^l. Green, a Copy of this Acco^t. of the Enemy's Strength & Posts, wth probably he will transmit & I refer you to his Acco^t of our Strength, but I believe you will find mine pretty accurate—Gen^l. Gates, in his last Letter to the Board of War (which pray peruse,) expressed his Sentiments, very fully, requesting Supplies, (or rather the Want of 'em) for the Southern Army—I am fully persuaded of your Attention, to every Measure which I have recommended, but it is truly mortifying, to find so much Inattention, in the department whose Business it is to furnish Supplies for the Army, very few of the Articles, ordered for the Southern department, have ever reached the Army, what have come are received in Driblets, & exceeding bad order, so as to be of little if any service—such, Conduct is shameful—what can you expect from an Army who are in want of everything—There must be some strange Mismanagement, in your executive department, (which Sh^d be enquired into, & corrected) or this w^d not happen, unless indeed, the supplies, ordered, can^t. be had for want of Money—if that is the Case, it is ridiculous to order a Board of War to furnish Supplies, when they have not the Means of procuring 'em—it is only tantalising us, & productive of the worst Consequences—but why have they not Money?—I am told every Article which is wanted may be procured in Phil^t. for Money, or Bills,—Why will not Congress draw?—Surely it is our Policy, to draw, for neither France, Spain, or Holland, will venture, however they may threaten, to protest your Bills—How do you expect to carry on the War, without Money? Taxes where a Country is attacked, or possessed by the Enemy can^t. be collected, to keep pace with the demands for it—The Presid^t. of Congress has transmitted to me, their Resolve of Oct. 30th., on the Appointm^t. of Gen^l. Green to the Southern Command—His Army is to consist of all the Regular Reg^{ts}. & Corps raised, or to be raised, from the States of Delaware to Georgia, inclusive—this sounds high—but, what that Army is, at present, you see—& what it is likely to be, if composed only of such forces, you may judge—I will try what can be done wth. N^o. Carolina, as to raising a permanent Corps of Regulars—Several Gent. think the Measure will go down, when the Assembly meets next M^o—I am not so sanguine, but even, if it does, when will they be equipt, & embodied, fit for Service?—how men will be obtained, in S^o. Carolina or Georgia, with^t. money, or cloathing, I know not—upon the whole, Gent., it appears to me, that the Enemy in S^o. Carolina are or soon will be, reinforced—that the Troops in Virg^a., under Leslie, will also be reinforced—that it is probable, they will endeavour to effect a Junction, in N^o. Carolina, &, if they make such an Attempt, in force, they will receive considerable Aid from N^o. & S^o. Carolina, that they will either effect such Junction, or in attempting it, will ravage & distress this State, &, as I can't conceive the Policy of suffering the main Army, & the French Troops, to remain in Winter-Quarters, in the Eastern States, (where they can have nothing to fear,) instead of opposing the Enemy's vigorous operations in the Southern—I request, & exhort you, to use your utmost Influence, & endeavours, to obtain, as soon as possible, such Aid from the Grand Army, and from the Forces of his Most Christian Majesty, as may not only check the further progress of the Enemy tow^d. this State, but regain every part of S^o. Carolina & Georgia—& that you will have the proper departments furnished with the Money necessary for procuring, & forwarding, all the Supplies which are wanted—that you will particularly, press the sending 'em quite on to this Army, (not to be stop'd, or delayed, in Virg^a. or N^o. Carol^a.,) under the Charge of a trusty person to attend 'em the whole Way—I think Gen^l. Washington's presence, for a little while, this Way w^d. have a very happy Effect—I wish he w^d. come, & see with his own Eyes, the Importance of doing something effectual, for S^o. Carolina, for really, hitherto, every thing has been trifling—He might return before he c^d. be wanted at the Northward—

Suppose we c^d. raise Troops in S^o. Carolina, how could they be Officer'd, according to the Resolve of Congress of Oct; 21st.—the Officers of our Cont^l. Battalions being Prisoners of War—I wish to hear from you, on that point—I do not see how Men c^d. be appointed to command these Regiments—& this Circumstance is, therefore, an effectual Bar to any Attempt to raise Men—I wish to know, as the Enemy have certainly broke the Capitulation of C. Town, in many Instances, whether Congress w^d. approve of the Cont^l. Officers, who are on Parole, at Haddrell's point, coming, or being bro^t. off—as I think such a Measure might be effected, if approved by Congress, but with^t. their Consent, it sh^d. not be attempted—This, however, must be kept a profound Secret—otherwise the Attempt might fail, & our Friends be ill treated—I observe Gen^l. Green is impowered to make Exchanges of Prisoners in the Southern departm^t.—but, whom have we to exchange, for our Continental Officers, & Soldiers in C. Town?—I wish to know the Idea of Congress respecting the Exchange of our Inhabitants taken in Arms, with the Enemy—you recollect, that we have always looked upon the exchanging 'em as a dangerous preced^t. Does the power given to Gen^l. Green, of making Exchanges, extend to such persons, whose Lives & Fortunes are by our Laws of Treason forfeited? I sh^d. think not, for, if we exchange them, We certainly acquit 'em from the Offence of taking up Arms agst their Country, & allow the Enemy to recruit their Armies, with impunity, in our States—but, it may be said, if we do not, how are our Militia to be exchanged?—I don't know what practice has prevailed, on this point, in the Eastern States, where I presume there laws, agst., their People taking up Arms, with the Enemy, are similar to ours—but, there sh^d be an Uniformity of Conduct, in the several States, on this Head—pray, therefore, be explicit on it—& be pleased to inform me, as soon as possible, of the Sentiments of Congress on these several Points—also, what Steps are taken, or taking, for relief of the Southern States, & what Certainty there is, of our receiving real & substantial, Aid, & when We may depend on obtaining it—I think you have employed the Eagle Pilot Boat very well, & that she may be continued in the same service—if the Letters wth. were intercepted, on the Way from Cornwallis' Camp at Charlotte, to C:Town, & wth. Gen^l. Gates sent to Congress, are deciphered, pray let me know their Contents—Should any Overtures of Peace be made, (tho' I see no Prospect of them at present,) I trust that Congress will never listen to a treaty of uti possidetis, whilst the Enemy hold any part of the 13 States; However, it will be best to use your utmost Exertions to recover S^o. Carolina, as far as possible, lest We sh^d. be obliged to accept such Terms—I request your Endeavours to effect an Exchange of our Prisoners in S^o. Carolina, as soon as you can, and your Attention to having 'em supplied, as well as possible, during their Captivity—By return of the 2^d. flag, you will know what Articles were most wanted, & pray dont fail to send 'em—if a French Force sh^d. really be coming this way, give us Notice of their intent^a., in Time for us to make the necessary Preparations for them—

I am with great Regard & Esteem

THE REGISTER OF CHRIST CHURCH PARISH

Copied by MABEL L. WEBBER

Christ Church parish was established by act of Assembly, Nov. 30, 1706; and its boundaries defined by an act of Dec. 18, 1708, as follows: "to the North east by a large creek or River, commonly called Awindaw Creek or Seawee River, being the bounds of Craven county, to the South-East by the Sea, to the West by Wando River, and to the North-West partly by the said River, and partly by a line drawn from the Cowpen of Capt. Robert Daniel, or the Swamp at the head of Wando River exclusive, to the Cowpen of Joseph Wigfal, on the head of the said Awindaw Creek or Seawee River inclusive."¹

The first church was begun in 1707, but was not completed for some years. This church was accidentally burned in February 1724/5, but was almost immediately rebuilt, and was again burned by the British in 1782; the present church was built after 1800. The communion plate, a chalice and paten, were the gift of Jacob Motte Esq, 1763.

The Register and Journals are badly mutilated, and a considerable portion lost.

In making this copy for printing, the original register is used in connection with a copy made for this Society by Langdon Cheves, Esq. a number of years ago.

HISTORICAL NOTES

LETTER FROM JOSEPH BAILY¹

1672

The following letter was written by one Joseph Baily, an official of the colony of Charles Town, Carolina, to the English ambassador in Spain, and was intercepted by the Spaniards. Baily had been sent to Saint Augustine in June, 1670, to demand the release of some Englishmen, who had been captured by the Spaniards. Instead of securing the liberty of his countrymen, he himself was imprisoned, the Spanish governor feeling that it would be unwise to allow the Englishman, said to be second in command in the English colony, to return to Carolina, and report the defenceless condition of the Spanish post. Baily's letter was sent to the Council of the Indies, and an investigation was ordered, but the outcome does not appear. The letter is interesting, not only on account of its quaint style, but also for the side light it throws upon early Anglo-Spanish relations on the Carolina-Florida frontier, and for its corroboration of the fact that the Carolina colony was first known as Saint George, the designation almost invariably employed by the Spaniards until well into the eighteenth century.²

THE LOUISIANA PURCHASE, 1803

A South Carolina Federalist on the purchase of Louisiana:

John Rutledge³ to Harrison Gray Otis of Boston.—Weathersfield, Oct. 1, 1803.

. . . . "I really believe the fever of democracy has had its crisis here and that things will now be growing better and better. . . . Our Master [Jefferson] will have mighty fine tales to amuse his mountain and their mob with—we shall have the prosperous condition of the Republic eulogized, and hear much of the great advantages which will obtain to us by the purchase of a trackless world—A country which when worth the holding will I have no doubt rival and oppose the atlantic states. I do not mean New Orleans which was absolutely necessary for us to get, and which in substance is all we have got for our fifteen millions. This seems to me a miserably calamitous business—indeed I think it must result in the disunion of these States.”

Gent.—

I find the enemy have left Virginia, probably, for S^o. Carolina, or to land in the lower part of this State, ab^t. Cape-Fear -River, & effect a Junction with Lord Cornwallis, more readily than they could from Virginia—your utmost Attention, to the speedy Relief of the Southernmost States, is absolutely necessary, & I must repeat my Recommendation, of them, to your Care—I sh^d have been better satisfied, if the Enemy had remained in Virginia, for, I think, that State w^d have been a Match for 'em, & I do not apprehend their Removal will give us any considerable Aid, this Way, from Virginia, nor that, what does come (if any sh^d) will arrive soon— &, the reinforcement, from Virginia, added to that from N. York will make Lord Cornwallis, so formidable, that I fear it will not be an easy Matter to prescribe Bounds to his Progress, unless he sh^d. have Reason to fear a respectable force, towards the Sea— Every thing which can be done, here, certainly will be, but, we shall look for great Mat-

W^d. it not be possible for the French Fleet, & Army, at Rhode-Island, to slip out, & get, at last into Chesapeake-Bay? the March from thence, hither, w^d not be great—Pray don't let 'em remain at Rhode-Island a Moment longer, than can be avoided—the British possessing that place is no consequence to Us—

Thomas's Plantation, on Pedee, nearly

Gent—

On the 15th Instant, I rec^d your Letter of the 27th. ult^o—I am sorry to find, by the Gazette it inclosed, that the King of G: Britain has got a new Parliament, altogether to his Mind;¹⁰ However, I hope that Circumstances will cause our Allies, as well as the United States, to make the most speedy & vigorous Exertions, for an early Campaign, so as to render it decisive—ab^t. 4 Weeks ago, Col: Few¹¹ took Gen^l. Williamson, at his own House, with a large Quantity of Provisions, wth were laid up there, for the Use of the Enemy, but, he suffer'd him to remain at Home, for several days, on Parol, within wth Time he was to determine, whether he w^d. take part with us, or not: However, before the Expirⁿ of that Time Col: Cruger marched from his Fort at Ninety Six, with most of the Garrison, & was joined by Rob. Cunningham, who is a Brig^t of Militia, agst. Few— He, misinformed of the Enemys No. (470) detached 100 Men, under Clarke, to attack 'em¹²—

⁹ In season and out of season the Governor urged upon the Delegates the necessity of aid, and material aid from other States and from France. As the result proved, the gallant efforts of the "partisans," while staying the British, could not regain the City or the State.

¹⁰ Yet it was this Parliament which passed Resolutions putting an end to the War with America, just after the news was received in England of the surrender of Cornwallis at Yorktown.

¹¹ Col. William Bryan Few of Georgia.

¹² Dec. 11th, 1780. Few has been criticized for his behavior towards Clarke.

Clark was wounded, & obliged to retreat, with the loss of 10 or 12 Men, to Tyger-River, hav^e killed more of the Enemy—Marion lately fell on McLawraths Rear,¹³ & with^t. any Loss, killed & took some of his Men—Gen^l. Green marched from Charlotte, for this place, with part of the Army, where he arrived Yesterday—Morgan is gone with the Remainder, towards Ninety-Six—I have appointed Col. Marion, a Brigadier & thrown all the Regiments, Ew^d. of Santee—Wateree & Catawba Rivers, into his Brigade, those to the Westward compose Sumpter's, whose Wound (the doctors say), will disable him from taking the field, for several months— This is a very unfortunate Circumstance, & we shall feel the Loss of his Services, very much, though, During his Illness, Morgan will command his Troops—Gen^l. Leslie arrived at C, Town with the forces which were in Virginia, ab^t. the 14 Ins^t—The Enemy hold the same Posts in the Country, as I ment^d. in my last—It is said that appearances at Camden & Winnsbor^o. indicated an Intention to move from those Posts, lower down the Country, & some People flatter themselves, with the Idea, of their going to C: Town, but I cannot believe that they will evacuate Camden,¹⁴ & if Cornwallis sh^d. leave Winnsbor^o., he will not go lower, (I think,) than the Congaree—why they sh^d. go to C: Town I can^t. conceive—I rather apprehend, the Enemy will attempt to drive us from this place, & prevent our collecting Supplies on this River—The Cherokees, or Tories painted like Indians, (but I think the former) have lately killed some people on the Frontiers of No. & So. Carolina, which has prevented, & will prevent, them from turning out, in the remot-country, as they ought— We have no certain Acco^t. of the Virginia troops or Lee's Horse— The report is, that they are coming on, but where they really are, no one here knows—I fear it will be long before they arrive, & when they do, that their Numbers will prove, (as usual) very short— Indeed We hear that the 18 Months Men do not exceed 800— The Time of the Virginia Militia, who are here, & who are draughted only for 3 Months, will expire in 3 Weeks—Our prospect is gloomy, for our Numbers are very small & our Men mostly in Rags, almost naked, scarce a Blanket to cover them, shivering with Cold, & drinking Water— I shall be glad to hear, that the Pennsylvania Line, who I am told are enlisted for the War, & are well clothed, are to join us—(for I have no expectation of obtaining such Troops, from No. Carolina, or Virginia—) We may then, perhaps, be able to hold some part of the Country—but when shall we retake the Town?— Not, unless our Allies exert themselves, very powerfully, for that purpose— untill that Event takes place, and we can open the Trade of the Country, I shall think everything else poor trifling Business—I hope you will not fail to use every Effort, in your Power, to effect that desirable end— We are told that Mr. Gadsden died,¹⁵ in the Castle at Augustine, (but I can't say how far that Intelligence may be depended on), and that the rest of the Gent: who were sent out thither, are on Parole, in the Town—Inclosed is a List of persons lately sent thither— others are sent, & more are to follow, whose Names I have not—I am impatient to hear, that an Exchange of the Garrison at C; Town has taken place, so that our unhappy friends may be relieved, from the oppressive & cruel Treatment which they suffer—

Dec. 30th, Gen^l. Marion, by Ltr' of the 27th. Gent—

My last letter to you was, pr Express, about the 30th. ult^o—I have not rec^d one from you since yours of the 27 Nov^r—I find, that the Flag, which, by that Letter, you say was expected to sail in a few days for C: Town had not arrived there, the 2^d Instant, when Gen^l du Portail¹⁷ who is now here, left that place— I understand that there were at that time, about 600 Sail of square-rigged Vessells, in C: Town Harbour— These will carry off a considerable Supply of Rice, Indigo, Tobacco, Naval Stores, & Lumber, for the W: Indies, the British Market & Navy— Indeed I look upon two years crops already secured, to the Enemy, by the Fall of C: Town.— Some Tories embodied last week, on Little-Pedee —Col^o. Kolb has dispersed such of 'em as he could find collected, but, I fear a Storm is gathering in that Quarter, & will burst, if the Enemy should advance, in force, this Way, for I am well informed, that they have several British Officers, in disguise, & other Emissaries, recruiting in N^o. Carolina, and on the Borders of this & that State— ab^t. the 31st. ult^o. Gen^l Morgan detached Col: Washington, wth 300 regulars & Militia Horse, to attack Col: Vance, & 200 Tories, (who set out to attack him, but had retreated—) He did so, killed ab^t. 160, & took 35 Prisoners, with 40 Horses & some Baggage— But, such Affairs are trifling— nor will anything, in my opinion, be of Consequence, untill we have a sufficient force to regain the whole State, both Town & Country— This, I imagine, We might soon have, on a proper Representation, to France, of our Situation—I therefore hope, it has already been made, & a satisfactory Answer received—if not, pray don't fail to press it continually, untill it has the desired

Effect— The Enemy's' force is so far superior to what We are likely to bring into the Field, that I have no Hope of any thing, material, except from that Quarter— I fear N^o. Carolina will adhere to the old plan of draughting Militia, for 3 Months—you know the futility of that System—or, if they should resolve to raise Men, for the War, the Resolve will never be carr^d into Execution—Virginia, it is said, intends to raise 6000 Men, for the War, by a Bounty of $10,000 dollars, & Promise of a Negroe at the Expiration of their Service—but, you will readily judge, what may be relied on, from that Plan, when you reflect that in June last, they resolved to raise Men, for 18 Months only, at an amazing Price, & expected to have at least, 3500 Men, in the Field—Instead of which they have had, only ab^t 250, (in Rags—) ab^t 400, under Col^o. Greene are on the March, near Us, who, by Baron Steuben's Means, are pretty well cloathed—We have no Certainty, that more will come, tho', it is said, & probably, about the same Number may— However, supposing we get even as large a proportion of the 6000, as We have, & are to have, of the 3500, how small will their Number be? &, if these are in the field, no sooner, from the Time of resolving to raise 'em, than those, when shall We have them— I will say nothing ab^t their being cloathed, because, I put all Chance of that, out of the Case— I hope, therefore, that neither, you, or any Members of Congress, will be amused with, or give any Credit to the false Intelligence which I frequently see, in the Northw^d. Gazettes, recounting Battles which are never fought, Marches which were never made—placing the Enemy in the most forlorn, & ourselves in the most advantageous, Situation—lessening their, & exaggerating our, Numbers & magnifying every little Affair which really happens, in our favour— I fear, that our Flashes of success, now & then, agst the Tories, or small Parties of British, (in the words of C: Fox) are like an Ignis fatuus, continually misleading our Friends & Well Wishers, but, be persuaded that, unless, We have a respectable French Fleet & Army, well appointed, & sufficiently furnished with Supplies of military Stores, & Provisions, there is no probability of regaining the Country, much less the Town for the Enemy will not quit the former, untill the latter is besieged, or ab^t to be so— but, if, ever the Country should be recovered, & could be held, (which will be attended with much difficulty,) of how little Avail will that be, while the Enemy possess the Town, & all the Sea-Islands—My anxiety occasions my dwelling so much on this Point, and pressing it, by every letter, to your closest Attention—I conjure you, by every tie of duty & Affection to our unhappy Country to labour, incessantly to obtain it—

I am with great regard

J: Rutledge—

P. S. Col^o Lee arrived yesterday, wth his Legion—ab^t 260—I like him much, & expect great Service from his Corps— Cornwallis has sent orders to Cruger, at Ninety-six, to enlarge the Works there, (which he is now doing,) promising to reinforce, & support him— His Lordship declares, that he will shortly send every disaffected person, out of the State with his family, & apply his property to publick use— Pickens & Bowie have joined Morgan, with ab^t. 70 Men—but they can^t. promise that many more will follow— Indeed it is almost amazing that any will come out, when there is such a disparity; between the Enemy's force & ours—so little prospect of the latter increasing, & the Consequence of their coming off is, at least, the destruction of their property, & reducing their Families to Beggary— Gen^l Portail will give you, & Congress (if des^d, which I hope he will be) such information of the Condition of the Prisoners of War in So. Carolina., as will, I think, induce 'em to effect their Exchange, if possible, with^t. further delay as well as to supply 'em, & keep 'em supplied, with such Articles as may render their Captivity less irksome, untill they are relieved from it— I can^t conceive what Excuse can be made, for not having the Prisoners relieved, by the 2d Jany, when the Resolve for that purpose was passed, ab^t the 20th of August— The Board of War, I think, can give no reason for this, but the grossest Inattention on their part—I am sorry to find, that Congress is so indifferent abt: the Conduct of that department, as to suffer 'em to trifle in such a Business— I must again, however, press these Points of Relief & Exchange, to your particular Notice—if the Weather will admit of the Virginia 18 Months Men being reviewed, before Gen^l. Portail leaves us, he will be able to inform you from ocular demonstration, of their tatter^d Condition.

Cheraws Jany. 11-1781.

Gent,—

This will be delivered to you, by General du Portail—The Exchange of that valuable Officer will prove a very fortunate Circumstance for the Southern-States, if Congress make the proper Use of the information which they may derive, from his experience, Knowledge, & great Abilities— I hope you will avail yourselves of it, & that you will agree, with him, & me, in opinion, that there is no prospect of a speedy Peace—& that We should act, as if there was none—trust no longer to temporary Shifts or Expedients—& to Requisitions on the several States—but, procure, from France, immediatly, a sufficient Quantity, & Number, of money, Cloathing, & Military Stores, and of Ships, Men, & Arms—& with this foreign Aid, & the Resources which could be speedily collected, for a while, from the Country, make such early & vigorous Efforts, as would, probably render the Campaign decisive, & fix, irrevocably the Independence of every State.¹⁸

Gen^l du Portail not having yet got off, I have taken back the enclosed (which I had committed to his Charge,) in order to send 'em, with greater dispatch, by this Express—& to acknowledge the receipt, yesterday, of your Letter, of the 12th ult^o—I am glad to find, that Holland & Portugal have acceded to the League of Neutrality— & that a Flag was, at last, about to sail for C: Town— it will show our Friends there, that, they are not totally forgotten, tho, the Trifle of 4000 dollars for the Officers, (not I believe above 15 pr Man) is not worth mentioning— I still think the Board of War have been exceedingly inattentive about procuring hard Money—I hope the Acco^{ts} you have respecting the Eagle's Prize, are true, & that, it is valuable—if so, a fund may arise, from it, as well for supplying you with some Money, as procuring Necessaries, on Acco^t of the State, for our Fellow Soldiers & Citizens, in Captivity, whose Condition is truly deplorable—if Jones sh^d arrive, wth the Articles expected, I hope you will not fail to obtain our due proportion of them— I presume you will have rec^d Intelligence, 'eer now, of the Enemys' Arrival in Virginia— I w^d have been glad to hear that Messr^s Joiner¹⁹ & Rochambout are close at their Heals— the former object of Cornwallis, to make a Junction, between the Troops in Virginia & those in So. Carolina, will be now reattempted— I wish I could see a greater, & better, force, embodied, & properly prepared, to oppose them— I hope to hear from you soon in Answer to my Letters from Salisbury, Charlotte & this place—

INSCRIPTIONS FROM THE CHURCH YARD OF OLD PRINCE FREDERICK WINYAH, AT BROWN'S FERRY, BLACK RIVER¹

By an act of the General Assembly, April 19, 1734² and March 29, 1735 the parish of Prince George Winyah was divided and that part "beginning at the Southwesternmost plantation of John Du Bose on Santee, from thence on a line to the head of John Green's creek, and down the said creek till you come to Black river and from thence over Black river to the plantation of John Bogg, to be included in the town parish to Pee Dee River; and that part of the parish where in the parish church now is, shall and is hereby declared to be a distinct parish by itself . . . and known by the name of Prince Frederick."

As seen by above act, the parish Church of Prince George, Winyah, fell into the line of the new parish, and became the parish church of Prince Frederick. The church was begun in 1726, and was still unfinished in 1730,³ but was evidently completed by 1734, for in that year the pews were sold.⁴

Dalcho, writing in 1819, says, "The church is commodious and well constructed, built of brick, 40 feet long by 30 wide." There is nothing left of the church today, except parts of the foundation which is covered with earth.

The church seems to been abandoned about 1810, when the rector, Rev. Hugh Fraser, resigned.

In 1837, the Bishop reports that "a new building has recently been consecrated in Prince Fredericks parish, on the Pee Dee, a very small number of liberal friends of Christs kingdom have done this pious work."⁵ There was no regular rector until 1840, when the Rev. John B. Gallagher of New York, took charge, he reported 14 white communicants, 3 colored, 15 noncommunicants, and 16 children under fourteen; this little wooden church was afterwards moved to Plantersville, and the present very handsome little church was begun about 1860. The Register (1713-1769), and Minutes of the Vestry, 1729-1779 of Prince Frederick, have recently been published by the National Society of Colonial Dames of America, through the efforts of Mrs. Elizabeth W. Allston Pringle, and, besides the genealogical value, give us an interesting insight in to the working of the parish system before the Revolution.

Honored by }
W. T. Godfrey }

Georgetown, 29th December 1788.

Dear Sir:—

Myself and Family were well pleased to hear by Mr. Leigh on his return that Mrs. Spencer was safely delivered of a Daughter, (and that you with the rest of the Family were well,) on which occasion we heartily Congratulate you both.

It is with some degree of pleasure that I have now found an opportunity to inform you that Wilson who commanded in the British Cavalry while Georgetown² was Garrisoned by them is now here, and who if I recollect rightly took away your Horse, as well as took yourself & poor Shackelford prisoners at Mrs. Bonneaus³—the Fellow is apparently afraid of his Shadow, recollecting I suppose the many Mischiefs he did while here in his Command; he has been told of some, and as he has been Successful in ¹According to Gregg (Hist. Old Cherokees, p. 106) William and Calvin Spencer came to the Pee Dee district from Conn. a few years before the Revolution. William settled in Anson Co., N. C.

Calvin Spencer lived first in Prince George's Parish; he a captain in Col. Huger's battalion, Contl. Army in Dec. 1777, when he resigned; he was then appointed Assistant Deputy Quartermaster General of the State of S. C. with rank of Captain (this Magazine, vol. VII, p. 77). He married 22. Aug. 1782, Rebecca, youngest daughter of George Ford of Prince George's Winyah; (Ibid., vol XIV, p. 111.) They have left a number of descendants. An account of Spencer's capture is given in Gregg's Old Cherokees, page 463. He died in January, 1801; his widow married Thomas Powe, and died about 1844. Spencer moved to Chesterfield Dist. after his marriage; was Representative for St. Davids, 1784, 1786. Delegate to the conventions in 1788 and 1790. Col. of Chesterfield Regt. Militia in 1800.

²Georgetown was garrisoned in 1780 by a detachment of British provincials (McCrary, 1775-1780, p. 562.)

obtaining Administration on Baird's⁴ Estate which he now Heirs, he purposes selling and carrying to Europe all he can get thereby, and to leave his wife only a bare Maintenance; (they are total enemies to each other) and Wilson has not a well wisher in this place but two—So that from these circumstances others as well as myself Suppose that by a Spirited Application either personal or by Letter from you immediately will so terrify him as will readily induce him to Comply with almost any request that may be made of him—The sooner this is done the Better—if it is possible you had better come down, if not write to him fully on the occasion the value of the Horse, and the modé of payment you would wish and send it to me and I would almost insure the success for a trifle.

Expecting to hear from you on this affair by the earliest opportunity I rest for the present.

There has been a Number of Deaths since you were here, in this place, say—Myers, Ballard, Cryer, Geo. Brown and Isaac Lesesne, the latter died a Deplorable Death—Drunk and by himself, with a pitcher of stout Grog at his back.

Having nothing farther to Communicate Betsey joins me in love to you all, and gives you the Compliments of the Approaching New Year.

rude, savage eloquence and power, commended himself to Gov. Dinwiddie by loyalty and efficiency. Lieutenant, Va. Provincials, 1755. Commissioned Captain, 1756, to command company of Cherokees and Catawbias in the expedition against Shawnee Towns west of the Ohio, under Maj. Andw. Lewis. Commended. Served under Gens. Forbes, Stanwix, Monckton and Boquet, to end of French and Indian War; was first into Ft. Duquesne. Commended by Gen. Forbes; thanked by Lord Eglinton. Appointed Agent for Southern Indians. Served with effect on border of Maryland, Pennsylvania and Virginia, with headquarters at Ft. Pitt. Owing to great influence over the Cherokees, through his Indian wife, was ordered southward, where he might be "more centrally located to gather the Cherokees in event of an Indian outbreak;" and, in 1768, was located at the Big Canebrake, on Reedy River, headwaters of the Enoree, beyond the Indian Line, in So. Ca. Through his natural son by his Indian wife, secured an immense tract of land on the headwaters of the Enoree, 150,000 acres, at the Great Plains on Reedy River; where he conducted a large Indian station and trader's post, a center of great and wide-spreading influence among the Valley and Overhill Cherokees. Every effort was made by the Whigs, 1775, to secure him and the Indians to their interest or as neutrals. But, chagrined by the appointment of George McAlpine, (commonly styled Galphin), of Augusta, his rival in trade, Superintendent of Indian Affairs for Congress, Southern Department, he took the King's part. As adjutant with Jo Robinson, Wm. Cunningham, Thos. Browne and Evan McLaurin, besieged Andrew Williamson at 96. Was taken at the battle of Big Canebrake, on Reedy, carried to Charles Town, and imprisoned nine months in irons in the common gaol. During incarceration his property and his trading-station were plundered and burned to the ground, his family deported, his cattle and stock used to feed Williamson's army on its famous march into the Indian country. Liberated, in the autumn of 1776, on taking an oath of neutrality, finding his property destroyed, his family deported, and his own life threatened, though protected for awhile by John Rutledge, Pearis, in company with Maj. Jo Robinson, Capt. John York, and Lieut. David Fanning, secretly raised 400 men to join the British in Florida; was betrayed, fled, on foot, through the wilderness, to Pensacola, 1777. Commissioned Captain, Light Horse Troop, Col. John Stewart's Corps West Florida Loyal Refugees, Jan., 1778. Operated with success about Mobile; reinforced St. Augustine against Howe's expedition; with Prevost invading Georgia; served defense of Savannah against French-American force; with Gen. Pattison at siege and reduction of Charles Town; commissioned Lt. Col. S. C. Provincials, by Sir H. Clinton, May 3, 1780; despatched to 96 District to raise and embody friends of government, with Innes and Balfour; served under Col. T. Browne defence of Ft. Cornwallis, Augusta; taken, at reduction by Pickens and Lee. His assassination attempted; was saved by Andw. Pickens, sent under safeguard to Savannah. Retired to East Florida, where his services were acknowledged in "extraordinary payment" by Sir Guy Carleton; died in the Island of Abaco, in much poverty, n.d.

THE ORANGE QUARTER AND THE FIRST FRENCH SETTLERS IN SOUTH CAROLINA

BY HENRY A. M. SMITH

The late Genl. Edward McCrady whose work published in 1897 may be regarded as the latest authoritative history of the period, gives the following account of the first French settlers:

“In the redistribution of the lots in old Charles Town, Richard Batin, Jacques Jours, and Richard Deyos received town lots. These are assumed to have been French Protestants, but upon what authority is not known. In 1677 grants were made to Jean Batton; in 1678 to Jean Bazant and Richard Gaillard. These were the first Huguenots in Carolina of whom there is record.”

McCrady gives as his authority for this, Howe's History of the Presbyterian Church in South Carolina, which was published in 1870. Howe (vol. 1, p. 73) gives practically the same account as repeated by McCrady, adding to the supposed first French Huguenots, John Monke in 1682, and a grant “to Marie Batton wife of Jean Batton (ci-devant Mary Fosteen).”

On a later page (p. 101) Howe mentions as one of the probable French Huguenots to whom lots were granted in old Charles Town, James Jour (not Jacques Jours). He also adds to the list of French immigrants to whom early grants were given, Jean Bullon (not Batton) in 1677, to Lydia Barnott in 1678, to Pierre Bodit in 1678 and to Samuel Buttall in 1682. Howe does not give his authority but the writer surmises that he may have seen the MS. history of the Huguenots of South Carolina and their descendants compiled by the late Thomas Gaillard, who in 1832 removed from South Carolina to Alabama. Mr. Gaillard seems to have done considerable research work (of a desultory kind) in the South Carolina records. Copious extracts from this MS. were published in the transactions of the Huguenot Society of South Carolina for 1897. Most of the names given by Howe and McCrady as early French grantees of lands are given by Mr. Gaillard.

A close examination of the original records shows the assumption that these early grantees were French is probably a mistake.

The three names given as persons to whom lots were awarded at the redistribution in old Charles Town are Richard Batin, Jacques Jours or James Jour, and Richard Deyos. A list of the persons to whom these lots were awarded will be found in the Collections of the Historical Society of S. C., vol. 5, p. 408, and also more exactly in the Journal of the Grand Council printed by the Historical Commission of S. C. in 1907 pp. 40-41. The most careful search reveals no Jacques Jours or James Jour, but one James Jones receives lot 14. Richard Battin receives lot 13, and Richard Deyos lot 19. As to Richard Battin a person of that name came out to Carolina in August 1671 in the ship Blessing from England with a shipload of English and Irish emigrants,² who together with a fellow emigrant in the same ship, one William Loe, stole a quantity of chattels and ran away from the settlement, were captured, tried, and condemned to death, and reprieved only on the intercession of Lady Yeamans and the rest of the ladies of the colony; and in June 1673 Richard Battin, joiner, was for malicious scandal ordered to receive thirteen lashes on his naked back "well laid on."³ In 1677 a warrant for 100 acres is issued to Richard Batten and Rebecca (not Marie) his wife.⁴ There is no reason then to infer that that Richard Batten or Battin was other than one of the first English emigrants.

Richard Deyos or Dyas was a gunner on the ship Carolina on her very first trip to found the settlement in August 1669.⁵ In March 1670/71 he is mentioned as a seaman belonging to the Carolina, but as having property in the Province.⁶ He arrived in the settlement in the very first fleet and brought with him or procured by June 1670 an indentured servant named Christopher Edwards⁷ and in December 1672 received a warrant for 300 acres.⁸ It is difficult to suppose at that time a seaman on an English vessel as an alien Frenchman. The suggestion of his being French is but a guess from the spelling of his name than which with regard to English names no guess can be more unsafe. The writer has been able to find no warrant or grant to any Jean Bullon, nor to Jean Batton, nor to Marie Batton cidevant Mary Fosteen. Lydia Barnett received a warrant for 100 acres on 7 Sept^r. 1678⁹ but that does not make her French more than Lidia Bassett to whom with her husband John Bassett a warrant for 140 acres was issued on 4th September 1675 as having arrived in August 1672, or than Lydia Bezant to whom with her husband John Bezant a warrant for 140 acres issued on 7th Sept^r. 1678. The probability is (under the errors that distinguished the scribes of that date in the writing of personal names) that John and Lydia Barnett, Bassett, or Bezant, were the same two who arrived with the other English settlers in August 1672.¹⁰ No warrant or grant to "Jean" Bazant has been found by the writer. No "Pierre" Bodit appears. A warrant to "Peter" Bodit "one of y^e freemen of this province" for 600 acres was issued 13 July 1678.¹¹ John Monk was an Englishman from Kingsclere¹², and Samuel Buttall was also an Englishman from Battersea near London¹³. So that of all the names mentioned by Tho^s Gaillard, and by Howe, and McCrady after him, and by a number of "thesis" writers and pamphleteers after them, as presumed French, there remains but one that can plausibly be supposed such: viz "Richard Gilliard" to whom a warrant was issued for 100 acres on 2nd November 1678.¹⁴ The Gaillard family who a few years later are found in South Carolina were undoubtedly French Protestants. The name in South Carolina has been pronounced "Gilyard" so that the name of Richard Gilliard is written in the record we have of the warrant, as the name is here pronounced. Richard however is not among the family names of the subsequent Gaillards. He may have been of a family originally French but already anglicised for generations. The writer has found nothing more of him on the record than this entry of a warrant issued for 100 acres to him. Assuming that he was French he is the only name the writer has found on the record prior to 1680 that may with any certainty be classed as such. There are other names of uncertain class. Bevin, Allouron, and Shugeron to whom warrants are issued might be supposed to have a French flavour yet they are all apparently Irish, (viz "Teigue" Shugeron) who came out with Capt Florence O'Sullivan in the first fleet in 1670.¹⁵ There are other names to whom warrants were issued prior to 1680 which at first sight the writer thought might be French viz Davith Dupeth and Enoch Dupis in 1677, Vera Aurora Peper in 1678, and Deoniz Brodie in 1679,¹⁶ or M^r Ohohj (save that his name was Patrick) in 1679,¹⁷ together with several others, but none of them seem to "connect up" with the later French settlers and the writer's own conclusion is that the most reasonable inference is that they were all part of the English, Irish, Bermudian, Barbadian first settlement of the Province. Considering this and the subsequent expressions in the Statutes and other records concerning the advent of French and other alien settlers it would appear to be safe to infer that there were no French settlers in the Province prior to 1680.

In 1680 came the first definite French immigration, about which also a curious error (in an immaterial point) has found currency. If an error, especially an historical or genealogical error, once creeps into print it seems impossible ever to obliterate it. It continues to crop up again and again, each new repetition serving as an additional basis or "authority." The historian George Chalmers in his Political Annals of the United Colonies published in London in 1780 stated that King Charles II in April 1679 ordered two small vessels to transport at his expense several foreign protestants to Carolina. Following Chalmers, David Ramsay in his History of South Carolina makes the same statement, as does Bancroft, and W^m Gilmore Simms. Howe in his History of the Presbyterian Church in S. C. published in 1870 states (on p. 73) "his majesty Charles II gave orders for fitting out two "suitable ships for their conveyance. One of these vessels was "the frigate Richmond which arrived in 1680 bringing out forty-five French refugees. Charles himself bore the expense of their "transportation. A more considerable number soon followed in "another vessel, also at the expense of government."

General M^cCrady follows Howe with some amplification. The error referred to in these accounts is that the French emigrants referred to came in two vessels, a considerable number following those, who first come over in the frigate Richmond. From the original material now available we find the true account to be as follows.

On 10 Feby 1679 Mons^r René Petit petitioned his Majesty Charles II that four score Protestant families skilled in the manufacture of silks, oils, wines, &c. be transported to Carolina in two of his Majesty's small ships and £2000 be advanced for this purpose to be reimbursed from the receipts from the customs on the commodities of that plantation. In March 1679 an additional petition was presented from René Petit and Jacob Guérard setting out further reasons and praying despatch. Gen^l. M^cCrady gives this last name as "Grinard" a mistake due to the misspelling in the abstract given in Vol. 1 p. 102 of the Collections of the Historical Society of S. C., of the petition which he refers to as his authority, and where the name is given as Grinard. It was without question Guérard. Before action on these petitions the Board of Lords of Trade and Plantations before whom the petitions were considered referred them to the Lords Proprietors of Carolina for their consent. On 6 March 1679 the Lords Proprietors informed the Board that at an outlay of some £17000. to £18000. they had brought the Colony to so prosperous a condition that for years men of estates had gone there on their own account, but admit that both their interest and his Majesty's will be served by the coming of these foreigners to Carolina and the attraction their success will hold out to other foreigners and Protestants. That these "poor gentlemen" are fit objects of the King's goodness and that the outlay will be profitable.

Two things are to be noticed in this communication of the Lords Proprietors. 1st The coming of these "foreigners" to Carolina is spoken of as the first occasion of the kind, thus confirming the inference already drawn that no French came prior to this date, and 2nd they are referred to as "poor gentlemen."

On the same date (6 March) there are further "Humble proposals for Carolina" in the handwriting of René Petit to the effect that 50 or 60 foreign families (a fall from the first 80) are ready to ship in February 1680 and that his proposals are already agreed to by the Proprietors of Carolina. On 22 May 1679 the Board agreed to recommend the preparation of two ships to draw not more than twelve feet to transport the families—the families to victual themselves, and the King to be at no charge beyond maintaining the ships and their crews, and on 28 May it was so ordered, but nothing more seems to have been done until 17 October 1679 when René Petit the Kings agent at Rouen and Jacob Guérard Gentleman of Normandy petitioned that a certain number of the Protestant families already arrived in England may be shipped to Carolina on the Richmond frigate then about to go to Barbadoes and that a warrant for £2000. be made to the petitioners, one half to be received on arrival of the first batch of emigrants and the other half on arrival of the rest. On the 29 Octr this petition for the transport of several Protestant families to Carolina on the Richmond was granted.

On the 17 Decr 1679 the Lords Proprietors write to the Governor and Council of Carolina at Ashley River that by the same ship that carried the letter several foreign Protestant families went to Carolina to settle. They were to have the quantities of land granted directed in a previous letter of 19 May 1679 viz: To each free person male or female 70 acres of land with 70 acres more for each manservant and 50 acres for each woman servant or manservant between the ages of 12 and 16. On expiration of their term of service each servant was to receive 60 acres. The Proprietors add in the letter that they have granted to René Petit and Jacob Guérard each a manor of 4000 acres to be passed to them as soon as desired. The letter is marked "Per the Richmond frigate Capt: Dunbar commanding."¹⁸

The plan of sending two ships was changed and the ship Richmond alone made the transportation. Accompanying the Richmond on the voyage was M^r Thomas Ash "Gent." who was the Clerk on board. On his return he wrote a sketch entitled "Carolina; or a Description of the Present State of that Country and the Natural Excellencies thereof," which was published in London in 1682. In this sketch he states that a production of silk was well calculated to succeed in the Province and "To make tryal of its Success was the Intention of those French Protestant Passengers transported thither in His Majesties Frigat the Richmond being forty five, the half of a greater Number designed for that place."

The Statute enacted by the General Assembly of Carolina 1 May 1691¹⁹ declares that King Charles "was pleased in the yeare one thousand six hundred and eighty for the encouragement of a Manufacture of silk oyle and wine to send in one of his owne shippes of Warr several French Protestants into this Country, to inhabitt and dwell in the same and their posterity after them."

From all which it may be inferred:

1—That the French immigrants in 1680 came in but one ship; the Richmond.

2—That they numbered in all but forty five.

3—That they were the first French to arrive in the colony and were brought to forward the colony's agriculture. The late M^r. Thomas Gaillard whose work on the French Huguenots of South Carolina has been already referred to; discussing this subject of the transportation in two vessels or one, refers to the statement as to two vessels in 1679 as first made by Chalmers and repeated in Bancroft and Simms, and concludes that finding no better authority than Chalmers for the statement he prefers the unquestionable authority of the Statute of 1691 that the transportation was made in 1680 in one vessel only.²⁰ The records in the State Paper Office in London to which M^r. Gaillard did not have access but which are now available show that his conclusion on this point was correct.

M^r. Gaillard also refers to the supposed early grants to French immigrants prior to 1680 already herein referred to and states "there is also on record an order to lay out to John Batton 70 acres of land for Mary Batton his wife ci devant femme de Fostien, she having arrived in May 1681. Order dated September 8th 1683."²¹

Reference however to the original record of the order of 18th (not 8th) September 1683 shows that there was to be "laid out unto John Barton" (not Batton) "seaventy acres of land for Mary his wife formerly knowne by the name of Mary Tosteen arriving in May Annq: Dni 1681"—the cidevant femme de "Fostien" not appearing on the record.

These forty five in the ship Richmond having been the first French to arrive the writer has for years endeavoured to ascertain their names and place of settlement in the Province. There is no known list of the forty five in existence. None appears among the State papers from London, and the books of entry in which their names were registered when they came to the colony have apparently been all destroyed.

The sources of information for the names of the earliest French settlers are:

First. The names of persons to whom warrants for land were issued, or to whom actual grants were made. The list of grants we now have of that early period seems imperfect with a number of omissions. How many it is impossible to say. So too the warrant books containing the record of warrants issued omit the names of persons, to whom it is ascertained from the grants, that warrants must have been issued. The extent of these omissions is also unknown—probably not great. In determining from the name the nationality of the nominee, mistakes are apt to be made unless the person can be "checked up" from other sources, and circumstances. Some names are in orders or instructions sent direct from the Proprietors to the Governor and Council and are not on the Provincial registers of grants or warrants.

Second. The names contained in contemporaneous writings of which there are few, or mentioned in the recitals of boundaries in grants to other persons, or in the few remaining books of records of that date of wills and deeds of various kinds.

Third. The names contained in the list known as the "St: Julien" or "Ravenel" list. This is a list of French and Swiss refugees in Carolina who desired to be naturalized. Its date by comparison of names with births has been fixed at about 1696. It was found among the papers of Henry de St: Julien of St Johns Berkley who died in 1768 or 1769 and was the youngest son of Pierre de St: Julien mentioned in the list. His papers came into the possession of M^r. Daniel Ravenel of Wantoot and the list was first published in 1822 in the Southern Intelligencer a paper published in Charleston. It was republished in 1867 and again in pamphlet form by T. Gaillard Thomas M. D. in 1888; and in 1897 in the Transactions of the Huguenot Society of S. C. for that year. This list contains (as numbered in this last publication) 154 heads—so to say—of families. But there are a number of duplications in this list (about 28 according to the writer's count) which would reduce the names of heads of families to about 126. It is subdivided into 3 sublists, N^o. 2 of which contains the names of French who belonged to the Church at Orange Quarter.

Fourth. The list of names contained in the Act of the Provincial Assembly ratified 10th March 1696/7 entitled "An Act for making "Aliens free of this Part of the Province and for Granting Liberty "of Conscience to all Protestants."²² The Act contains a list of 63 names of which 56 appear to be French; and of these 56 names 36 are also included in the St: Julien list of persons who are "to "be" naturalized although the Act declares the 63 entitled to naturalization. The list of names in this Act is printed in alphabetical order in the Transactions of the Huguenot Society before referred to,²³ but was badly proof read as it has several errors in it.

In the same number of the Transactions of the Huguenot Society there is given²⁴ another list of French names said to have been compiled by M^r. Thomas Gaillard of Mobile. This list although containing many French names is unworthy of reliance for any trustworthy historical or genealogical investigation. It is filled also with many names of persons known to have been English and even of Jews. It bears the evidence of wild guess and distorted inferences and is mentioned here only for the purpose of distinctly stating that it can not be included in any source for safe information concerning the names of French settlers.

The great bulk of the French immigration was apparently after 1685 when the Edict of Nantes was revoked. Not all the refugees with French names were French, some of them were Swiss, and by no means all came as the result of religious persecution. The Act of 1 May 1691 divides the Alien immigration into three classes:

1. French Protestants who had been compelled to flee to England.
2. The French Protestants whom King Charles II had brought over in 1680 for the encouragement of the manufacture of silk oil and wine.
3. Persons born in Switzerland who of late years had settled in the Province.

The Act of 10 March 1696/7 recites that, "Whereas Prosecution "for Religion hath forced some Aliens and trade and the fertility of this Colony has encouraged others to resort to this Colony" &c.

From all this we are to pick out the names of the first French immigrants viz: of those who came over on the ship Richmond,

The writer for years had an impression that those who came over on the Richmond were those who settled at Orange Quarter in what was subsequently the Parish of St: Denis. The reason for this supposition was that these immigrants were brought out for the very purpose of agricultural pursuits and the production of silk oil and wine; and that Samuel Wilson who wrote "An "Account of the Province of Carolina" published in 1682²⁵ refers to the French settlement viz: "The Countrey hath gently rising ²⁴ Pp. 47 to 52.

²⁵ Carroll's Hist: Coll^{ns} of S. C., vol 2, p. 19.

“Hills of fertile sand proper for Wines and further from the Sea “Rock and gravel, on which very good grapes grow naturally, “ripen well, and together, and very luscious in Taste, insomuch,
 “that the French Protestants who are there and skilled in wine
 “do no way doubt of producing great quantities, and very good”

The French Protestants who “are there” means probably settled there.

A Samuel Wilson—possibly the author of the “Account”—obtained in 1684 a warrant, followed in 1688 by a grant, of 1000 acres on the Cooper River and the Creek afterwards known as French Quarter creek, which grant included what might have been called “a gently rising Hill” viz Ahagan Bluff,²⁶ and this in a loose indefinite way seemed to point to that section as the locality of the French settlement referred to by Wilson in 1682.

Subsequent investigation and a careful comparison of the names of the French settlers in that locality with the names of such as apparently came out on the Richmond has satisfied the writer that this impression of his was erroneous.

It has been shown that Jacob Guérard was with René Petit the petitioners for the transportation of those brought over on the Richmond, and that each Guérard and Petit were to receive a grant for 4000 acres.

On 16 Nov^r 1680 a warrant was issued to lay out to Jacob Guérard 4000 acres.²⁷ On the 18th of the succeeding February (1680/81) another warrant is issued to Jacob Guérard (spelled Garrard) in right of himself and wife for 560 acres due for the arrival of six servants viz Peter Oliver, Solomon Bremmer, Charles Fromagett, John Carrier, Anna Lafelleine, and Mary Fortress.²⁸

On 24 April 1681 a warrant was issued to Peter Jacob Guérard (spelled Gerrard) Isack Guérard, John Guérard, Joseph Guérard, Margaret Guérard, and Elizabeth Guérard for 420 acres.²⁹ there is also a grant 18 Febry 1680 to M^{rs} Margret Petit for 70 acres.³⁰ The record does not show if she had any connection with René Petit. The Richmond appears to have sailed from England about the end of December 1679 or the early part of January 1680. When she arrived in Carolina the writer has not been able to find noted on the record. It may be guessed at sometime in the Spring of 1680 unless she was compelled by stress of weather or other reasons to stop on the way. The letter of the Proprietors to lay out 4000 acres to Jacob Guérard which went by the Richmond was dated 17 Decr 1679 yet the warrant was not issued in Carolina until November 1680 so the vessel arrived sometime between those dates. On 1 November 1683 a warrant for 350 acres is issued to "Monsieur de la plane" (really Abraham Fleury de la Pleine) for himself and four servants arriving in April 1680;²¹ and on 25 February 1683/4 a warrant is issued to "Mouns^r Abraham de la plaine" for 200 acres due to him for the arrival of Lewis, Lucy, Sharto, and Gabriel Te boo (Thibou);²² while on 1 November 1683 a warrant is issued to Lewis Thibou for 210 acres due for himself and two servants arriving in April 1680;²³ and on 25 February 1683/4 a warrant for 210 acres is issued to James Varine for the arrival of himself his wife and son on the 29 April 1680.²⁴

Considering the connection between the names of Guérard and Petit with the immigrants on the Richmond, and the apparent coincidence of the dates of arrival of the other names mentioned with the probable date of arrival of the Richmond, the names mentioned are as close as the writer has been able to get to the probable names of the French Protestant passengers on that vessel. There were 7 Guérards: add Peter Olivier, Solomon Bremar and (according to the St Julien list) his wife Marie, Charles Fromagett, Jean Carriere, Anna Lafelleine and Mary Fortress (Marie Fougeraut?) 7 more making 14. Then Margaret Petit, Abraham Fleury with (according to the St Julien list) his daughter and son in law, and his brother Isaac Fleury, Louis Thibou, his wife (or daughter?) Charlotte (Sharto) and Louis Lucy and Gabrielle his children, Jacques Varin his wife and son 13 more or 27 in all. The same guess might apply to John Calley S^r John Calley J^r Walter Cañon and Edward Musson (Mouzon?) to whom warrants were issued, for the first three on 5 August 1680, and for Musson on 25 April 1681,⁴⁸ if only it could be safely inferred that they were French.

If the inference that these are persons who came on the ship Richmond be plausible then it would seem to dispose of the theory that the Orange Quarter was settled by the persons transported on that ship for not one of these names except that of Solomon Bremar is found as borne by the first French grantees of land in that quarter.

The first French name found by the writer in the vicinity of the Orange Quarter is that of Pierre Fouré. This name does not appear on either the St Julien list nor the Act of 1696: nor has the writer ever found any record of any warrant or grant issued to him. As stated in the account of Pompion Hill plantation published in this Magazine, Vol. XVIII, p. 18, his name is found on the early map of Carolina published in 1715 and his ownership is shown by the certificate of the late Daniel Ravenel that he had seen the grant to him with the transfer from him to Pierre St Julien de Malacare. St Julien was in possession in 1687, for according to the certificate of the Rev: M^r Trouillard, the marriage of his daughter to René Ravenel was in that year celebrated at Pompion Hill. Nicholas de Longuemare and Josias du Pré were present at the wedding as the friends and witnesses of Ravenel. Nicholas de Longuemare on the 5 Jany 1685 (1686) had received a warrant for 100 acres for which he afterwards received a grant near Foure's grant, and Josias du Pré also later received a grant adjacent to de Longuemare. The St: Julien list gives as the French belonging to the Church at the Orange Quarter who desired naturalization:

 Daniel Trezevant and his wife or of that subdivision which contains the list of those at the Orange Quarter states at the foot that there were others whom he had not put down but who had been written down by the Committee, as "M^r. Vidot" and some others. The earliest French name found in the locality was as we have seen Pierre Fouré who transferred to Pierre St Julien prior to 1687. There are a number of grants in the vicinity to others than French settlers both prior and subsequent to that date and the majority of settlers even in the "Quarter" were not French, but the following are the French settlers in order of date of grant that the writer has found on the record.

Many of these persons were in the Province and were residents in the Orange Quarter before the apparent dates of these warrants. They seem to have gone into possession under some authority, leave, or agreement, prior to receiving warrants and grants. These names however constitute so far as the writer has been able to ascertain the names of the French settlers of that locality up to say 1711. They seem all to have settled there posterior to 1685 and if the date of settlement was the date of arrival then they could none have been the immigrants brought over by the Richmond.

The name "Orange Quarter" as applied to the settlement the writer first finds in the heading of one of the sublists of the St Julien list: viz; "Liste des noms des Fransioise qui se recuille "en l'Église du Cartie d'Orange." In the Church Act of 1706 a parish is provided for "in the Orange Quarter for the use of the "French Settlement there which shall be called by the name of "the parish of St: Dennis."

In the additional Act of 1708 it is again referred to in the same language, and in the Act of 1712 provision is made for the support of a "Minister of the parish of St: Dennis for the French settlement in Orange Quarter." By the tax Act of 1715 assessors or "enquirers" are appointed "for the parish of St: Dennis or "Orange Quarter, M^r. Peter Videau, M^r. Josiah Dupree and M^r. "Peter Poitvin."

How it acquired the name "Orange" Quarter the writer has never been able definitely to ascertain.

Howe in his History of the Presbyterian Church in South Carolina published in 1870 states that it has been conjectured that the name was derived from the principality of Orange in the province of Avignon which at the period of the revocation belonged to William Prince of Orange afterwards King of England. He gives no authority for this conjecture. Shipp in his History of Methodism in South Carolina published in 1883 makes the same statement save that he makes it positively and leaves out the conjecture. M^c-Crady in his work published in 1897 follows Howe, quoting him as his authority. It may be remarked that Orange was originally an independent principality and not a part of the County or City of Avignon, which in turn was not a province so called, and that it did not belong to William at the period of the revocation of the Edict of Nantes. He held the title of Prince of Orange but the principality outside of his personal estates had been annexed to the Crown of France. Not a single immigrant in the St: Julien list is entered as from Avignon, Orange, or the adjoining Comtat Venaissin, although two or three are stated as from Languedoc. The French settlers seem to have gone to the Orange Quarter between 1685 and 1696. William when invited over to England in 1688 was generally known as the Prince of Orange and not by the Dutch title of Stadtholder. It may be the section was called the Orange Quarter in compliment to his title. It is as Howe says a mere conjecture.

On Herman Moll's map of 1715 the section is denominated "St: Thomas Parish with y^e French Settlement at Orange Quarter "called St: Denis."

It does not seem to have retained the name Orange Quarter long after 1715. The name "French" Quarter seems to have superseded "Orange" and the creek from Cooper river through this settlement first known by the Indian name of Wisboo, or Wis-boo-e creek, and then as Lynch's creek, acquired the name of French Quarter creek which it still retains. In the mouths of the negro inhabitants of the section it has been now further altered from "French" to "Fresh" Quarter creek. The Orange Quarter roughly speaking covered the area bounded Northwardly by the grants to Cassique John Ashby, Eastwardly by the settlements beyond the headwaters of the creek, Southwardly by the English settlements on the Cooper river and Westwardly by the Eastern Branch of Cooper river. The grants to the French settlers lay thickly around the headwaters of Wisboo Creek.

The number of French settlers on the Eastern Branch of Cooper river i. e. at the Orange Quarter was given by Peter Girard a merchant in Charles Town as 101 in March 1698/9. Allowing five persons to each family (an estimate probably excessive at that date) it would give about twenty families which roughly speaking agrees with the then settlers as inferred from the data to which reference has already been made.

They probably had some church or congregational organization or meeting, for the St Julien sublist is of persons who attend the church in that quarter. That they had a Church edifice erected is not clear. There is on record a will of Caesar Mozé dated 20

June 1687^{} and probated 7 of July 1687, between which dates he must have died. By this will he devised to Nicholas Mayrant with whom he was then living "the plantation in which we are "jointly interested situated on the Eastern Branch of the T of "Cooper river" and bequeathed £37 sterling to the church of the French Protestant "refugees in this country of Carolina to be "used for the construction of a temple or place of assembly for "the said Protestant refugees which shall be built at the place "most conveniently near and in the vicinity of the said plantation "in which the said M^r. Mayrant and myself are interested."

The writer has not been able to locate the plantation on the Eastern Branch of the Cooper river in which according to Mozé Mayrant and himself were jointly interested. He has found neither warrant nor grant to either of them of that date for a tract of land in that locality. The will shows however that no church building had yet been erected and uses the word church "Eglise" in the sense of "congregation" not of edifice. Curiously enough M^r. Thomas Gaillard in the extract from his work published by the Huguenot Society says that the will of Caesar Mozé determines the fact that a congregation of French Protestants was in existence in Charleston in 1687 because he bequeaths to the church of the French Protestant refugees in Charleston! £37, whereas the bequest is plainly to the congregation on the Eastern Branch of Cooper River. So too the committee of that Society in its paper on the French Huguenots of South Carolina (prepared it is believed by the late D^r. Gabriel E. Manigault) referring to the church in the Orange Quarter, says it may be inferred from the bequest of Caesar Mozé that a house of public worship was erected in that quarter about the year 1690 thirteen years before the first Episcopal Church at Pompion Hill. But the will of Caesar Mozé shows only that he made the bequest for a church edifice to be built and the amount of the bequest £37. is hardly evidence that with it alone any sufficient building could be, and of course none that any such actually was, constructed. These forced inferences all proceed from the straining that has swayed sectarian writers and pamphleteers to show that some particular faith or "church" had precedence in its organization and construction on the soil of Carolina. An amusing illustration of this is the "myth" of Michael Loving.

Michael Loving or Lovering was one of several servants brought into the Province by Capt: John Coming in August 1671.³⁷ Two other servants brought over at the same time by Capt: Coming were John Chambers and Philip Orrill.³⁸ These three were on the 4th June 1672 brought by their Mistress M^{rs}. Affera Coming before the Grand Council for disobedience, Philip Orrill in especial having threatened to upset the boat in which she was, with other threats. After trial the Grand Council ordered Orrill to be tied to a tree and to receive 21 lashes on his naked back, and the other two admonished under pain of "condigne punishment" to render more dutiful obedience to the commands of their mistress.³⁹ On the 3^d March 1681/2 a warrant was issued to lay out to Michael Loving a Town lot in Charles Town,⁴⁰ and this was followed by a grant dated 6 March 1681/2 to Michael Lovinge of Town lot N^o 65.⁴¹ Thereafter on 24 Novr 1684 Michael Lovinge conveyed lot N^o 65 to Arthur Middleton, after whose death his widow to whom he had devised the lot and who had intermarried with Ralph Izard conveyed this lot to James Nicholls "for the use of "the Commonality of the French Church in Charles Town."⁴² No church building seems to have been built on this lot for some years for in 1701 the members of the French Huguenot congregation in Charles Town received from the Proprietors the grant of two lots N^{os} 92 and 93 on which to build a church. The warrant for these lots had been issued to J. F. Gignilliat and Stephen Douxsaint "for y^e building of a Church in behalfe of y^e french "Protestants of this Province" as early as 9 Decr 1686 but no grant was issued until 14 Nov^r 1701 when it was issued to Henry Noble and Peter Buretell for the use of the French Protestants and the inference from the language of the grant would seem that they had as yet no church building constructed in Charleston.⁴³

In 1725 someone compiled a list of the lots in Charles Town with the dates of the grants and on the line of lot 65 granted March 6th 1681 to Mich^l Loveing is written in the margin "(fr^{ch}. ch^{ch}), meaning evidently that that was the lot on which the French Church then stood. A complete copy of this list has been published in this Magazine.⁴⁴ The same or some other person seems at about the same time to have made the same annotation of "french church" on the margin of the record of the grant—probably when he examined the record to make his list.

In 1886 there was published in the Charleston Year Book for the year 1885 an account of the Huguenot Church in Charleston the authorship of which has always been attributed to the late Rev. C. S. Vedder the then minister of that church.

In this the guess is made that Michael Loving was probably a French Huguenot whose true name was "Lovell" and that the marginal reference of "french church" on the record of the grant and of "fr^{ch} ch^{ch}" on the margin of the list "seems to compel the conclusion that "it was given for the sacred purpose to which it "appears to have been ever since and is now devoted:" and that it is scarcely possible to doubt that the Huguenot Colonists of Charleston built their first sanctuary early in the year 1681 on the site where the beautiful church of their descendants now stands. The mere historian cannot but infer that no French church could have been built in 1681 on the lot granted to M^r. Comings' disobedient servant and subsequently owned by Arthur Middleton and Ralph Izard both church of England men, and not transferred to the French congregation until 1687, in the face also of the most plausible inference from the record being that no French Huguenot Church Building was constructed in Charleston until after 1701. Nevertheless since D^r. Vedders history of the church his statement has been repeated and referred to as established history until it is now perhaps hopeless to attempt to correct it. The same straining after priority of church organization appears in the account of the New England congregational settlement on Ashley River the historians of which have asserted that the communion celebrated by those settlers in February 1696 at their first services was the first sacrament of the Lord's Supper ever celebrated in Carolina.⁴⁵

⁴⁴ Vol. IX, p. 16.

⁴⁵ S. C. Hist: and Gen: Mag., vol. VI, pp. 66, 69.

The writer has delved for many years in the records of the early settlers of Carolina and gives the following as his conclusion on the question of who "built the first church." He admits this suggestion is worth only so much as its merit, and logical probability will justify, and admits further that any day some more careful investigator may unearth some buried record that will put his theory to flight.

When the first settlers came they were more concerned with the affairs of protection from the elements and nourishment for the body, than with the construction of church buildings. Their first religious meetings (in good weather at least) were probably in the open, under the shelter of some umbrageous oak as was the case at old Dorchester.⁴⁸ As soon as they had roofs to shelter them their religious meetings were probably at their homes, at different houses in succession.

The English were the first settlers. They had most people and most money and more than that they had the reins of government and the power of taxation. Every plan of a contemplated town had a place designated for the building of a church meaning thereby a church of the church of England. Culpepers plan of old Charles Town or Albemarle Point designates a place for such a church and apparently one was built there probably a humble structure of logs in the true original colonial style. At Oyster Point, new Charles Town, an early church of St. Philip was built where St. Michael now stands. The others, "sects" or "faiths" followed the same course. Huguenots, Congregationalists, Baptists, Quakers, as soon as they became numerous enough to need, and wealthy enough to build, a church building for use, instead of using the houses of the members, they did so. Guessing in the dark the writer would say the Congregationalists followed close after the Church of England, then the Huguenots, then the Baptists and then the Quakers.

So it was with the French settlers at Orange Quarter. They probably held services at one of the dwellings of the members of the congregation; perhaps at different dwellings in turn.

The only notice of the church at Orange Quarter at all contemporaneous, the writer has found, is that given by D^r. Humphrey in his account of the Missionaries sent to South Carolina by the ⁴⁸ Hist. and Gen. Mag. of S. C., vol. VI, p. 69.

Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts published in 1730.⁴⁷

He states that at the time of the division of the country into parishes (i.e. 1706) the Orange Quarter was part of St. Thomas' Parish. That the major part of the French settlement usually met together in a small church of their own where they generally made a full congregation when they had a French Minister amongst them: that they made application to the Assembly of the Province to be made into a parish and to have some public allowance for a minister, episcopally ordained, who should use the liturgy of the Church of England and preach to them in French. Accordingly they were incorporated by the name of the Parish of St. Denis. That they have now a good church built about the same time as the Parish Church of St. Thomas.

This petition to the Assembly was probably made about 1706 when the Parish of St. Denis was created. When the small church referred to by D^r. Humphrey was built is not stated. As the only Minister they had had at that time was M^r. Le Pierre who seems to have been "episcopally ordained" it is possible this small church was built for the use of the French congregation about the same time as the Chapel at Pompion Hill say 1703. The Parish Church of St. Thomas was commenced in 1707 and finished in 1708. About the same time a new church building was constructed for the French speaking members of the parish. The service was according to the liturgy of the English church, the prayer book used being a French translation of the Book of Common Prayers and the Minister being one "episcopally ordained." This continued until 1768 when there being no longer any occasion for a separate French service the use of the church was discontinued. The church building was probably of wood. At any rate it has so completely disappeared physically and traditionally that it was only with great difficulty and after long research that its approximate site could be located where it is indicated on the map of the plantation in St. Thomas on the Eastern Branch of the Cooper River published in the January 1917 number of this Magazine.

Why this parish was given the name of St. Denis is matter of conjecture. Howe states that the name was supposed to commemorate the battle field of St. Denis in the vicinity of Paris which was the scene of a memorable encounter in 1567 between the Catholic forces commanded by Montmorency and the Huguenots led by Admiral Coligny and the Prince of Condé, in which Montmorency was slain. His conjecture is again repeated by Shipp and McCrady but it is scarcely plausible. The encounter at St. Denis was really only a small incident which terminated to the disadvantage of the Huguenots although Montmorency received the wound of which he died.

If they had desired to record a victory for their arms they would most naturally have turned to the battle of Ivry.

The Presbyterians and French Huguenots do not seem to have given the names of Saints to their churches. The name of St. Denis was probably conferred by the Church of England Assembly to whom the application had been made and who created the Parish. The patron Saint of France was St. Denis and in giving a Saint's name to a French parish it was not unnatural to select his name. It is a case however of pure conjecture.

The number of French settlers in the Parish of St. Thomas including St. Denis as a whole was much less than the number of English settlers. The list of early grantees shows a great preponderance of English, the latter being well sandwiched in, even on the waters of the French Quarter Creek. In fact the entire French settlement in South Carolina bore numerically a very small proportion to the entire population. They settled to any extent in but four places outside of Charles Town. A very small settlement at the head of Goose Creek; a small settlement on and near Biggon Swamp in St. John's Berkley; the settlement at Orange Quarter, another settlement on the Santee in the neighborhood of French Jamestown. The entire number of French persons in the Province in March 1698-1699 as given by Peter Girard a merchant in Charles Town and himself a French immigrant was 438.⁴⁸ The entire white population at the same period is estimated at 5500.⁴⁹ Not an estimate based on any satisfactory data. If correct however the French settlers then formed less than ten per cent of the total white population. After that date the French accessions were apparently proportionately few while the flood of English immigration flowed on increasingly. The parts of the country occupied by the French were substantially limited to a part of St. James Santee—that part known as French Santee—a small part of the Parish of St. Thomas a very small settlement on St. James Goose Creek and a small settlement in St. John's Berkley, and their occupation as a rule continued to be restricted to those localities although a few individuals went elsewhere in the other parishes. The other low country parishes covering the great bulk of the low country viz. All Saints on Waccamaw, Prince Fredericks, Prince George's, St. Stephens, Christ Church, St. James Goose Creek, St. George Dorchester, St. Andrews, St. John's Colleton, St. Pauls, St. Bartholomew, and all of Beaufort (then Granville) County were almost exclusively English with also the larger portion of St. James Santee, St. Johns Berkley and St. Thomas. Allowing for all subsequent intermarriages and female descents it would seem impossible to estimate the French element in the population of the sea coast counties of South Carolina at more than one or two per cent of the whole. This necessarily is very largely conjectural. In the remainder of the state say in two thirds of its area the French element is practically nil. The small settlement at New Bordeaux in Abbeville County being too small to be noticeable. So far as the settlement at the Orange Quarter is concerned it has disappeared: the writer knows of not a single tract of land now held there by any one having a French name.

The small holdings of the first French settlers at Orange Quarter proper, were comparatively soon absorbed in the larger estates but even as regards the large tracts along the Eastern Branch of the Cooper River and adjacent thereto which were held by the Hugers, the Manigaults, the Bonneaus, the Lesesnes, the Laurens, but one small plantation, Campvere, is now owned by the bearer of a French name or even a descendant of the former owners, unless M^r. Elias Cumbee the present owner of the North Hampton plantation be a descendant of Philip Combé one of the French settlers. They retained their "grip" so to say along the Eastern Branch of Cooper River until the war of 1860-1865 but that cataclysm was as destructive in its results in St. Thomas and on the Eastern Branch of Cooper as elsewhere in the low country and perhaps from several causes more completely so.

Cheraws Jan'y 24. 1781.⁽¹⁾

Gent.—

Inclosed, you'll receive an Acco^s of the late Action, between Col. Tarlton & the brave Gen^l. Morgan, in which, the former was totally defeated—The Gen^l. will send a more circumstantial one, & the Bearer, Major Giles,² who was in the engagem^t., will give you any particulars, which I may, in Haste, have omitted—I hope this fortunate Affair will produce some good Effects, but, our Friends must not be too sanguine, & conclude that We have, now, no Need of Assistance—Certainly this is a very handsome Check, but, nothing decisive—we have still many to fight, & great difficulties to encounter—This Country must be recovered, (if ever it is regained) Inch by Inch—The Enemy's pride will prevent their yeilding it, in any other Manner—Their Interest w^d. also hinder them, for they have experienced, & know full well, its value—I am persuaded, that Lord Cornwallis will, immediately, call hither, the Troops which are in Virginia³ but, what Succour We may have, from that State, to oppose them, is uncertain—probably very trifling— I am convinced, that the Enemy will not abandon the Country, & retreat to Charles-Town, untill it is, or about to be, besieged—nor, will they quit the Town, untill they can hold it no longer⁴—they are building a large, strong, Fort, at Hampstead, 2 Redoubts, one on each Side of the main Road, to be commanded by the Fort, & a Fort on Hangman's Point—To give the finishing Stroke to the Business, We must have considerable Support, both naval & military, from our Ally—Pray use your utmost Influence & Endeavours to obtain it speedily—why do the French Fleet & Army remain at Rhode Island? What is become of the second Division? I wish a Minister had been sent to France, last November or October—I can^t. account for such Cond^e. & delays— & fear much, that this Year will pass away as the last did, with^t. any Thing of Consequence being done by us— I rec^d. on Saturday last, your Letters of Dec^r. 20 & 24th. & observe what you mention, ab^t. a Proclamation, but, I w^d. have any which it might be proper to issue, carried into Effect, & the Time for so doing is not yet quite arrived—you will receive, by this opportunity, Copies of the Letters which have passed between Gen^l. Green & Lord Cornwallis—I can^t. see any material difference between the Letter which We charged him with writing to Balfour⁵, & what he acknowledges writing to Cruger—& if his Copy is genuine, the differences between that & our Copy are probably only clerical Errors, without design, for they certainly do not vary the Sense—I think his Lordship avows sufficient to establish his Character to be very different from what Sir H. Clinton declares it to be—However, pray have the Letters published, by order of Congress—his Lordship's Letters to Smallwood⁶ & Gen^l. Green are so open to Comments, that, without doubt, they will not escape many striking ones—I wish you w^d. send on Cloathing for the Troops now here as soon as possible,—& a Quantity of spare cloaths, w^{ch}. would, perhaps, procure Recruits—it is useless

Gen^l. Line are on their March to the Southw^d.—w^d. to God they were now here—The Face of affairs w^d. soon change—I wish they may not come too late—The Legislature of this State did not meet, till ab^t. the 26th. ult^o.—They are preparing a Bill to raise their quota of Continental Troops, for 20 Months, by draught, (if necessary,) ab^t. the Middle of March—such a Meas^o. sh^d. have been adopted last Sep^r.—ab^t. a Fortnight ago, Col. ⁹ William Lee Davidson of North Carolina, Brigadier General January 9, 1779; killed at Cowan's Ford February 1, 1781, resisting the passage of Cornwallis' Army. It is maintained in North Carolina that it was not the rising of the Catawba but the skillful distribution of Davidson's forces which delayed the crossing of his Lordship (Schenk's North Carolina, p. 240).

¹⁰ Fortunately the Battle of Guilford Court House in North Carolina, March 15, 1781, although a technical defeat of General Greene by Cornwallis, resulted in the latter's retreat and the return of General Greene to South Carolina with most favorable results. Rutledge's well founded confidence in General Greene, expressed here, remained to the end, and General Greene reciprocated it, expressing the highest opinion of him.

Gent.—

Since my last to you from Hillsbor^o. I have rec^d. several of your favours, but will say nothing, on the subject of 'em, at present, as I purpose to set off, the day after To Morrow,¹¹ for Philad^o. having made the necessary military Arrangem^{ts}. for S^o. Carolina, not seeing the prospect of getting into that Country, being unable in the present Circumstances of affairs to render any service to it, by staying here, &, the Gen^l. thinking I may, perhaps by going Northwardly, I have determined to comply wth. his Wishes—& shall be happy if I can effect them—But, my Journey will be very tedious, for I must supply myself, with some Horses on the Road, (my own being worn down) & I shall call on the Governors of N^o. Carolina, Virginia, & Maryland, in my way, to represent the Situation of Matters, wth. I believe is very differ^t. from what People think 'em—However, I am persuaded, that if Congress & France are disposed to extricate the Southern States, from their present distress, they soon may—I hope to find such a disposition—our Army recrossed the Dan this day Fortnight, & have been sv^l. days, & now are, within twelve Miles of Cornwallis's, but we ¹¹ This was the second visit of the Governor to the North. He was there after the fall of Charleston and the destruction of Buford's force on May 29, 1780. He returned and was in North Carolina certainly just after the defeat of Gates. The letter shows that the second visit of the Governor to Philadelphia was in consequence of the wish of General Greene, although the letter quoted by General McCrady (Vol. 1780-83, p. 139) from the Governor to Sumter does not mention this as one of the reasons for his visit.

This will be delivered by Col^o. ¹⁴ Governor Rutledge had left Greene's Army in March, 1781, on his second trip to Philadelphia and set out on his return to South Carolina June 28, 1781. After an illness in July he arrived at Greene's headquarters shortly before the date of this letter. During his absence the Battle of Guilford Court House had been fought, the Battle of Hobkirk Hill with Rawdon April 25, 1781, and no enemy's posts remained North of Orangeburg. The time had arrived to restore civil government and the Governor was actively entering upon this work.

Mrs. Motte's Congaree Sep. 9. 1781

Gent.—

As reports will, probably, give you before, or about, the Time, this may get to Hand, a confused, &, perhaps, a false, Account of the Battle which was fought, yesterday, at Eutaw, between Gen^l Greene, & the British Army, under Col^o Stuart, to prevent an undue Impression from these reports, &, as, without Doubt, Congress will be desirous to have the best, & Earliest Intelligence of this Glorious Victory, I think proper to give you what Information We have of it, but, you'll be pleased to observe, that I do so, merely, for the Satisfaction of Congress, yourselves, & our Friends, & therefore you will take Care that it be not printed, or published—this I must insist on, because, you will shortly receive an authentick official Acc^t of the Affair.

No. 1 is a Copy of the Generals Letter which I rec^d this Afternoon: Col^o Otho Williams, in a Letter dated at Burdells, this day at Noon, says, “Lee’s, Marion’s, & Maham’s, Horse are, manouvers about the Enemy, who, have drawn into their Post, at Eutaw, a strong Picket, which had been advanced a Mile from it” The action began Early yesterday Morn^e & lasted about 2 Hours & a half—the Militia, under Marion, & Pickens fired 17 Rounds p Man.

No. 2 is such a list as We have obtained of the killed & Wounded, but, I believe there are some Names to be added to it—I don^t hear of the Enemy’s having taken any other Prisoner than Col^o Washington—whose Corps charged, thrice, thro’ their Infantry, whilst unbroken—all Washingtons officers were wounded, except Cap^t Parsons—all our wounded are brought off—260 of the Pris^{es} have just passed this Way, & are sent over McCords Ferry—the rest are so badly Wounded, that they must come on, slowly—The force was pretty nearly equal, on both sides—If any Superiority the Enemy had it—A British Officer, Prisoner, tells me, they had 2000—all Regulars—a considerable part of ours were Militia—ab^t 180 of them No. Carolinians, under Col^o Malmady,¹⁵ 360 under Marion, 280 under Pickens, & ab^t 200 State Troops (in the Action) under Col^o Henderson,¹⁶ who commanded them in the Illness & Absence of Gen^l Sumpter—our Men, it is true have suffer’d, amazingly, but that must have been expected in such a Conflict, However, they are in the highest Spirits, & ready for another Action—I am in hopes the Gen^l will be able, if he can draw the Enemy out of their strong Hold (the large Brick House at Eutaw w^{ch} they certainly can’t occupy long) to follow up, & improve this Victory, & give the finishing Stroke to their possessing ¹⁵ Col. Francis Malmady (Marquis de), a French officer of the Continental Army commanding for the time North Carolina Militia.

¹⁶ Col. William Henderson, a gallant and capable officer; Major of the Rifle Regiment captured at the surrender of Charleston; exchanged at the time of the general exchange of prisoners in August, 1781 and afterwards in command of Sumter’s Brigade of state troops during the latter’s illness; afterwards appointed Brigadier General.

the Country, by destroying the remains of their Army, at Eutaw, who must be exceedingly dispirited—at any rate, however, if they sh^d be so fortunate as to get off, by a rapid Moon Light March they must commit their numerous wounded, to his Mercy—you will hear from the General, as soon as he has closed the Scene with Mr. Stuart—in the mean Time, this may serve the purpose above ment^d—I am Gent

P.S.

Mond. Morn^g 8 o'Clock—I've just seen a Man who left the ground on which the Battle was fought, at 3 P.M., Yesterday—He says the Enemy's dead & wounded were then on the Field & that our Horse were close to it—I don't know how far, however, this may be Fact—

The Delegates of S^o Carolina in Congress

Dear Sir—

We have had a most Obstinate and Bloody action—Victory was ours—We drove the Enemy, more than four Miles—We took between three and four hundred prisoners, and had it not been, for the large Brick-Building at the Eutaw Spring, and the peculiar kind of Brush that surrounds it, we should have taken the whole Army prisoners—Nothing could exceed the Bravery of the Maryland & Virginia Troops—the North Carolinians behaved as well as could be expected from Young Soldiers. The Militia under Marion, Pickens, & Malmedy, did honor to this class of Soldiers—Washington, Lee, & Henderson with the State Troops exhibited instances of Heroism—Our loss is considerable, but, the Enemy's is great, not less than five or six hundred, killed and Wounded—The want of Cartridges and the strength of the Enemy's position prevented me from attempting to push our advantage farther—We are now sending off our wounded, and taking Measures to oblige the Enemy to leave their position, or surrender in it—Washington had his horse killed, under him, and, being among the Enemy, was taken prisoner—

most respectfully Yours,

N: Greene

My peculiar Situation, and the manner in which I write, will Apologize for not giving you a more particular Acco^t

The Delegates of S^o Carolina

¹⁷ It will be seen from these accounts of the Battle of Eutaw that there were three classes of troops taking part in it, the Continentals, the Militia and the so-called "State Troops." The last were enlisted for eight months under a scheme devised by Sumter often known as "Sumter's Law," under which they were paid in negroes belonging to Tories and captured by the American forces. The State Courts never approved of this so-called law, but the publication of the Historical Commission of South Carolina edited by A. S. Salley, Jr., entitled "Documents relating to the History of South Carolina during the Revolutionary War" gives a number of claims filed in behalf of members of the regiments so enlisted based upon negroes due to them which had not been received.

Mr. Dawsons, Wateree Sep. 18th. 1781

Gent:—

On the 13th. Ins^t. I rec^d. your Letter, of the 4th ult^o, by Col. Scott—I am glad to hear that the loan (the repayment of which Congress guaranteed,) for the Benefit of the poor S^o. Carolina Refugees,¹ was speedily obtained, & in Philad^a.—But I think, it w^d be well to recommend to many of them, to go to Fred^k., or Hagars' Town, in Maryland—they may live there, at an 8th. of the Expense they do in Philad^a.—House Rent, in particular, being very high in that City—However, I hope, from our Acco^{ts}. of the French W. India Fleet, & 6000 Land Forces, being arrived, in Chesapeake We shall, soon, restore our friends, to their possessions in C. Town for, New York must fall, if our Allies will but remain long enough before it, (& they can^t. have a more important ¹ Under an order published June 27th, 1781 by Col. Balfour commanding at Charleston, the families of absent Whigs were directed to “quit the town” by August 1st. They were assisted by the loan referred to in this letter (McCrary 1780–1783, page 375). They were said to number 670 men, women and children, and 71 servants. The loan was never subscribed or paid in full; but was of great assistance to the exiles.

Object)²—Our Capital must be the next, for their co-operation—
 In the mean time, however, it w^d. be well to block up that Harbour,³ & prevent any Navy from getting into or coming out of it—We will do our best to hinder the Garrison's getting Supplies from the Country—& surely, from such a considerable Fleet, a Number of Vessels, sufficient for that purpose, may be spared, with⁴. Injury to the Northern operations—you will not fail to use your best endeavours to effect this Measure—pray send the Great Seal to me by the first safe Conveyance—

By this Express, Congress will receive, from Gen^l. Greene, an official Acco^t. of Marions late Enterprise,⁴ to the Southward, & of the Victory at Eutaw—It is therefore unnecessary for me to say any thing on these Points—I sent to Col^o. Harden, for, &, a few days, ago rec^d., Copies of the several Letters, & a Memd^m. of the Messages, which passed between Col^o. Hayne, during the Time of his Confine^{mt}., & Lord Rawden & Balfour; The Col^o. Son having bro^t. them out—on rec^t. of 'em, I drew up a State of the Case, wth. I sent to Gen^l. Greene, who will transmit it, by this Convey^o, to Congress, together with Balfour's Answer to the Generals Letter, on that Subject—the Excn' of Hayne⁵ had the Effect wth the Enemy foresaw, & expected, from that unparalleled piece of Cruelty—&, indeed, a much greater Effect than you can conceive, for, a great many Protection Men, who had joined Harden, thereupon deserted him & again submitted themselves,

² See the letter of Governor Edward Rutledge to Washington just after his release from St. Augustine (this magazine, vol. 17, page 4), urging the employment of the French forces, after the fall of Cornwallis, in the recovery of Charles Town.

³ The "blocking up" of Charleston harbor with hulks loaded with stone was tried during the Confederate War by the Federal Government, but without success.

⁴ This referred to an expedition of Marion across the Santee to the aid of Col. Harden then in dire distress. It was effected with great skill and boldness. Major Fraser was ambuscaded near Parker's Ferry on the Edisto and forced to retreat until his reinforcements came up (McCrary, 1780-1783, page 439).

⁵ The execution of Col. Isaac Hayne, under orders from Balfour and Lord Rawdon on August 4th, 1781, was a warning to the Whigs that any step however cruel would be taken to prevent the resumption of hostilities by those who had taken British protection. As a matter of fact, retaliation, though threatened by Greene, was never carried out.

to the British Government & Mercy, so that, when Marion went last, to the Southward, Harden had not 50 Men, in Arms, & had it not been, for Marions Appearance in that Quarter, & his Support & Countenance, at such a critical Period, Hardens Force w^d. have been reduced much lower—Happily, his putting Fraser to flight, has given the Southward-Militia fresh Spirits—& Gen^l. Greene's well timed Proclamation, & spirited Determination, in Consequence of Hayne's Death, has removed the Apprehensions of our Militia, (most of whom had taken Protection, especially those in the lower parts of the Country,) of suffering in like Manner, if taken Prisoners—This Measure, & the steps taken with our Militia, will, I hope, soon get a respectable Number into the Field—I have struck off the three Southw^d. Reg^{ts}. from Pickens' Brigade, intending to throw them into one, for Harden or Barnwell,⁶ who is daily expected, & have brigaded the several other Regiments in more satisfactory & proper divisions, than they were—furnished the Brig^{ad} wth. Extracts from such parts of our laws as are material for their Gov^t. or Inform^{rs}. ordered 'em to be carried strictly into Excn'—the several Reg^{ts}. to be, immediately fully officered, with the fittest Men in them—muster^d—reviewed—& classed & drill^d. & 1 3^d marched, directly to Headquarters—

I have also ordered the Fines to be collected, in Specie, those w^{ch}. may be laid under the Acct of 1778, at the same Value, in Specie, as Paper Money, & those w^{ch}. may be imposed, under the Act of 1779, at the depreciations, or comparative Value of Specie, with Currency according to the Rates, acknowledged by the Legislature, who, in 1776, when Specie & Paper Money were of equal Value, established a Militia Man's pay at ten s. pr day, continued the same in 1778, (so that it may be presumed there was then no depreciation, at least there was no Legislative acknowledgement of any,) but, in 1779, raised it to 32 s pr day—thus for a Fine, under the last law, Offenders must pay £150 in Specie, instead of, (w^{ch} the Law mentions) £500 Curry' or go into Cont^l. Service.

The General informed me, when We parted a few days ago. (he being gone to the High Hills of Santee, & I shall not see him till after this Express is gone, tho', I am on my Way thither, but am obliged by Sickness, to travel very slowly, & to go round by Camden, as I can't cross the Swamp here,) that he w^d. send his proclamation respecting Hayne, to Congress, for their Opinion— We have no Officer, of equal Rank, a Prisoner, & it is not improbable, that the Gen^l. may hear, from Congress, on this Head, before We get such an one, & our not having one, & the Militia's absolute Reliance, on the Gen^l. Engagement to retaliate, are the only causes of keeping 'em, satisfied—if such an officer was, in, or sh^d. fall into, our Hands, the People w^d. be clamorous, for his Execution, & hanged he must be—I hope there will be no difficulty, or doubt, with any member of Congress, ab^t. approving the General's Proclamation, & of his having executed an Officer, for Hayne, if he shall have done so, before he hears from Congress, & if he should not, of directing him to do so, & to retaliate, in every other Instance, as he has threat^d.—With you I am sure there can be no Hesitation—I desire that you will use your utmost Efforts, to bring all the other Members into the same Sentiments, & obtain such a Resolve—Be assured, if it is not passed, the worst Consequences will ensue—The General will be grossly affronted—the Officers of the Continental Troops all of whom presented an Address to the Gen^l, (on this Matter) which will ever do them great Honour will be digusted—The Enemy will reproach us, & very justly, wth. Timidity, as they often have done, on good Ground, & our Militia will be dispirited, & fall off—Indeed you cannot suppose, if the British offer 'em Pardon, for having joined us, (wch. they do, if they will quit us,) that they will adhere to our Cause, if We refuse to support 'em, by Retaliation, for any Injury they may receive, by so doing—The Gen^l. expects to be supported in this Measure, & He certainly ought to be—I cannot therefore avoid repeating my earnest Desire, & Expectation, that you will, immediately, obtain the fullest Approbation of his Conduct, on this Point, & send the Resolve by a special & trusted Express, as soon as possible—

I think it w^d. be wise & politick, in the several States, who are intitled to any of the Lands which the Vermonters wish for, to cede them that they might be formed into, or established as, a separate State, but, I cannot believe that the Articles of confederation, (w^{ch}. I have not here) give Congress any Right, (& unless they do, Congress, certainly have it not,) to erect an Independent State out of parts of the undoubted Territories of other States.⁷—It is a bad Precedent, which may affect the Peace of our present Governments, at some future day, & it is a Measure, w^{ch}. Congress, I think w^d. not hastily give into, from Motives of temporary Convenience, & short duration—The probability of reducing N. York, will, however, I presume occasion the Application to be rejected if not already granted—you will be pleased to attend to my Instructions, respecting Gillon, if fortunately he sh^d. arrive, & to my several former Requisitions, particularly the giving me the speediest Intelligence, of every material Occurrence—I have been very prolix, & on some Matters rather fitter for a private Correspondent, to friends, than a publick or official Letter—However, I thought it w^d. be satisfactory to you, & our other Carolinians, at Phil: to know every Thing of any Consequence, We are ab^t. here.

I am wth. great Regard

Gent. yr. most Obed. Ser^t.

J: Rutledge

P.S. I have appointed an ordinary for each of the Districts in this State, (C. Town included), suspended the Tender^s Law & prohibited all Suits in the Court of Common Pleas, or before a Magistrate, under the Act for trial of small & mean Causes till 10 days after the next Sitting of the General Assembly.

High hills of Santee.

Oct^r 4th. 1781.

Gentlemen.

I received by Mr. Wilkinson, the day before yesterday, your letters, of the 14th of August and of the 4th Ult^o.—In consequence of what you mention, in the last, I have made, & you will receive herewith, a new appointment of Delegates: that matter had not escaped my attention, but, I did not conceive it necessary, within, a year after the Confederation was finally ratified—I am glad to hear of Col^o. John Laurens's Success⁹—it will convince many of what I have often said to you, that our not having rec^d. more powerful Support & effectual Aid, from France, is to be attributed solely, to the want of proper application for it—I think it next to an impossibility, that the combined Forces in Virginia should fail in their Attempt on Cornwallis, &, if Charles-Town, should, as it ought, & I hope will, be, their next object, a short time will restore tranquillity to the southern States, &, in all probability honorable terms of Peace be speedily offered by Great Britain—

⁷ This question afterwards came up repeatedly in the Continental Congress after Rutledge was elected a member in 1782, and he always took the position which is taken in this letter. In the Constitutional Convention he opposed a State being divided except with its own consent (Madison Papers, page 1461).

⁸ It will be seen from this letter what extensive powers were exercised by Governor Rutledge during the period when the whole Government of the State was centered in him.

Several Persons are now employed in procuring Indigo,¹⁰ on public account, (but keep this matter to yourselves)—it is impossible, as yet, to tell, with any degree of certainty, what Quantity will be obtained—

I have hitherto postponed a call of the Legislature, for the reasons heretofore mentioned to you, and, shall do so, until the arrival of the Council—when I know, (which I shall from them,) within what time Gentlemen who were members of the last House may be expected here, the expediency of an Election may be better judged of, than at present—But if the Forces now in Virginia should come against Charles-Town, it is most likely that the first meeting of an Assembly will be held there—I wish, much, however, to have the earliest Intimation, (& therefore I repeat the requests contained in my former Letters, that you will not fail to transmit to me by the speediest conveyance, what Intelligence you may Receive,) respecting the meeting of the proposed Congress in Europe, the result of their deliberation, or, if they should actually meet, what it is supposed that result will be—

¹⁰ In the desperate need for money then existing in South Carolina, this plan of Governor Rutledge to obtain Indigo in South Carolina and ship it by wagons to Philadelphia seems to have met with great success. It was one of the results of his second visit to Philadelphia.

Commodore Gillon, in his Letter of the 28th April, forwarded in your last, desires that my Orders for him might be sent to Philadelphia, as He should not, on his arrival in America, take any steps without them, but, really, He has made such a strange disposition of his Cargo, by giving up to Col^o Laurens, at the first cost, two thirds of it, to be chosen by him, and obliging himself to reland the bulky Articles of naval Supplies, in order to afford as much freight as possible, and that free, for what Mr. Laurens should chuse to Ship, on continental account, that I expect He, (Gillon,) will bring a very inconsiderable Cargo—for, I presume, He will dispose of the naval Supplies, & that, tho' they would have yielded the greatest profit in America, they will not, in his situation, fetch, in Holland, what they first cost—That money I dare say will be all expended before He sails, &, I should not be surprized, if the pittance of the Cargo then remaining should be broke in upon, for raising a further sum—I shall therefore, give no Orders, until I know that He does really bring—I hope, however, that the Vessel will not, on her arrival, be kept in port, an hour longer than may be necessary to fit her for such a Cruize, as, if successful, may compensate for what is past.

Nothing material has happened, between Us and the Enemy, since the battle of Eutaw—their main body is, at present, in S^t. Stephens Parish, at & about Murray's Ferry, & our Army is at this place.

I enclose for your information, a Copy of a Proclamation which I Have lately issued.

Gent—

I wrote to you, some Time ago, by one Robert Patterson, relative to a Schooner of his—I am now credibly informed, & verily believe, that he was not only an Addresser, (which he absolutely denied, alledging that another Man in C. Town, of the same name, was the person who subscribed the Address,) but that he was

King's Pilot in Geo: Town, & is a very great Scoundrel—Had I known these Circumstances, before he went away, I sh^d. have put him into Goal, & applied his property, to the publick Use—but I gave so much Credit, to what he alledged, (& it really appeared reasonable, or, at least, very plausible,) that I suffer'd him to pass, believing him innocent—From what I then thought great Caution, I w^d. not give him Bills for the vessell, untill I c^d. made Inquiry respecting him—I had no doubt, however, in my own Mind that he w^d. prove, as he professed himself, innocent—It seems he is otherwise—I give you this Intimation, that you need not expect any such Bills, as I men^{td}., in that letter, I w^d. draw upon the Contingency therein stated & with a further View, that you sh^d., if you can, get him put into Goal, & his Property taken for the Benefit of this State—if this can be done, you will make the necessary Application, & take the proper Steps for that purpose—I am Gent,

P.S. Ab^t. 20th. our Types will not answer for a News Paper—which wd. be of great Service—they are mush too large, as you will see, by the inclosed Specimen—the press has been of great Use in printing Proclamations, Commissions, & Hand Bills—But, still, We sh^d. have a News-Paper¹¹—We want however nothing but Type—the Press w^{ch}. we have w^d. print half a Sheet on both Sides, & upon occasion (by taking up & re-setting the Types wch. w^d. be only double Trouble) a whole, or 4 pages—therefore, We need not be at any add^l. Expense for any Thing but Types—I request therefore, that you will, immediately, procure Types sufficient & proper, for the purpose above ment^d. & send 'em on as soon as possible—If we determine on calling an Assembly I shall (as soon as the Matter is fixed,) direct M^r. Parker to bring on the publick papers which are in Maryland & he may bring the Types—But, the calling and Assembly may not perhaps take place very soon—therefore, don't delay the Matter on that Acco^l., but, procure the Types, immediately, (not too small, & of the sev^l. different proper Sizes,—wth. you can easily know from any Printer) & send them on, by the first good opportunity wth. offers, (if any sh^d.) before M^r. Parker comes—nothing new worth mentioning I expect M^r. Gadsden & his Company in a day or two.—

¹¹ This printing press when fully equipped was of great use in restoring civil Government to South Carolina. It is sometimes stated that General Greene had also a printing press, but there seems to be no foundation for this statement.

Gent.—

No opportunity, from hence to Philad^a., has offer'd, for a long Time—Since my last, I have rec^d. your favour of the 28th. Sep^r.—Cornwallis's Surrender is a very important Affair, but, I am exceedingly chagrined, & much disappointed, to find, that the French Fleet is not to proceed agst. Cha^s. Town—& that there is no prospect of any Attack on that place—I fear Clinton will soon reinforce Leslie, (who lately arrived there, but without Troops,) & wish the Aid ordered hither from Virginia maybe sufficient to enable us to keep the greater part of the Country—

I have issued Writs for Electing Members of the Legislature, on the 17th. & 18th. days of December, to meet at Camden,¹² on the 8th. Jany.

It appears absolutely necessary, that one of you Gent. sh^d. be here, by the Time the Assembly is to meet, & I hope you will, on rec^t. hereof, agree which of you shall come & that he will set out, immediately afterwards—I expect the Legislature will meet punctually, & do not imagine they will sit long, as I suppose they will only take up the most urgent Business—your Letter of the 28th. Sep^r. alarms some Gent. of the Council very much—a personal explanation is much wished for—For many purposes, the presence of one of our delegates,¹³ as soon as the House meets, is absolutely necessary—

A Quantity of Indigo is now on the Way to Philad^a., on publick Account, & probably, will arrive there, ab^t. the Time this gets to Hand, or soon afterw^{da}—a few Days ago I wrt these Questions

¹² The meeting did not take place till January 18th at Jacksonborough.

¹³ The delegate who came on to attend the meeting of the Legislature was John Mathews, who was elected Governor, after General Christopher Gadsden had declined to serve.

to the Lieu^t. Gov^r. & Council, for their Advice viz^t. "1st. "To what Ammo^t. shall be paid out of the Proceeds of this Indigo, to our Friends, who have been sent to Philad^a.? To whom, or under what descriptions particularly—& under whose Direction?— 2 dly. whether any & what Sums shall be paid to our Delegates?"— Their opinions were "That the Assistance be extended only to "such as will come forward—that any Sum not exceeding two "hundred Silver Dollars be lent, on the State's Acco^t. to equip "such as declare, upon honour, they intend immediately to come forward." & that this matter be under the "Direction of our Delegates"—"That our Delegates continue to receive, not exceeding 200 Dollars pr. Month, from Congress, so long as that Allowance is made them, but, should Congress refuse that Assistance, "then that they be allowed a Sum not exceeding 500 Dollars, "each, out of the Proceeds of the Indigo, which Sums, the distressed Situation of our State makes it absolutely necessary "that they be as economical of, as possible, letting the State "know, in Time, before it is all expended, that they may have a "fresh Supply sent, before wanted"—I have therefore desired Mr. Ross, to whom the Indigo is addressed, to pay a Sum not exceeding 200 Dollars, to each of our Inhabitants, now at Phil^a., who really proposes coming on hither, immediately, & may have Occasion for Money, in whose favour you draw on him—& that such persons may set off as soon as possible, I have desired Mr. Ross, to advance for this purpose, what money Mrs. Rutledge may not want, at present out of what may arise from Sale of some Indigo which I have sent to Philad^a, for the Support of my Family—I have also directed him, to pay to each of our Delegates, who may apply to him for it, 500 Dollars—So that, if Congress sh^d. refuse to continue the present Allowance, you may obtain the sum above-ment^d. from M^r. Ross—The Publick is intitled, by contract, to bring back 1000 W^h., in each of the 19 Waggons, which are gone, with Indigo, to Phil^a.—I have desired M^r. Ross, to load 'em, with Sugar, & Coffee, & an Assortment of the most useful and necessary Medicines, after taking in what you may desire to send—We are in great want of Arms & Ammunition, for our Militia—I therefore request, that you will use your best Endeavours to obtain, from the Continental Magazine, on Acc^t. of the State, & expressly for its Use, & subject to the order & disposition of the Executive (to be used by the Militia) a good Supply of Muskets, with Bayonets, & of Musket Powder & Lead—I have frequently mentioned to you, how destitute We are of these Articles—& how impossible it is to procure them here—of 190 men, of Pickens's Brigade, now at Congaree, there are not above 50 with Arms—The Brigadiers are continually crying out to me, for Arms & Ammunition—They are often without a single round pr Man—Some Times, indeed, We can get a little from the Continental Stock here, but, often, not a Grain, that being, in general, very scanty—you'll observe it is my Intention, to have this Supply on Acc^{ts}. of, & charged to the State, for the Use of the Militia, & to be totally independent of & not subject to the Controul of the Cont^l. Commanding Officer—If you cannot get it on these Terms, desire Mr. Ross to purchase 4000 W^s. Lead—the same Quantity of Musket powder, & a Barrel of Flints, on Acco^t. of the State, & send 'em in some of the Waggon.

I request, that you will not detain the Bearer, above a day or two at Philad^a, that you will write to me, fully, by him, & let me know, which of you We may expect to see, at Camden, & when—Nothing material has happened here, since the Battle at Eutaw—The Gen^l. writes to Congress by the Bearer, (whom I send Express,) I therefore refer you to the official dispatches, for military Informaⁿ—M^r. Ross is directed to apply the Surplus of Money w^{ch}. may arise from the Indigo, towards purchasing Cont^l; Money, & sinking this State's Quota of it—I can't conceive it possible, that our Citizens have in their possession, the whole or even the greatest part, of our Quota, which I think, is Eighteen Millions of Cont^l. Dollars nor do I understand whether you mean by "our citizens" persons who are now in C. Town, But with^t. doubt, any who are in Philad^a. sh^d. have an opportunity, if they, chuse to part with their paper, for other Money, at the same rate that We can get Cont^l. money for, from others, to do so—you may easily find out what Amo^t; our Friends there have, & get 'em accommodated in this respect—be pleased to confer with M^r. Ross, on this point, in which, however, the greatest Secrecy, & good managem^t. will, I hope, be observed—with respect to the Loan Office Certificates you mention, M^r. Drayton wrote to me, lately, from Hillsborough that Mr. Gibbes left with him, Certificates filled up, (to be subject to my order) for 130,000 Dollars & blank Cert. for ab^t. 500,000—all of which were stolen, & carried off, by his Servant, who took every Thing he c^d. carry & went to the Enemy. I have appointed Major Barnwell, to Command a Brigade consisting of Hardens, Staffords, (formerly Gardens,) & Wilkinsons) (lately Hayne's) Regiments—

P.S. Be pleased to give M^r. Richard Hampton,¹⁴ every assistance which may be proper, & necessary, for getting his Acco^{ts}. settled—& take the Trouble of enquiring, whether M^r. Justice Burkes Trunk of Cloaths left at M^r. Gadsden's is still at Phil^a; & if it is have it sent on by one of the Waggons under Chisolme's Care—direct M^r. Ross to send 20 Rheams of Paper—& the Types I wrote to you for some Time ago—If M^r. Timothy does not come on wth. his Press Paper types &c.

P.S. Be pleased to send pr Bearer all such Resolves of Congress as it may be necessary to lay before our Legislature at their next Meeting—I have extended the time for granting Pardon, (on the Cond^{na}. ment^d. in my Proclam^a. of Sep^r.) to such as have surrend^d., or as shall surrender, before the 17th. of Dec^r.—but I never expected much Good from it, & I expect less than Ever, when it shall be known that the French Fleet is not coming agst. Gent.—

The General Assembly met here, on the 18th. Instant—I gave them a Speech, & rec^d. Addresses in Answer—all of which shall be forwarded to you, pr. Express, as soon as they are printed which they will be in a few days; the Printer is just going to work. I have some reason to believe that Manuscript Copies of those Papers will go, by this Conveyance, to Philadelphia—& as I imagine they are very incorrect, I request, that one of you will take the Trouble of sending to every Printer in the City, & desire that he will not publish any of 'em, but wait, untill you receive authentick Copies—^{w^h} you soon will—The Assembly have been sitting every day since the 18th—& have rec^d. no Interruption from the Enemy—I hope they will give us none—Indeed I don't think they will attempt any—This day the Legislature proceeded to the Choice of a Governor¹⁶ & Lieut^t. Gov^r.—Mr. Gadsden was elected Governor, but declined—Mr. Mathews¹⁷ was then chosen Governor, & M^r. Hutson Lieut^t. Governor—they will qualify to Morrow—when the other Officers, of Councillors, Sheriffs, Ordinaries, Justices &c—will be chosen—Filling up our Cont^l. Line, a Militia Law, & an Act for confiscating some Estates, are the great points before the House, but, little Progress is as yet made in them—Both Houses have voted Thanks, in the handsomest Manner, to Gen^l. Greene & the House of Representatives nem. con. ord^d. a Bill to be brought in, empowering the Executive to purchase an Estate, in this Country, of the Value of Ten Thousand Guineas, for him, in Return for his Services

¹⁴ A brother of Col. (afterwards Gen.) Wade Hampton. He commanded one of the regiments of "State Troops."

¹⁵ Jacksonborough was the only place not in the hands of the British where the Legislature could assemble on the Coast. It contained according to the Diary of Lieut. Anthony Allaire, a British officer, which is printed as an appendix to Draper's "Kings Mountain and its Heroes" (page 487) about "sixty houses" and he says "the most of the houses are very good." There were also a number of large warehouses for storing rice. General McCrady has fallen into error in stating that it was a village with "two or three small houses" (McCrady, 1780-1783, page 560).

¹⁶ Under the Constitution of South Carolina of 1778 the Governor could not be re-elected. It was a misfortune to the State that he did not continue at the head of the Government till the end of the War. He was however chosen as a Delegate to the Continental Congress, where he took a leading part. The State of South Carolina is under great obligations to Gen. McCrady for setting out so clearly in his volumes covering the Revolutionary War the services of Sumter, Marion, Pickens, Harden and other State officers, but he has done scant justice to Governor Rutledge and the Continental officers. The writer of these notes can find no justification for his steady depreciation of the services of Gen. Greene, valued so highly by the patriots who were his contemporaries.

¹⁷ The Jacksonborough Assembly gave the same powers to Governor Mathews as had been given to Governor Rutledge, but the situation of the State did not require him to use them.

THE INSCRIPTIONS ON THE GRAVESTONES AT SHELDON CHURCH

The church commonly called Sheldon Church was really the Parish Church of the Parish of Prince William. This parish was laid off as a separate and distinct parish in 1745. It formed a part of what was then Granville County and after the Revolution it fell into that part of Granville County which was reconstituted as Beaufort County. The ground on which the church edifice was constructed appears to have been given by Landgrave Edmund Bellinger (the 2nd Landgrave of the name) off of his Tomotley Barony. It was constructed on land adjacent or very near to the Sheldon plantation of Lieutenant Governor William Bull from which presumably the name commonly applied to the church. The date of first construction is uncertain but apparently it must have been practically finished by 1753 for in that year an Act was passed authorizing the Commissioners to sell the pews. Prior to the revolution the congregation was quite large for according to Dalcho at that time seldom less than 60 or 70 carriages of various descriptions were seen at the church on Sunday. A feature of the time mentioned by Dalcho was that Stephen Bull the son of the first and brother of the second Lieutenant Governor William Bull and who lived at Sheldon plantation usually invited as his guests on Sunday the more substantial part of the congregation, whilst his Overseer by his direction and at his expense entertained the rest.

The church building was destroyed by fire by the British under General Prevost in his advance against Charles Town in 1779. It remained in ruins until 1829 when it was rebuilt but in 1865 the church was again destroyed by fire by the invading army under Sherman. Since the last destruction it has never been rebuilt. The outside walls and the columns of the front portico still stand.

Its ruins and the old graveyard surrounding them are on the road from Port Royal Ferry to Purysburg about two miles west of Garden's corner and about four east of the station on the Charleston and Western Carolina Railroad called Sheldon. The
